THE STANDARD.

LARGEST PAPER PUBLISHED IN CONCORD.

CONTAINS MORE MEADING MATTER THAN ANY OTHER PAPER IN THIS SECTION.

CUNNING CHUCK.

A Christmas Story of Plantation Days.

An old negro, the owner of a well cultivated farm, sat with a number his grand-children in front of a blazing fire of hickory logs. Christs the children's faces happy fancy had drawn pictures of bright eagerness. The old man had just put some sweet potatoes in the fire to roast when a boy said: "Gran dady, tell as erbout er Chris'mas er long time ergo, 'lo' de wah, w'en you wuz er

Huh we had Chris'musses sho "Jun. we had christmusses sho nuff in dem days, but I reckon da peered happier caze I wuz young at de time. I berionged ter er ole man named John Peter Thomas. He wa'nt er bad pusson, but he had er ty heep o' cuis ways erbout I rick'lecks one Chris'muss in de specially. Ole m rster he got inter trouble wid de church. He hal been er mighty man in de con-gergation-furnishet all de wood fur ter keep de house wa'm, an' ole mistiss she mighty nigh allus baked le sackerment bread. One day de preacher-an' I neber did like de man, he wuz so stuck up -borrid marster's hoss ter ride ter town, an' I reckon he muster got brank ur suthin', fur w'en he got back de hoss wuz putty nigh dead, he had been runned so hard. Marster didu't like it er tall, au' he guns-ter tilk tet de preacher er bout it. au' de preacher he talk sorter short, an den marster whupped him, whup-ped him a wful, too- Wall, de church tack it up, an not ter got inter er quarrel wid de head men an bless bearts, da turned marster out. It tickled de niggers, but you better blebe da soon gunter laugh on de yuder side da mouths. Ole marster lowed dat he wuz done wid 'ligion -dat he wan't eben gwine ter keep Chris'muss. Dis made us look pow-etful blue, I tell you. We had been in de habit o' restin' an 'joyin' our-se'is fur er whole week. All we'd hatter do wuz ter git up er nuff wood ter last er week, an den we'd be ez free ez birds. We'd roam ober de country an ketch rabbits, an hunt possons at night an' hab dances wid de gals, an jes' hab er high time all 'roun'. But all dis wuz gwine be stopped. De ole man wuz gwine de tire."-Ol Free Press.

It Was Another Chap. make us work all through de Chris-"Dar wuz er sort o' Guinea nigger tibed in the cabin next ter mine- He waz er mighty funny pusson, an da called him Chuck. Well, atter we foun out de thing had dun been settled an dat we wan't gwine ter chuck atter we dan dat we wan't gwine ter get no Chris'muss, I went inter Chuck's cabin one night ter greave wid him as I had dun greaved wid and the Baron comes out unhurt.

has took place ter night. I wuz jest er toolin' 'bout you folks not habin'

VOL. III.---NO, 50.

Most of the Delegates Have Arrived, no Chris'muss.' "I wan't gwine say nuthin' fur I and Others Coming In--- The Durham Globe Man There-Every-thing in a Happy Condition. wuz mighty nigh skeered outen my raw hide shoes, I tell you; an wen I got ter my cabin' I wuz so 'cited dat I bumped bof sides o' de do' ez Editorial Correspondence.

FROM ASHEVILLE.

piness in de quarter dat night, an claims to be 29 years of age, but we while I wuz settin' by de fire, mos' ready ter go ter bed, who should come in but old Chuck.

Whut I tell you?' says he. "'What I tell you? says he. "You tole me de truf an 'nuthin' shorter, but I 'clar I thought you dun los' yo' mine. Say, ef you swar you neber mention it I will tell you with 'will tell you "What I tell you? says he. "Shorter, but I 'clar I thought you dun los' yo' mine. Say, ef you swar you neber mention it I will tell you "What I tell you? says he. "Shorter, but I 'clar I thought you dun los' yo' mine. Say, ef you swar you neber mention it I will tell you "What I tell you?" Florida's banner showed a bright, the's always in a fighting attitade and chews "pig-tail tobacco." He's a desperate eater, and has pocketed southy, municipal and other public or corporate securities. That the amount has decreased (relatively) rather than increased with the growth of trade and wealth, and dicted. There were a great many suthin'. Will you swar? "'Yas,' say he, 'I will swar.' Den I tole him whut had happen-

I swo e, an den he laughed like he Fairbrother is a terror.

