Where To?

Since this is the last issue of The Collegian for this school year, we thought you might be interested in knowing what our graduates are planning to do after they depart from our beloved institution.

Glenn Kever expects to spend two short years in the employ of his Uncle Sam. He may decide to go on to U. N. C., however.

Jerry Martin, Bob Noreen, and Jerry Duncan are planning to keep C. C. well represented at U. N. C.

Martha Stogner plans to study elementary education at U. N. C. Take care of our boys, Martha.

James Pearson is undecided as to what he will do. He is trying to find a school he can like as much as he does C. C.

Marjorie Lotshaw is thinking about U. N. C.

Joe Griffin and Wellene Hodge will be hearing wedding bells soon. Good luck, you two.

Ronald Patterson expects to major in Physical Education at Presbyterian College.

Emma Hartsell will study religious education at High Point.

Zeke Johnson is thinking about N. C. State. JANETN TODD

Psychology Class

Mr. Corbett's Psychology class decided that they should get to know their fellow classmates better, so they had a weiner roast on Friday, May 21st, at Independence Park. The students either brought their wife or date, and Mr. Corbett brought Mrs. Corbett and the little Corbetts.

The Psychology class came to the conclusion that this is a pretty nice way of getting to know the person that sits next to you for about three months, and recommends that such outings be held more often.

Sorority Run-up

I've been asked several times just who is in the sorority. Let me give you a run-up of the Rho Gamma Alpha Sisters and a few of their sayings or characteristics.

Harriett McSheehan: "Put out that cigarette!"

"Doodles" Falkenberg: "I'll swear! Be quiet so we can have our meeting."

Janet Todd: "Got any dedications?"

"Mitzi" Stogner: "I'm U. N. C. bound." (Why, gal?)

Jan Shetler: "Little girl, have you heard . . . etc."

Margie "Lockjaw": "Com'on, Doodles, We got to catch a bus."

Joyce Dunn: "We'll ask Miss Cone."

Margie Clark: "This is only the 5th boy I've dated this week."

Kitty Monty: "Now what are they offering this quarter that I haven't already taken?"

Emma Hartsell: "What in the world has happened to the treasury?"

Mrs. Hoyle: "This is the maid's night off."

We hope to have some new members in the next few weeks. If our luck holds out, our ranks will be increased by three or four. Here's hoping! JAN SHETLER

Sorority Plans Trip

Rho Gamma Alpha Sorority held its last meeting at the home of Marjorie Lotshaw. Refreshments were served, and plans were made for the beach trip on June 11th and 12th. It is hoped that all the Sorority sisters, including those already graduated from Charlotte College, will be able to go this weekend. The Sorority plans to have monthly meetings during the summer.

Publication Heads

Both the school paper and the annual had an excellent staff this year. Glenn Kever and Martha Stogner have published a very fine paper for the students. Gary Langhorst and Margaret Falkenburg did an excellent job on the annual.

We feel the officers elected for next year's publications will do just as good a job. James Fitzgerald will edit the annual next year. No one could be more capable of doing the job well. Margie Clark has been selected as the business manager of the annual. Margie worked on the annual this year and already has experience.

John Kilgo has been selected as editor of the paper. John is well known, well liked and has done quite a bit of work on the paper this year. He will give the students a fine newspaper. Kanala Maydanis will be business manager of the paper. Kanala is new here at C. C. but quite capable of doing a good job on the paper.

So I congratulate the newly elected officers for the 1954-1955 school year and would like to thank the 1953-1954 officers for the grand job they have done.

Picnic

The Student Council has planned a picnic for May 29th. This picnic will be held at Camp Stewart, the Presbyterian Church Camp located off the Albemarle highway. Watch for posters telling exactly how to get there.

This will be the last social of the year and we want everyone to attend. Softball and other games will be available, and it is hoped that we will be able to go swimming.

Everyone is asked to bring a picnic lunch. Drinks will be furnished. Let's all come out and make this picnic a great success.

GLENN KEEVER

Have You Heard This One?

"Do you neck?"

"That's my business."

"Professional, huh?"

A little boy attending his first wedding asked his mother why the bride was dressed in white.

"Because," answered his mother, "white stands for purity and joy."

"Then why, was the logical retort, "does the groom wear black?"

Joe: Listen, darn it, I'm right. I ought to know. Didn't I go to school, Stupid?

Jack: Yeah, and you came back the same way.

"How did you like the bridge party last night?"

"Fine, until the cops looked under the bridge."

Summer School

The Summer Session of Charlotte College will open on Wednesday, June 9, 1954, and continue for twelve weeks, closing Tuesday, August 24th. The session will be divided into two terms of six weeks each.

Students attending both quarters of Summer School can earn twenty hours of credits. Credits earned are transferable to senior colleges and universities.

We would like to have a large group attending summer school this year. Come on down and get a lead start on your classmates. We are sure you will be glad later on if you do this now. For complete details on summer school, see the Summer School Bulletin which can be obtained from the office.

C. C. Hit Parade

"Ain't Misbehaving" — Larry Brown to Mrs. Hoyle.

"So Tired" after doing English II homework.

"Hazy" right after a chemistry test.

"Again" another "F" on a Spanish test.

"I'll Get By" making a "D" on physics second quarter.

"Feuding, Fussing, and Fighting" in economics class.

"It Isn't Fair" sending us back to class after assembly fifteen minutes before the bell.

"Don't Fence Me In" to make up a class theme.

"Always" French homework.

"My Desire"—Owl's Roost to serve hamburgers.

"Because" the sandwich man is late, I'll starve.

"Nevertheless" I'll go to C. C.

"I'll Walk Alone"—'cause no one will skip class with me.

"If" we just had a few more girls at C. C.

"Have You Heard?" I'll be back in summer school.

"O Happy Day" We're graduating.

"Only Believe" and you'll make an "A" in trig.

"No Help Wanted." Let me flunk in peace.

"Going Steady" 'cause no one else will go with me.

"Anywhere I Wander" I bump into Miss Cone.

"It's in the Book" but I can't find it.

"He's in the Army Now" 'cause he couldn't get a deferment.

"So Long" for a while, till the next issue.

When others fail him, the wise man looks to the sure companion-ship of books.—Andrew Lang.

A good book is the best of friends, the same today and forever.
