prohi for the grand old soldier, ated let us ever shout.

der, ing the bells inside out, all proclaim both far and near, arrah! old "Jeff" is coming here. ast let us pray so deep and true, Lord wilt thou his strength renew, Rely on God to help us through.

erease; Now soon thine own will clasp bumble grace. bayis the hero whom we love,

die no more.

Evangeline Ushers. A Neglected Faculty.

knowledge is a weight, to carry it picture of the whole. requires exertion, and persons of Let the children of the present with such burdens.

beyond the college warls than he to the end." feels the need of the "rubbish" he

Forcing knowledge upon an un- of eight could repeat the whole of trained mind is like pouring water Scott's poem, "Marion," by heart. upon a seive, and the vague impres- He could repeat the greater part of sions that remain are in the same the "Lav of the Last Minstrel" proportion as the moisture that after reading it the first time, and at Mitvlene Pittacus doubled adheres to the polished wire. It is made himself master of the fourth the ramishmient of any crime if it not what a man acquires, but what act of the "Merchant of Venice" in had been committed under the inhe sayes that makes him wealthy; so two hours. He knew by heart the fluence of wine. In republican it is not what we learn but what we whole of Richardson's "Sir Charles Rome the citizens, both men and retain that makes us wise and Grandison," a work of prodigious women, were forbidden to partake of about $3,000. cholarly. Many persons of splendid size, and so well stored was his wonopportunities and unquestionable derful mind with the odds and ends ability, who live to be old, are thrown of multifarious knowledge, that with the world and see life in all its Sydney Smith said of him: "He phases, owing to this habit of forget- is like a book in breeches." His fulness, never put on the swaddling indefatigable industry and painstakclothes of judgment or advance ing methods caused Thackeray to beyond the alphabet of experience. remark that he read twenty books to forget whatever is painful or un- hundred miles to make a line of pleasant and only record upon the description. mental register such circumstances Sir Walter Scott had a remarkably by having an ear cut off, marked as not have been in doubt, but what better dispense with diamonds than ing of the whole of Campbell's hopelessly torpid that they can only the versatility of his knowledge.

be aroused by sorrow. financial necessities.

house, and the larger the number tries. and variety of the coins, the greater

THE STANDARD.

VOL. II.---NO, 27.

CONCORD, N. C., FRIDAY, JULY 19, 1889.

WHOLE NO. 79.

The Choise was Dificult.

"Jake," he cried out, "Jake Dor-

"Why, laws a massy, Ginral, how

They chatted for a few minutes.

"Do you come up here often,

"Pooty nigh every day. The folks

"They are handsome, arn't they,

After much solicitation Jake un

young ladies, with various colored

His Example.

sacredly preserved in that State, one

After the battle of Monmouth

the American army was encamped on the farm of a certain John Vance.

Washington, with his staff, was quartered in the farm house. A daughter of the farmer was seriously ill in an upper room. As soon as Washington heard this he gave

During supper he set the example of caution to his officers by conversing in an undertone, retiring as soon as the meal was finished to his own sing and laugh uproaringly. In the midst of the fun the General's door

on tiptoe.

proaches is 2,380 feet.

or drums beat near the house.

courtesy of Gen. Washington.

leetle the trimest."

Youth's Companion.]

of sight.

"Deed they air."

Vale Februs

and argument never could.

light literature. The mind is like happiest style. the stomach, if given more than it can digest it refuses to retain anything. The greatest writers, scholars Youth's Companion.] and philosophers have been the that we are tempted to depend too many of our modern songs.