Christmuss we laid him down under ac big red oak tree. Take yere, lemme git deze sweet taters outen de tire. —Opie P. Read, in Detroit Lemme git deze sweet taters outen de tire. —Opie P. Read, in Detroit A young shoe manufacturer of

A young shoe manufacturer of coming investments .- "X" in Merk- around Asheville. Concord is remembered here as hav- lenburg Times, ing walked over the mountains, fearing to ride down Round Knob.

For some time past a San Fran-The convention opens at 10 a. ni.

CONCORD, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 25, 1890.

THE STANDARD.

LAND AS AN INVESTMENT. THE CITY OF THE SKY. Paper Securities Losing Ground. A Few Remembered Things.

The great Farmers' Alliance and Industrial Union, Ocala, Fla., has unanimously agreed to petition Con-at 12 m. on the 18th. Just how dat you thought I wan't gwine grin you no collerday. W'y de Lawd know I lub you, an 'stead o' habm' er week, w'y bless yo' souls, you may hab twc.' He looked at me w'en he say dis, but he neeter, fur wan't gwine ter saya word, de Lawd wan't gwine ter saya word, de Lawd been causing the Baron von zhare zahn, who recently married Miss Maggie McDowell, of Charlotte, a great deal of annoyance. It seems thing further will be given. Made degrees are expected to be present. Towert have a great work, and stating that Gen. Carr would go to the field of annoyance to meet Eagene Rade degrees are expected to be present. The barbard of annoyance is the superintend-all de yuders. Chack he wager setting by de fire makin' ar cross bow. """ hut you gwine do wid dat ? """ No. I doan know dat.' "" "O, n o tain't. Ole mars thinks he ant gwine gin na no Chris'assa "" "O, no 'tain't. Ole mars thinks he ant twine gin tame who last year an "" How you know? "" How you know? "" How you know? "" You you know? "" You you know? "" You you know? "" How you know? "" How? "" How you know? ""

RING OUT THE OLD, RING IN THE STATE NOTES. NEW.

ate tebrar

The Morganton Herald says' that Christmas is nearly at the door Capt. Joe Mills met Alf Cowan near Editorial Correspondence. ASHEVILLE, Dec. 16, 1890. It is a grand section—this moun-tain section is! Asheville is on her p's and q's; hustling humanity is hustling to make the entertainment of the large

I met Awful Funny Al Fair-brother, of the Durham Globe. He claims to be 29 years of age, but we don't believe he's that young; he many a churn broad and yyny long wears a churn, broad and very long is gradually letting up on State, boots; his head is a 7§; he looks county, municipal and other public Florida's banner showed a bright, illy spent, and have not produced the very long the very long and 169,062,560 cigarettes during the very long the very long and 169,062,560 cigarettes during the very long the very long the very long the very long and 169,062,560 cigarettes during the very long the very long desperate eater, and has pocketed our pipe. Last time seen here, he was wading snow, blood in his eye, and looking for the Citizen man. Den I tole nim whut the happen-ed, an den he laughed like he bill to the seeks to devour. That man

I swore, an den he haughed like he gwine take er fit an atter ne got able which peered ter be er monstuslong time, he waz so tickled, he say, he did: 'Man up a bendin' tree, er haw. baw. White man an er nigger come baw. White man an er nigger come did: 'Man up a bendin' tree, er haw. haw. White man an er nigger come ridin' er long. Man up de tree called de name o' de white man gits skeered an' gallops his hoss. Man drapped down outen de tree—cuts through de woods, gits inter er nuder tree ahead o'de white man gins him some—haw, er man, an gins him some—haw, er haw—so ne advice. White man, de next day, call up de niggers—ter he, next day, call up de niggers-ter he, he-you know de rest." "Wall, chillun," the old man con-tinued, "I sot dar er lookin' at chuck, an er thinkin' dat he wurd sartinly de smartest pussou I eber seed in my life, an I sometimes won-ders whut he would er been ef he had er liber. Po' ole man. Chris*mass we laid him down under We would advise all who can to should be shipped there from Anson breezes from the sea, and whose sides tion of his still-house if he will secure at once either a "town lot" or county when it is remembered that stand as safe guards to check the sustain for five years the reputation a "spot of land" as the best of all coming investments.—"X" in Merk-around Asheville.

Talking about big trees, an Ashe- South shall rival in beauty, in power, brains and brings wee upon the land. villian had this to say: "There is a church near Clyde built in its en-try or nation that ever had an exist-try or nation that ever had an exist-La Crosse, Wis., Dec. 16.-A dis-tirety of one poplar tree; the house cuce, and let us honor the young year than ever before. Tobacco rais-The convention opens at 10 a. m. tomorrow, at which time most of the been causing the Baron Von Malt-zahn, who recently married Miss Machine Meesure and Miss Machine Meesure When we become "thawed" up shows conclusively that tobacco will ### pay foar fold more than any other North Carolina History.

