Top Seeded 49ers Lose DIAC Tourney To Second Place Lynchburg, 75-61

After rolling through the regular season with a 9-1 conference record, the Charlotte College 49ers were defeated by Lynchburg College in the finals of the Dixie Intercollegiate Athletic Conference Tournament. The 49ers, however, did depose of St. Andrews, the only team to beat them in Conference play in the semifinals.

The 49ers gained the right to play in the finals by defeating St. Andrews 86-72 on the hot shooting of Tommy Gilliam, Wally McGint, and Charlie Jacobs.

Charlotte started slowly as they committed numerous mistakes in the opening minutes of play but recuperated and took command and stayed there for the entire game. St. Andrews played a man-for-man defense and the 49ers picked it apart with short jump shots and lay-ups.

The 49ers held a 13-point halftime lead at 46-33 and St. Andrews never got closer than seven the rest of the way. Charlotte built up a 19 point spread midway through the second half only to see it cut to 14 points before time ran out.

Gilliam led Charlotte with 24 points followed by McGinty and Jacobs with 22 and 20 respectively. Jimmy James was also in double figures with 11 points.

Benny Brockwill put on a display of hot shooting as he pumped for 33 points to lead St. Andrews. Larry Taylor added 17 points in the losing cause.

St. Andrews	33	39-72

Lynchburg earned a berth in the finals by defeating North Carolina Wesleyan College 81-77 in the opening game of the semifinals. Wayne Proffitt scored 26 points to lead Lynchburg followed by Lloyd Nelson with 20.

In the finals Lynchburg defeated the 49ers 75-61 as Wayne Proffitt put on a fabulous one man show by scoring 45 points including the last twenty points his team scored.

The 49ers pulled within two points 35-33 on a jump shot by Charlie Jacobs. Then Proffitt went to work, the sophomore transfer student from Appalachian proceeded to score 20 points in the last nine minutes and sixteen seconds of the game.

The 49ers led only once in first half 32-31 on a three point play by Bobby Lemmond, however, Lynchburg pulled away to lead 41-37 at halftime.

Jacobs led the 49ers with 20 points followed by Ronnie Robinson with 11 and Jimmy James with 10.

Lynchburg	41	34-75

The loss to Lynchburg left the 49ers record for the 1964-65 season at 16-9 an exact reversal of last season's 0-16 record. This was Charlotte's first winning season in the school's history. Coach Irv Edleman was named the Dixie Conference Coach of the Year for leading Charlotte to the conference regular season Championship.

Tennis Team Needs More Players

Prospective members of the Charlotte College tennis team met Tuesday, Feb. 23, in room 210 of the College Union in an organizational meeting to make plans for the coming tennis season.

At this meeting, Barry Grice, one of four returning members of last year's team, was elected team captain.

It was pointed out at this meeting that the team at present has only the minimum number of prospects necessary for effective competition, and that prospective members would be welcomed. If anyone is interested in trying out for the team leave word at the College Union information desk or call Barry Grice at VA 7-3684 in Mount Holly.

Charlotte To Host DIAC Bowling Team

The Charlotte College bowling team will end its season at the Dixie Conference tournament to be held at Charlotte's Coliseum Lanes, Saturday, March 6.

The '49ers have experienced a rather dismal regular season, finishing sixth in the six-team Conference. They haven't completely lost hope, however, for they are pointing for a few upsets when the chips are down next Saturday.

Lettermen Ernie Boyoucas, Ken Sloop, and Bob Alexander, plus first-year men Ed Hemmle, Scott MacMillan, George Beck, Jim Short, Dicky Helbein, and David Hollifield feel that they definitely still have a chance for victory. Most of their hopes rest upon the shoulders of high scorers, Boyoucas and Hemmle, the two who have sparked the team all year.

Ernie Boyoucas says, "We haven't won many matches, but we've always shown up." The team figures that maybe if they show up Saturday they can win a match, too.

Students To Attend Foreign Affairs Conference

Students interested in attending the second annual China-Southeast Asia Conference at Harvard University March 25-28 should contact Rasmi Shalabi or Mrs. Winningham before March 12. Charlotte College already has some students going.

According to the New York Times last year's conference proved to be "an indication of marked shift in official U.S. Chinese Policy."

String Quartet Performs Here

A REVIEW

By DR. J. A. SLECHTA

A string quartet of local musicians, including Derry Deane and Roger Drinkall, who recently performed at Charlotte College as the Deane-Drinkall Duo, presented a program of string quartets Wednesday, Feb. 24, in the Library Auditorium. In addition to the Drinkalls, Elaine Richey performed on violin, and Sarah Slechta on viola.

The opening Quartet-Satz of Schubert was played crisply, yet with the requisite undertone of Schubertian melancholy.

The Debussy quartet which followed reflected beautifully the sheen of harmony intended by the composer, and showed the work for the gem of chamber-music that it is.

The Richey, String-Quartet No. 1, previously performed at Davidson College, is a work, modern in its freedom, yet staying well within the familiar range of harmony and rhythmic patterns. It was performed quite suitably in a manner slightly impersonal, but still flexible.

The quality of the quartet was most happy, in spite of the absence of what would seem to be the most promising acoustical conditions. In fact, though musicians may be slightly uncomfortable in the dry sound of the auditorium stage, the effect is most satisfactory to the audience.

It might be hoped that the quartet might be heard again, and even that the college, taking advantage of the presence of such musicians in our community, might see the possibilities of a resident quartet as part of a music program that we hope will not be too long delayed.