of events was kept by tradition only, them is one beginning, the memory of the average man was There is not one faculty so well stronger and more highly valued worth enitivating, yet one so fre- than at present. There were comneutly neglected and abused, as paratively few things worthy to be that of memory. The practice be- handed down, each patriarch living gins with the infant's first lesson within his own little world and his and the habit grows upon him as observation and experience extending to advances. A child goes to no futher than his own tribe. But about to acquire knowledge; in a in this fast age of electricity and majority of cases he prepares him- printing presses, when the whole of merely for the immediate reci- world is united as one great family, tames, or at best, for examination, and the present and the past is which is near at hand. This ordeal spread before us as the happenings our he finds himself in the condi- of a single day, the student turns tion of the Irishman, who having from the endless chronicle with a hed up for a rainy day, seized upon feeling of despair, since in trying to he first inclement spell to rid his take in so much he gets a clear idea pockets of the troublesome hoard of nothing and has only a confused gay tempers and luxury-loving na- generation reason, speculate and tures are slow to cumber themselves invent as much as is wholesome or profitable, but let them not under-The boy who wrestles with his value or neglect this great and imlist dates and the prosy record of portant faculty, the cultivation of distorted incident feels upon his which is the very foundation stone mental vertebra the pressure of an of true education and mental de-Explain pyramid. He longs to velopment. Lord Macaulay, who get from under it, to soar like a possessed the most retentive memory bird in the fresh free air of specula- known to modern history, says: and invention. "I cannot tax "When a boy I began to read very Down Aaron's beard it downward man brain with such rubbish," he earnestly, but at the foot of every save I will develop my reasoning page I read I stopped and obliged and reductive powers." He takes to myself to give an account of what made matters and philosophy, and in I had read on that page. At first I had to read it two or three times gonal studies, cares little as to the before I got my mind firmly fixed. war in which America was discovered But I compelled myself to comply or the nature of events which led with the plan, until now, after I to the peaceful era which he is per- have read a book through once I can Wondrous Cross?" mitted to enjoy. He is no sooner almost recite it from the beginning

In such perfect training did he has left in the library; but instead have his mental powers and this of setting to work to redeem lost wonderfully retentive memory of opportunities, he too often lets "1 his that it is said, with perfect truth. used to know" serve for the infor- that if Milton's works could have mation not at hand, and consoles been entirely lost, Macaulay could himself with the belief that this is have restored every line with coma legitimate and acceptable substi- plete exactness. He was equally at home with Homer, and at the age Enjeureans tell us that it is better to write a sentence and traveled a with rods for the second, for the

and events as are happy to recall. retentive memory, two striking illus- infamous, and banished. This is a mistake. The world could trations of which are his repeatcharcoal, and it is from the sadder "Pleasures of Hope" after only but pleasant treatment in our own experiences of life that we derive twice perusing it, and another of most profit. The touch of a fire- his going through an entire ballad brand leaves a more lasting impres- three years after first hearing it. sion than the caress of a tender Byron, also, had a fine memory hand, and some intellects are so and often surprised his friends by Andrew Fuller, after hearing In our intercourse with men five hundred lines twice, could renothing helps one through the world peat them without a mistake, and like a well stored mind. Next to a it is said of Porson that so marvelfull purse it is a man's best friend, ous was his memory that there and if properly used, its fortunate were few subjects concerning which possessor need never fall a victim to he was not able to illustrate his knowledge by quotations from the The memory is a mental banking writings of his own and other coun-

With most authors it is easier the facility for traveling in all to commit to memory any one else's lands and meeting the demands of productions than their own. It is told of Bret Harte that when Charles Men in public life, politicians, G. Leland first met him at a London

Old Hymns.

Complaint is sometimes made that readers of a few well selected volumes, some of the hymns and Gospel songs realizing that there was more real of to-day lack the spirituality and information to be gained by the deep religious sentiment that should referson Davis, the true the brave, study of one good book than the characterize songs of worship, and ver to thee is honor due, superficial reading of a thousand. that did mark many of the old is in the field our land to save, is in the "gray" to oppose the life improved facilities for printing hymns written by Doctor Watts and superficial reading of a thousand, that did mark many of the old -cyclopædias and the daily press others. While it is true that some cither in war or ever in peace, are the greatest foes to the cultivation of memory. These reference of the most tender and beautiful hymns in all our hymnody were tion of memory. These reference hymns in all our hymnody were books of epitamized knowledge are written by these old writers, others so convenient and easy of access are subject to the objections made to much upon them, and outside of our own libraries are like a lawyer without his precedents or a musician without his precedents or a musician without his precedents.

A contributor to the Christian Union, writing on this subject, quotes some of the quaint old hymns In olden times, when the art of all events, are not calculated to letters was unknown and the record arouse religious feelings. Among

> Up from the sands, ye codlings, peep, And wag your tails about!

gation of to-day to sing this without almost as amusing:

The race is not forever got, By him who fastest runs, Nor the battle by the people Who shoot the longest guns."

A Northern clergyman, during the Civil War, used to say that never until then had he found occasion or justification for his personal employment of David's imprecatory psalms; a sentiment which was no doubt reciprocated on the other side. The fathers, however, sang without de-

"Why dost Thou hold Thine hand s.back, And hide it in Thy lap?