The State Chronicle at Raleigh crop in this country. All it needs

APPLES.

COME, LOOK AND YOU WILL BUY.

THE STANDARD. WE DO ALL KINDS OF

JOBWORK IN THE NEATEST MANNER

-AND AT-THE LOWEST RATES.

L. M. ARCHEY. M. D.. PHYSICIAN AND SURGEON. Office opposite St. Cloud.

LIPPARDS :&: BARRIER

-Dealers in-DRY GOODS. FAMILY GROCERIES. BOOTS, SHOES, HATS, CAPS.

TRUNKS, VALISES, &c.

COUNTRY PRODUCE taken either for the highest cash price or

SALE

BIG LOT A

FANCY CANDIES, PLAIN CANPIES,

ORANGES, Sc., Sc.

-----Sitting Bull Dead.

er whisperin' ter me.' "'Yas, an will whisper er long time 'fo you shoot no rabbits wid dat ar cross bow durin' dis here comin' Chris'muss.' "All right, ef you think so, hab it yo' own way, but I tell you dat dis is goin' ter be one de mos' 'joy able Chris'musses you eber sead.' "I doan know how it gwine come, says I. "Oh, mebby not, but you ain't er very smart pusson, no how.' "I thought de Guinea nigger had dun los' his mine, an I got up an went ter my cabin an lay down, mighty sorrerful. "De next day marster tole me dat he want me ter go up ter town wid him ter stan' berhine his cheer an days, an I thought dat atter we got out on de road I would had er chance ter talk him outen dat 'cision lat he dun cum ter in de regards ter hris'muss. But somehow I didn't hab de nerve ter mention it ter him ez we was gwine, an den I 'lowed ter merse'f dat I wait till we come

"It wuz putty late in de night ez we rode toward home. Dar had been er little skift o' snow, an de yeth looked like er sheet dun been spread out on it. Every thing wuz so ghost-like dat I didn't see how he

'Hush yo' mouf,' says be; 'dar ain't no sicher thing ez Chris'muss. Dar uster be, but dar ain't now.'

"'I thought it waz gwine keep on jes' like it allus did,' says I. "Doan make no diffunce whut you thought an mo'n dat, ef you say ernuther word on dat subjeck I'li make you git offen dis hoss (I wuzridin' behin'him) an walk home.' 'You better blebe I hushed up. It waz monstuss sheery right er long dar, an I woulder tuck or duck fit ef he hader made me git down. "Wall, we turned off inter a skirt o'woods, an' rid er long whar de trees hung low ober de road. Putty soon I think my blood gwine ter freeze. Er voice frum it seemed like way up vander call out: John Peter Thomas, John Peter

Thomas.' Whoa,' says ole mars. 'Who dat call me?'

Thomas.

he went down de road. Dar wuz er big bend in de road, an marster kep' ridin' wid his head tucked down, an not sayin' a word till we got roun' dat bend, an den, jest ez he gunter talk ter me in er skeered sort o' way, yere come de voice ergin. Dis time it say: 'John Peter Thomas, John Greenville Reflector. Peter Thomas, you kain't run erway from me. Stop.' 'You better blebe he stopped right dar in de road, er shakin' all

"John Peter Thomas, John Peter Thomas, wharfo you gwine treat dem po' culled folks so? I'se got mv eye on you, John Peter Thomas, an you better look out. Doan fur-git 'em on de day o' de Chris'muss, John Peter Thomas.' "Den de voice hushed an ole mars-ter ground. Atter while we rid on.

wait on him at de hotel table, er been utsinsset from apper had said. Topic. for writing the letter; that he had resigned as an officer of the Prus-Discovered a Cure for Consumption. sian army to marry Miss McDowell ; and that on his resignation, he was the foremost physicians of Michigan tendered a position as consul in Norwho did not desire to live in Norway. To add to the embarrassment, a story went out from Charlotte about an alleged correspondence between the bride's brother and the groom could git mad at me fur talkin' ter him, so I says, says I: "Marster, Chris'muss will soon be yere, won't brother denies the statement, and thus another unfortunate feature in the affair is eliminated.

have determined to break up the monize with that advanced by Dr. disorderly conduct that frequently Koch. The hospital has spent $12,prevails here during religious wor 000 in perfecting arrangements for ship, and by which both minister mon in which he touched at some ment.

