

AT THE CARNIVAL

The Entertainment Committee tried a new stunt for the first social event of the year on October 7 and came up with a carnival. The Central High School gymnasium underwent an extensive overhauling by Carole Hinson's crew and took on the look of an old time carnival. Booths were arranged to take care of several concessions including a shooting gallery (darts were used in the interest of safety and the public peace), a gypsy fortune teller, a penny pitching game, an artist, and a booth where kisses were dealt out (don't get excited, they were molasses filled with peanut butter.)

A stage show was arranged featuring Jaques Macy, young son of Dr. & Mrs. Pierre Macy and a blackface act by Crayton Rowe and Fred Young. Jaques performed numerous feats of magic and turned in a performance like a seasoned trouper. Crayton and Fred put on a song and dance number that was good for plenty of laughs. Herman Lawing MC'd the show and conducted the bingo game. We had our photographer drop around and are printing some of the fruits of his labors. The first picture in the top row is of Miss Cone and Deanne Richardson, one of CC's graduates last year who was a visitor for the evening, discussing the proceedings near the punch bowl. We would say that Martin J. Sherrill was looking on, but Martin can't see—he's got his eyes closed. In the second picture, fortune teller Jo Mahalic predicts what seems to be a very happy future for Mrs. Pierre Macy; Dr. Macy is an interested spectator of the card-reading. Our ex-photographer forgot to find out what clown Bill Kennedy and balloon salesman Harold Parker, shown in the third picture were discussing.

In the second row, the first picture shows some of the crowd registering for the bingo game. Funny how Sherrill gets in all these pictures. The middle picture shows Jacques Macy performing some of his slight of hand tricks. In the third picture, Warren Walker, Jack Nisbet, and their dates are shown taking in the sights.

You won't believe it, but the first picture in the bottom row is Crayton Rowe doing a buck and wing. In the second picture, lightning artist Andy Turner, a visitor from Carolina, does a sketch of Carole Hinson. The last picture shows master of ceremonies Herman Lawing reading out the names in the bingo contest. We don't know who that is looking over Herman's arm unless it's Kilroy. Looks a good bit like Hugh Adams, doesn't he?

Ellis To Attend Seminar

Mr. William Edwin Ellis, Charlotte College's instructor in Driver Education, will attend a one week seminar in driver education to be conducted at the University of South Carolina beginning on October 30. The seminar is a college level course and its purpose is to teach those who conduct classes for driver education instructors. The seminar will be conducted by a nationally known instructor in the field.

Mr. Ellis is attending the seminar under a scholarship made possible by the Carolina Motor Club.

Committee Heads

(Continued from page 1)

The Publicity Committee is a new organization which has been formed to handle all publicity in connection with student activities. The publicizing of information concerning social events, elections, and other student functions is within the jurisdiction of this committee. The Elections Committee is responsible for the conduct of all regular and special elections, including the providing of voting places and materials, the counting of votes, and the announcement of election results.

"The doctor says I may have visitors from three to six," said the Convalescent.

"Who the heck wants them that young?"

Triple-thick and terrific!

Important date—yea, Man! . . . the day you adopt the bold look in Jarman's rugged "Bold Soles." See them in our window . . . try a pair today.

Bold Soles
By
Jarman
SHOES FOR MEN

$9.95 to $16.95

JARMAN SHOE STORE
138 W. Trade St.
Selwyn Hotel Bldg.
Charlotte, N. C.

Comparatively Speaking

Romeo . . . L. A., Joe, and several others; so they say
Jack (the beanstalk) . . . Mint Bervis
Mary (who had a little lamb) . . . Carolyn Reichard
Georgie Porgie . . . Jerry W.
Little Jack Horner . . . Jack N.
Dern Dumb Bell . . . (or is it Ding Dong Bell . . . Something like that) This one seems to suit just about everybody
Ole King Cole . . . Hugh A.
The Five O'clock Scholar . . . Ralph T. (First class at 4 P.M.)
Three Blind Mice . . . Meek, Isaacs and Gamble

"Oh! where have you been Billy Boy?" Miss Cone to absentee

"Ain't nobody here but us chickens." Booker and Camille

"I'll be down to get you in a taxi, Honey" Crayton & Fred

"I'll never smile again." Holladay and Kennedy

"She wouldn't say yes, She wouldn't say no." Joe Poston
"I'll take you home again, Josephine." Cotton Cash

A TREE

Of all the things that I could be I had to be a darned old tree—
A tree that stands out in the street
With little doggies at my feet;
Nothing else to be, alas,
But a comfort station in the grass.
I lift my lazy arms to pray
Get away, little doggie, get away!
A nest of robbins I must wear,
And what they do gets in my hair.
Of all the things that I could be I had to be a X X tree.

—Anon

Gruff customer: "Where's the menu?"

Waitress: "Down the aisle and first door to the right."

"When we were first married," said the sailor's wife, "you used to say I had a shape like a beautiful ship."

"Yeah," said her husband, "but your cargo has shifted."

A prominent judge sat in a box in the opera house awaiting the curtain and watching the fair ladies in lowcut gowns being ushered to their seats. After look-around the house with opera glasses, one of the ladies in the party said, "Honestly, judge, did you ever see anything like it in your life?"

"Never," gravely replied the judge, "never, since I was weaned."

Rosie's are red,
Violet's are blue,
Lillie's are pink;
I saw them on the wash line.

PARKER-GARDNER CO.

118 W. Trade St.

Records — Sheet Music
Radios
Radio-Phonographs
Television Sets
Pianos

Phone 8257

— VOTE — in the Constitution
Ratification
Referendum