O pluck it out and be not slack To give thy foes a rap!"

tive to devontness, even though in form Scriptural, in the paraphrase of the one-hundred-and-thirty-third Psalın:

'Tis like the precious oitment Down Aaron's beard did go;

His garment skirts unto." But who is there who has not at some time had his heart touched and been thrilled by such old hymns as "When I can Read my Title Clear." "Am I a Soldier of the Cross?" "Come, Holy Spirit, Heav- year. enly Dove," or "When I Survey the Drunkards, a metropolitan periodical has just been pointing out, are more mercifully dealt with in the present than in past days. In classic Greece such offenders were subjected to the severest penalties. In Athens Solon punished them with death; Lycurgus, in Sparta, destroyed the vineyards in his territory and took every precaution to prevent the transmission of a habit of inebriety from father to child. In Locris wine was permitted only to invalids, wine before they had attained the age of 30. In mediaval times the same severity obtained, and Francis I., though himself no model king, pub lished in 1536 an edict to the effect. that every one found drunk should be imprisoned, with bread'andwat er diet, for the first offense, beaten third publicly whipped, and, if he

It might be added that in much district. About the middle of the to hide from the night patrol. How seventeenth century the common often, oh! how often, in days of drunkard was led through the streets auld lang syne, I have tried to cross of this town as a spectacle of conthe past seems scarcely calculated to promote that desirable consumma-

Princess Victoria of Prussia.

The engagement of Prince Albert Philadelphia Enquirer.]

bitterly oppose to this match on ac- thousand miles away. Great was, therefore, the astonish them. ment when in February last Prince Alexander suddenly married an opera to Prince Albert Victor is the direct Bulgaria's suit, and who has thus pensation for having been jilted.

What They Make.

Ellen Terry is paid $600 a week. Fred Leslie receives $500 a week. Charles Coghlan is paid $350 a was $1,000,000.

R. W. Gilder receives $20,000 year from the Century. Mrs. Chanler (Amelie makes about $10,000 a year. W. D. Howells receives from Harpers $10,000 a year. Mayo W. Hazeltine receivs $175 week from the New York Sun. Colonel John Cockerill is paid $20,000 a year by the New York

Up to recently Francis Wilson was paid a salary of $525 a week. Edgar W. Fawcett receives about $4,000 a year for all his writings. The late E. P. Roe found no dif ficulty in writing $50,000 worth a

Brander Matthews averages at annual income from literature of The Bridge.

LONG WAY AFTER LONGFELLOW. I stood on the bridge at midnight. drunk as a son-of-a-gun, two moons rose o'er the city, when there ought to have been but one. I could see their bright reflection in the water under me, and I experienced a feeling of wonder and great currosity. then proved incorrigible, punished If only one had been there I would two moons were doing, I could not well make out. The tide was slowly more recent time topers had anything ebbing, I could hear the waters roll, as I stood in the wavering shadows tempt, covered with a large barrel But to-night I was hot and restless, called the "Newcastle cloak," one my mind was full of care, and the end of which being removed served walk that lay before me was more taffy while I am with you, and less to envelop the body of the unlucky than I could bear. I had no latch-Bacchanal, while the other end, a key with me, and locked would be circular aperture being formed, ad- the door, and I would have to sit in the door-way in agony and fear, till mitted the head of the offender, by a voice said from the window: "Did, which means the vessle rested upon the lodge hold late, my dear?" So his shoulders. Much as the sup- to-night I stood there dreaming and Gen. Gordon. pression of drunkenness is to be watched the restless tide, till a cop wished, recourse to the methods of came along with a wagon, and invited

A Chinaman cannot become citizen of the United States.

The Age of Marvels.

