

ALLURING ALUMNI

By Bill Palmer

Uncle Sam said the final word on some of our students since last quarter. Among those tapped for the service were: Thomas Trimble, David Moore, Basil Michael, and Bill Gray.

U. N. C. also claimed a number of our students. Among these were: Charles Hickman, Michael Palmer, and Willie Delane Wilkinson.

U. S. C. claimed Paul Gibson and Joe Pritchard.

Alice Sue Russell entered Nurse's training at Camden, S. C., and Charles Hows enrolled in Presbyterian College, Clinton, S. C.

Spanish Club

The Spanish Club held its monthly meeting on January 9. The main purpose of the club is to help each member become more Spanish conscious and to also help each club member improve his Spanish speaking ability.

It was agreed by all members present that dues of $1.00 be paid each quarter. Each member was asked to think of projects and activities for the club.

BILL BASS, President.

Campus Cut-ups

Campus Cut Ups of '53 is still in the process of being composed, but rehearsals will begin within a month. It was necessary to postpone the show twice, and a tentative date has been set for production as the second week-end in April.

Because there have been so few talent volunteers from C. C. it has been necessary to bring people from other schools and organizations into the play. Some good genuine C. C. talent is still needed. Students interested should contact John McClure or Marilyn Daly.

A Capitalist Swine

Every day a Russian worker would roll a wheelbarrow filled with straw out of the factory and take it home. Every day a Russian guard would inspect the straw in which he knew the worker was stealing something. One day when the guard was to be transferred, he asked the worker to tell him what he was stealing, since he was to be transferred and would not tell. The worker said, "I am stealing wheelbarrows."

Smart?

On being arrested a thief was told anything he might say would be held against him. The thief immediately said, "Marilyn Monroe."

Charlotte College's Owls lost their opening basketball game with Louisburg College by a score of 77-54. Louisburg was at least two points ahead of the Owls throughout the game.

At the end of the first quarter the score stood at 11-9, with Keever having scored five of the Owls points and Addison three.

By the end of the second quarter, Louisburg had rolled up a margin of nine points, with the score standing at 30-21. Keever again was the Owls' high scorer, with Addison and Beatty trailing.

The score was 45-33 at the end of the third quarter, and by the end of the game Louisburg had rolled up a neat 77 to the Owls' 54.

Keever led the Owl scorers with fourteen points, Addison and Beatty tied for third with twelve each.

Louisburg's Johnny Nebo racked up an impressive 22 points. A six-foot-three-inch giant, Nebo had both reach and speed over the Owls.

The Owls lost to Wilmington Jr. College by a score of 66-90 in their game of January 20th. Thrills went one-a-minute as the teams fought neck-and-neck through most of the game. The Owls got off key in the final quarter and Wilmington was quick to take advantage.

By quarters, C. C.'s scores were as follows: First—20, Second—16, Third—11, Fourth—19.

Dave Bryant led the Owls in scoring with seven baskets and seven free shots for a total of twenty points; Glenn Keever was second with eight baskets, three free shots, for a total of nineteen points; Henry Beatty was third with three baskets, three free shots, for a total of nine. Martin racked up six; Marsh, five; Danson, four; and McCathern, two. Stone wound up with one—a foul.

In the next game Gardner-Webb College blistered the Owls by a searing 90-52. Coach William Ellis was really disappointed by Charlotte's slow start in this game, in which Gardner-Webb led by 18-11 at the end of the first quarter.

At half-time Gardner-Webb had further outflanked the Owls to bring the score to 39-24

In the third, Gardner-Webb held the Owls to seven points while Henry Smith and George Bailey hit the net for twenty-two, bringing the score to 61-36.

The Owls opened up in the fourth to score thirty points, with G. W. hitting for only twenty-two, but the Owls were too late. The final score was 90-52.

Keever again led the Owls in scoring, with 17; Beatty came in second, with 10; Marsh was next with 9, and Patterson trailed with 7.

The tide turned for the Owls in their next tilt, when they romped over the Red Shields' Boys club senior team by a score of 77-61.

Keever again led the Owls in

INQUIRING REPORTER

By Robert Hickey

Question: What type of party would you like to have at C.C.?

Zeke Johnston: "A beer party—then everyone would come."

Chip Wells: "A beer party with twice as much beer as Zeke Johnston may suggest."

Jimmy Bakis: "Have a swimming party in the wash basin of the boys wash room." (Ed. Note—Boy, they'll have you under observation before long!)

Arthur Farley: "I would like to see the students of C.C. throw a dance or party and invite the girls from Queens or the student nurses at one of the hospitals as our special guests. I wonder if the boys would accept blind dates?"

Marilyn Daly: "Somebody suggested that we have a hayride. I think it's a pretty good idea. Or why not have a 'possum hunt? Ha. Hardy soul!!!!

Bud Neimer: "I think a beer party and picnic combined would be great—maybe at the Catawba River."

B. J. Stevenson: "I second the first two motions."

Wm. C. Burris: "Any kind is O. K. with me as long as the people turn out for it."