'John Peter Thomas, John Peter

"'Mussyful Lawd, who dat callin' me?' sklamed de old man, an he socked de spurs in de hors, an erway costs and fines for somebody to pay There are some almost grown girls, too, that need to be learned how to

The Concord Standard tells "Two ton in fiction-and yet doubts the what you are talking about. This opened at Washington, and a national ter groaned. Atter while we rid on, climate and soil up here beats the organ established. Mr. Holden says $\begin{array}{c} \text{Erancisco Statistication in Bureau, tele-$ graphed the letter to the New YorkWorld. That paper immediatelyconnected the names as one indi-vidual.\* As soon as the Baron saw thebis pistol on Eller in front of thethat he not only had never writtenthat he not had he had he never ha been dismissed from the Prussian army, as the same paper had said, for writing the letter; that he had been dismissed from the Prussian army, as the same paper had said, for writing the letter; that he had been dismissed from the Prussian army, as the same paper had said, for writing the letter; that he had been dismissed from the Prussian army, as the same paper had said, for writing the letter; that he had been dismissed from the Prussian army, as the same paper had said, for writing the letter; that he had been dismissed from the Prussian army, as the same paper had said, for writing the letter; that he had been dismissed from the Prussian army, as the same paper had said, for the young man when a charming the the frighter the bodies of for the young man when a charming the the frighter the bodies of the scape, and aroused the heighbors in time to extinguish the flames be fore they had burned the bodies of

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 18 .- Two of Denver, Col., Dec. 17 .- A news Dorham Ball, Mr. Robinson did not and importance of this move that min nim tiems. way, which he de lined in def-rence way, which he de lined in def-rence discovered a consumution over where to the wishes of his expected bride, discovered a consumption cure whose carrier from the camp near Daley's show nimself the last day, out did bride, discovered a consumption cure whose carrier from the camp near Daley's show nimself the last day, out did bride, with us for the past few days, work-efficacy is beyond question. The City, Dakota: A rancher has just arrived in great haste to our comguished themselves are Dr. E. L. arrived in great haste to our com-shanding office, and reports the com-North Carolina McLoud-is not versity, but one public spirited gen-Mrs. J. M. Powell, of Lenoir, will Shurley, principal physician of the mand of cavalry attacked and two watched pretty closely, he'll commit Harbor Hospital, and Dr. H. Gibbs, officers and fifty men killed, but the suicide from the terrorizing effects blessings of a liberal education, Jacob Freeze. of the Michigan University, of Ann Indians were repulsed with heavy of Al. Fairbrother's course, for when gladly put down his $50.

Harbor. losses. The number of Indians he left not a chair remained in the For over two years these two doc- killed is not known. The Indians office, tors have bent all their energies to were put to rout. This report is the discovery of a cure, and not un-til yesterday, when the success of which command it was. It was their labors was beyond a doubt, probably that of Major Tupper, of in South American governments.

Disturbers of Worship. The pastors of the churches here thad been carried on does not har-thad been carried on does not harship, and by which both minister and congregation are disturbed. Rev. R. B. John recently preached a serhan house here last night, and who Carolina, is said to be an Alliancelength upon this. Sunday night Rev. A. D. Hunter had to stop after taking his text and send one of the dracone out to stop some hors who service. If some boys in town are and Dr. Gibbs stand high in their by the throat, while the other struck not better looked after by their par-profession, and Michigan physicians him back of the head and knocked

Robbed of $2,500.

The Citizen National Alliance.

What Will the Harvest Be? Emporia, Kans., Dec. 16 .- Presi-Soon North Carolina's Legislature to only $400,000,000.

with the Farmers' Alliance. Ralph Brumont, the prominent ciate with hardened criminals, is Knight of Labor from New York, is largely responsible for its forma-reform in a Christian State.—Uhar-who is conducting a protracted JEXATE SAPP, Supt.

is largely responsible for its forma-tion. I'he headquarters will be lotte Chronicle.

"'Oh, no 'tain't. Ole mars thinks he an't gwine gin us no Chris'nuss, be an't gwine gin us no Chris'nuss, '''How you know?' "'Neber mine—suthin' 'dun been er whisperin' ter me.' "'Year an mell whisperin' ter me.'

that he not only had never written such a letter, but that he had never been dismissed from the Prussian been dismissed from the Prussian visits of the Durham Globe man trying to horrow one dollar. To So impressed were our people here could make him understand.

trying to borrow one dollar. To avoid the annoyance caused by the in Charlotte with the great value

-----

STANDARD NOTES.

several hundred dollars in subscrip-tions, mostly by alumni of the Uni-goes out by New Bethpage.