Victor of Wales, eldest son of the In view of the almost incredible west of Dennison, Texas, brought to Here is a story that General Price especially, know the value of this table, he (Bret Harte) was called Prince of Wales, to his cousin, progress of the last two generations this city a few days ago his little child Young tells: Away up in the Georth of Hon. Jefferson Davis faculty and make a study of re- upon to recite "The Heathen Princess Victoria of Prussia, daugh- it is not the best judgment which Sailie, to be treated for snake bite. gia mountains lies Catoosa Springs, permit his attending the Consti- membering names and faces. It is Chinee!" When he replied that he ter of Empress Frederick of Ger- pronounces the post electric system About 6 o'clock in the morning the a favorite summer resort of Savanremain his account inventive maniac. There is a fresh- gather blackberries near Stone day Gen. Young saw an old fellow but it required genius to remember announced. Princess Victoria was ness about the proposition that we spring. She was absent a long time, come up with a basket of eggs and Nothing injures the memory like and recite it, which he illustrated born in 1866, and is therefore now shall yet send letters across the con- and when Mrs Hedden went in bunch of chickens for the hotel peothe corsory reading of a mass of by giving the piece called for in his twenty-three years old, and is said tinent between the dawns of successions and the child ple, and recognized an old trooper of to be a charming, sympathetic girl, sive days that takes the average seated on a rock and in her lap was of his command. who has always been very fond of breath away, and the suggestion that a large rattlesnake. The snake's England. Few Princesses have been passengers are to be rushed through head was slightly raised and moving ridge, how are you?"

> train upon a railroad in this State to the mother, who screamed so made a run of ninety odd miles in loudly that her husband heard her nearly two miles per minute. If appeared the snake placed itself in ous results as this, why not that vibrated with the noise of the ratgreater power, electricity, eclipse this tles. Hedden advanced upon the

The engagement was post- objects which were deemed immova- like going to sleep. soned, but not given up, and it was ble. There are improvements to the well understood that the marriage telegraph which would have astonwas to have taken place this year, ished Morse had he lived to see from a trip on the lake. be a lawyer if that is all that brought gentleman's command. you out here. Come up stairs, and I will examine you."

Supreme Court must sign the paper beautiful, no one was near to in-

room and was asked one or two ques- acter of a girl according to the tions which were so simple that he month she is born in, as follows: could hardly refrain from laughing as he answered them. Then the will be a prudent housewife, given judge gravely remarked: "Young to melancholy, but good-tempered, tered the room and walked noiselessly was abolished by law in that State. man, I am about to ask you a ques- and fond of fine clothes. tion upon which your future rests; one which will test your capabilities as a lawyer in Virginia, one which I to dress. hesitate to ask you because I feel an interest in you." "Please propound box, somewhat given to quarrelling, will. On this shelf over my head nets. they are tapping a keg of beer, intelligent, but likely to be good courtesy of silence towards them- amused by the unversality and chean-The question is, which will you looking and studious of fashion selves.

take? "If you don't mind, I will take a and given to style and dress. little of both."

pressively, "I will sign your paper, clothes. and let me assure you that I am confident that you will succeed in but with a sulky temper and a pen the practice of law in this State."

A philosopher who has kept his cal, likely to marry rich and dress eyes open says: "Give me no more strikingly. epitaphy when I am gone."

It is said in England that Col. ser. Goring, the hero of Mr. Froude's If in October, pretty and counet- of $20,000 was to buy $18,000 worth novel, "The Two Chiefs of Donboy," tish, and devoted to attractive garni- diamonds and a thousand dollar was meant in some sort to represent ture.

provided with breech loading rifles of stylish dress. which will carry a distance of 6,000 If in December, well proportioned, above the river level. The total estate and restore it to its natural a feet. Noiseless powder will also be fond of novelty, and extravagant, length of the bridge and its ap- elected and elevating place and use used in future by the army.