'leman who has never enjoyed the spend the holidays at her father's, A. W. Freeze is now engaged in It only remains for all who have the rabbit business. Success to him.

the name and fame of our good old Mrs. Ella Stirewalt will move to State sincercly at heart to come at Statesville on the 24th instant. once to the rescue and make the The people of Mill Hill are ex-"Chair of History" a complete suc- pecting a superlatively dull time Xmas, and we know we shall not

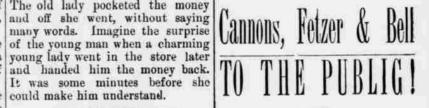

They have had a great earthquake cess. Here, too, we would again appeal be disappointed. sixth cavalry and his three troops of The securities have shrunk at least to Gov. Fowle to impress this mat-The Standard is always welcome ter, also, on the coming Legislature in every home in this vicinity. In Richmond they have a judge and make assurance doubly sure. named Fauntieroy. It is not stated The time has come when "leading Atlanta, Ga., Dec. 17 .- J. J. Mur- whether or not he is any relation of men" must really lead. The people Got There Too Late. themselves are ready if only public Thursday afternoon at four o'clock

R. B. John recently preached a ser-mon in which he touched at some Julia Jones. 'Squire Willeford was in the best of humor, and the way ments .- Charlotte Democrat. ----things turned out, was enough to

Gold Medal Contest.

The eight contestants having won tickle anyone. It seeme1 that the deacons out to stop some boys who were very noisy about the door. Again during the sermon he was The eight contestants having won tickle anyone. It seemed that the silver medals in previous contests, two contracting parties misunderon being discharged as cured, walked wished to negotiate about rates. As sized, and the able president can now Exercises will begin at 10 o'clock while the bride desired that Rev. W. disturbed by their noise and says he is not going to submit to it at another It some hors in town are is to health. Both Dr. Shurley The people who are not getting the coor House," No. 1; "Prohibi- choice to be present at said hour. it i finished the cost will amount to only $400,000,000. In the control of the second behave themselves after getting in church. This is too enlightened an ers' Alliance, has returned from is speculation as to what will be the speculation as to what will be the is speculation as to what will be the speculation as to what will be the is speculat age for such conduct to be genteel.- Ocala. He says that the Citizen result of the work of the session. Pregressive Farmer, has bought the Fires," No. 8. Decision of judges. everything reflected a scene of joyous-National Alliance will be a select political organization, similar to the advanced by the Concord Standard, entered upon his duties as editor and by Miss Lillie Misenheimer. Pre-beamed with a radiance of good Farmers' Alliance, and its member- in favor of a Reformatory, House of proprietor of that aper. Mr. Ram- sentation of medal by Rev. J. E. hopes and best wishes for the happy Whoppers"-rivalling Joe Mulhat- ship will be drawn from people in Correction, is worthy serious con- sey has shown himself to be a fine McManaway, of Charlotte. Address couple, a ring of the door bell sound cities and towns, who sympathize sideration. The confining of minors writer and we wish him the success by Rev. J. C. Clapp, D.D., of Newton, ed out lond and clear, and, to the N. C. The exercises will be inter- 'Squire's astonishment, in stepped spersed with music. The public is Rev. W. G. Campbell with a broad meeting at Lower Creek church, of which he has been re-elected pastor, Ashboro Courier: Eighteen head which he has been re-elected pastor, Ashboro Courier: Eighteen head which he has been re-elected pastor, Ashboro Courier: Eighteen head Seventeen hundred and ninety- baptized Mr. John McCall in Pow- of sheep were killed by a locomotive off to one side and sorter "canoodlin," an bimeby the ole pussion said: 'Jake, doan you say er word o' whut 'Jake, doan you

I HAVE JUST OPENED A FIRST

CLASS

RESTAURANT

-BACK OF-

Cook & Savpenfield's store,

where you can get anything in the line of eating.

Fresh Oysters

a specialty.

C. M. SAPPENFIELD.

ON THE

CONCORD STREET RAILROAD!

While Santa Claus was passing over

D. D. Johnson's Drug Store

and left some of his

Nobbiest 🖗 Nicest Presents

now in this whole country traversed by this grand railroad. If you have a sweet-heart, sister, brother, father, mother, husband, wife, aunt, cousin, friend, son,

D. D. JOHNSON, Druggist, Concord, N. C.

PERCY.

smile on his face. The thing was daughter, children, little folks, grown-up smile on his face. The thing was over; the 'Squire had got there; and we don't know how the two men agreed, but when last seen, they were