H. P. Hedden, who resides south- Wilmington Star.

space at the rate of 200 miles per to and fro. Sometimes it would hour is apt to alarm the apprehen- almost touch the lips of the child, de-do? I havent seen ye since the sive. But the proposition is not be- who pushed it away without appear- war." yond the limits of possibility for all ing to anger the snake. The child was so completely under the spell of A few days ago an experimental the serpent that it paid no attention Jak e!" want my chickens 'n' sigs. I like about sixty minutes, some portion a quarter of a mile distant and to rest my eyes a-looken' at some of the journey being at the rate of hurried to the scene. When Hedden o' these yere pooty gala." steam can accomplish such marvel- an attitude of battle and the air Jake?" stupendous record? The truth is snake, the child fell back as if in a waving his hand toward a group of that we live in a phenomenal age. swoon, and the snake struck it on three young ladies with whom he All the ancient faiths concerning the thumb of the right hand and had been chatting, "tell me which Berlin. the development of material things then sprang at Hedden, who killed of those three young ladies is the so much talked of as she, cwing to are being rudely jostled by the push- it with a stone. Hedden sucked prettiest." her former engagement to the ex- ing shoulders of science. It is no the wound, which he is confident Prince of Bulgaria. It will be re- longer the dream of a visionary that saved the life of the little girl. pooty. "Twouldn't be good manners "Ye monsters of the bubbling deep, membered that Prince Bismarck was we shall converse with persons a Saleratus was also applied to the States who can read English is but bitterly oppose to this match on acwound. The hand and arm of the t'other." count of the offence which the mar- Marked progress has been made little girl were only slightly swollen It would be difficult for a congre- riage would give Russia, and the toward the problem of arial naviga- when she was brought to the city great deal of pleasure to learn your ded two years at least to the life of consequences of which would most tion, and although it is as yet im- for treatment. The child says she opinion. They are great friends, smiling, and the one that follows is likely have led to war. A bitter possible to predict the ultimate out- was sitting on the rock picking and will not feel at all hurt at your struggle took place between the come, it is not insanity to believe berries when the snake appeared, and decision. Now walk right up and Prince, who was supported by all that air ships may yet be run counthat she was unable to move when pick out the best looking." Germany, and the Empress, and ter to the winds. The turning of a she looked at it; that she was not poor Emperor Frederick's short reign key illuminates a populous city and afraid of it, when it waved its head dertook the task. He walked up and was very much embittered by all new explosives shatter in an instant to and fro before her face she felt peered closely at the laughing girls.

"Hiss the Fool and Let Him Go Finally Jake turned, scratching his

The story goes that a certain society young man, noted for his handsome bearing and winning voice, that Princess Victoria's engagement At the Princeton reunion last accompanied a young lady to her week one of the eighty-six men told home and, as all true lovers do, linwork of the Queen herself, who had a story of his success in getting a gered yet a little while at the gate always favored Prince Alexander of commission of attorney at law in to have a lover's tete-a-tete with his Virginia, where three judges of the fair companion. The night was before the applicant can become a trude, and above all he loved her! member of the bar. The three Why shouldn't she kiss him? With sashes, dashed into the hotel and out indges examine the candidates sepa- true maidenly modesty she refused. rately, and affix their names to his He implored. She still withheld paper. He said that he got two of from him that which would fill his the necessary signatures after un- cup of happiness. The request was dergoing a pretty stiff examination repeated several times, and so enby each of the magistrates. Then grossed did the young man become he sought the third judge. He went in wooing he failed to notice the to his country town in search of approach of the paternal step. The him, and there learned that he was old gentleman had been there himon a fishing trip at a lake tive miles self and did not care to intrude upon away, in the mountains. It was the happiness of the young couple, impossible to get a conveyance in so quietly stepping behind a conthe town, and the young man con- venient rose bush, waited, thinking cluded to walk out to the lake. On the young man would soon leave. the way he was overtaken by a party In this he was mistaken. The lover of men who had a keg of beer in tarried over the request until the their wagon, and were going to join patience of the old gentleman was the indge and his friends. They exhausted. A voice the couple well made room for him, and when they knew aroused them from their haparrived at the cottage they found piness, in a tone of impatient anger, that the judge had just returned by saying: "Daughter, kiss that fool and let him go home!" It is The young man told the judge reported that the young man only why he had sought him. "Well," hit the ground in high places in his said the judge, "you must want to endeavor to comply with the old

GIRL'S BIRTHDAYS .- An old as

The young man went to the judge's trological prediction gives the char-If a girl is born in January, she

> If in February, an affectionate wife and tender mother, and devoted If in March, a frivolous chatter-the door behind him. it," said the confident youth. "I and a connoisseur in gowns and bonis a bottle of whiskey. Down stairs If in April, inconstant, not very for the sick girl, but by his gentle of other blood are often amazed and plates. Then the young man said promptly: If in May, handsome, amiable,

"Mr. Gaines," said the judge im- early, be frivolous, and like dressy and fine courtesy of manner is no it may be promptly retorted that vice If in July, possibly handsome, > chant for gay attire. If in August, amiable and practi-

If in September, discreet, affable, much liked, and a fashionable dres-

If in November, liberal, kind, of

and a student of dressy effects.

THE STANDARD.

WE DO ALL KINDS OF

JOB WORK ---IN THE---

NEATEST MANNER -AND AT-THE LOWEST RATES.

ODDS AND ENDS.

Bees never store up honey in the

The dying breath of flowers is their sweetest perfume.

Leaves will attract dew when rood and stone will not.

A horse gets up on his fore feet. and a cow on her hind feet.

A squirrel comes down a tree head first and a cat tail first.

The total Indian population of the United States is 247,761. Corn on the ear is never found with an uneven number of rows.

A child born of Chinese parents

in this country can become a citizen.

Life is not so short but that there is always time enough for courtesy. The cinchona tree loses its 'malarial" properties in a healthy

Wiggins predicts that Philadelphia will have a severe earthquake in

"Now, Jake," said Gen. Young, American yellow pine is a great favorite for wooden pavements in

In England check reins are now entirely out of use, being forbidden "Aw, General Young, they's all by law.

Number of Indians in the United "But, Jake, it will give them a Quinine is estimated to have ad-

Rats and mice have as great an aversion to the odor of chloride of lime as humans. The Government conscience fund has just been increased by fourteen two-cent stamps. About one hundrel guests had gath-Heart failure is said to be a disered by this time to see the trial. ease which is encroaching upon American colleges. head. All three of the young ladies The word "vinegar" is derived wore broad sashes around their from two French words, vin aigre, "Gineral Young, they's all three meaning sour wine.

so pooty it is hard to make a choice. Nine petrified frogs were found in but still I am forced to say that the a solid rock at High Springs, Fla., one with the yaller belly-band is a during a recent day. It is said a salve of equal parts of

There was a scream, a flutter of tar, tallow and salt will cure the white dresses, and three blushing Small farmers in France make from $1,000 to $2,000 a year fattening snails for market. The Mormons of Utah and Idaho are emigrating in large numbers to British North America. Among the anecdotes relating to John L. Sullivan in ten years has the revolutionary campaigns within boxed before audiences that paid the limits of New Jersey which are nearly $600,000 to see him.

of the pleasantest is a little story The deepest coal pit in the world which illustrates the kindness and is said to be the St. Andre, in the Charleroi, Belgium, district.

> Our grand business is not to see what lies dimly at a distance, but to do what lies clearly at hand. The English sparrow, undisguised, is said to take the place of the reed bird on Chicago bills of fare. J. A. Schuyler, of Pattstown, Penn., has a piece of amber from orders that no guns should be fired the Baltic Sea inclosing a petrified beetle. A Miss Patten, at Boston, was three times pronounced dead by the doctors, and she is now in fair chamber, which adjoined the dining health. Jefferson Davis thas received an After he had gone, however, the offer from a Northern publisher to spirits of the young men rose, and write a history of the Confederate forgetting their orders, they began to States.

With strange inconsistency New York farmers never turned their atopened softly, and Washington en- tention to raising hemp until hanging

He crossed to the fireplace, took a THE KISSING HABIT .- A writer book from the mantel shelf, and as in Good Housekeeping vigorously silently returned without a word, nod- condemns the kissing habit, and ding a small good night as he closed calls for its abandoment in this wise: "The kissing habit has been carried The officers stood ashamed and reto its greatest extreme among Engbuked, not only by his consideration lish-speaking people, and the people ness of the kiss among the English It was the age of fine and stately nations. It is not necessarily an manners, and the bearing of this, the argument in its favor, however, that noblest of gentleman in that age, is it is thus found to be an accomplish-If in June, impetuous, will marry worthy of study now, when careful ment of the highest civilization, for longer so striking a characteristic of and crime also increase with civilization, and refined peoples keep alive barbarous practices inherited from A Windsor, Me., philosopher says savage ancestry. The kiss, in its a man can live forever on a diet proper functions, has a fine signifilimited to parched peas and spring cance, and may be made the vehicle water. He knows, because he's tried of the purest emotions, the honest expression of legitimate feeling, a The first thing George Sheldon of greeting full of genuine, voluntary Indiana did when he got a legacy sympathy and love. The kissing habit is an abuse and a misuse. It has brought the kiss into disgrace and made it vulgar, cheap and hypo-The roadway of the recently com- critical. Be it the province of this The Russian army will soon be a mild disposition, and an admirer pleted Washington bridge over Har- generation of refinement and educalem river, New York city, is 151 feet | tion to rescue it from its degraded in the social economy."