

See notice of sheriff's sale.

The graded school reopened on Tuesday.

Attention is called to the trustee sale by Mr. R W Allison.

The Express office has been moved into the Caldwell building.

The press dispatches have gotten the condition of Mr. Blaine improved.

Master Joe Cannon, who is attending school in Lenoir, spent Christmas at home.

Miss Sallie Anderson, of Albemarle, has gone to Hagerstown, Md., to attend school.

No one in this office was ever as pure as the beautiful white snow, not even a long time ago.

The snow—the beautiful white snow—this (Wednesday) morning was doubtless a surprise to many.

The threatened gold famine is furnishing the financiers with much food for thought.

Capt. Chas. McDonald is now mayor of Concord, Senator W. G. Means having resigned.

The people around St. John's had a delightful time with an oyster supper, Friday night.

The Glee Club was highly entertained Tuesday evening at Squire Jesse Willeford's.

Miss Ethel Barrentine, of Salisbury, spent several days in the city, the guest of Mrs. John W Fink.

Mr. Charlie Phifer, of New York, will return to Concord and make this his home. He will have a suite of rooms at the St. Cloud.

"What are we coming to?" asks an impassioned exchange. Among other things, to the end of the year.

Mr. P M Morris has purchased the old Episcopal church, which will be enlarged and used for a warehouse.

Concord's single file has suffered intensely during the past season. Cold weather has no effect on the disease.

The Standard will appreciate all news sent in. Let us know all the personal matter. We will take it as a kind service.

Master Parks King has entered school at Lenoir. Parks is one of the brightest boys we know, and we wish him success.

Misses Sallie McAllister and Jennie Skeen, of Mt. Pleasant, were in the city Friday night on their way to visit friends in Salisbury.

Gladstone has gone to the south of France in search of a warmer climate. When he returns, he will make it warm for his opponents.

Nothing shows so clearly that Mr. Cleveland has a mind as when he concludes to speak it. Then the small fry generally mind what he says.

Mrs. — Walter, of No. 4, and a sister of Mr. George Winecoff, died Tuesday night. She was an aged lady. Of that Winecoff family only two survive: Mr. George Winecoff, of this place, and a sister, who is now eighty odd years of age.

Dr. N D Fetzner gave a pleasant entertainment Wednesday evening to a few invited friends. The evening could not have been more delightfully spent.

The furnace in the Central M E church has been out of repairs for some time, but a workman has discovered the trouble and it is now in apple-pie order. There need be no fear of not keeping warm in that church now.

Mr. W E Winecoff, of Longview, Texas, a native Cabarrus young man, writes: "I can't do without the Standard, so far off from the old home." The Standard makes a grateful bow to the young friend and wishes him success.

Santa Clause has come and gone. Many were remembered. But the Standard man's Santa broke out at a new place and he had a good one. We hereby serve notice on that estimable gentleman, Mr. W R Odell, that we have found him out and hereby thank him from the bottom of "our" heart for the handsome and substantial present on Christmas eve. May Mr. Odell's shadow grow larger daily.

Write it 1893.

Turn the leaves.

Break the resolution.

Miss Bertha Quantz, is visiting in Salisbury.

During all the holidays there was not an arrest in the city limits.

Mr. A M Freeze, of Mill Hill, tells us that Mrs. Hannah Weddington is quite ill with pneumonia.

Mr. Chivers, of Philadelphia, who done the finishing art work in Capt. Odell's palatial residence, is in the city.

Misses Laura Leshe and Katie Gibson will return to Salem Female College tomorrow. Miss Lena Leslie will accompany them.

Misses Maggie Brown, Nora and Lottie Boyd and Rosa Willeford returned from Salisbury today. They were accompanied by Miss Fannie Marshall, of Charlotte, and Miss Sallie Harvey, of Danville, who are visiting Miss Brown.

Salisbury Herald: The work of moving the stock of hardware belonging to W. Smithdeal from this place to Concord has been completed. The business will be run at that place. Mr. Smithdeal will remain here and keep a line of buggies, wagons and machinery.

The rain Saturday night was a surprise. What happens on New Year's day will happen every day through the year; will be a blow to churches and loafing on the streets. It will be bad to have rain every Sunday.

The resignation of Rev. John G Anderson, pastor of Rocky River church, this county, was acted on Christmas day. The congregation refused, by vote, to accept the resignation, 123 to 0. This is indeed complimentary to Mr. Anderson.

Salisbury Herald: The six month's old daughter of J W Moose, who moved from Albemarle to this place about two weeks ago, died at his home in Harrison's Grove yesterday from an attack of pneumonia. The little remains were taken to Concord today for burial. Mr. Moose was formerly a resident of Concord.

The Lutheran parsonage is now empty. Rev. and Mrs. Campbell and little Miss Bessie left Friday evening for Mechanicsburg, Pa., where they will remain until next June. No people ever left Concord, making more sad hearts than in this case. Hundreds of warm admirers of the family wish them the richest of success in Pennsylvania.

The Standard thanks Rev. H M Blair, until recently pastor of Forest Hill M E church, but now of Mt. Airy, for his goodness in writing us a letter, the contents of which make our hearts lighter. It will be a long time before this good man is forgotten in Concord and never in this office.

John L Barnhardt, Esq., of No. 9, who recently married a couple of dusky hue and several days afterwards was asked to divorce the same couple, is a hog raiser. He killed one last week that weighed 425 pounds. Squire Barnhardt is the only magistrate in the county that kills hogs when hogs are hogs.

There came very near being a serious fire at Mr. John A Sims' home on Monday night. A stick of wood rolled out in the dining room and the fire gradually worked its way up the jam. Had it not been discovered inside of a half hour later no effort could have saved the home. The Standard congratulates Mr. Sims in his escape from the loss of a home.

Mr. Peter B Bost, an undoubted bachelor of No. 9, has our thanks for a specimen of tobacco of his own raising. It is good, what's of it. Mr. Bost will never do much with tobacco raising until he forsakes his manner of existence and pays the penalty that is an attribute of matrimony. He needs to do his duty towards the female part of our population.

The truism that, "to him who hath it shall be given," is illustrated in the case of the Chicago University. John D Rockefeller, who has already given the institution $2,600,000, gave it another million for a Christmas present and on the same day "an unknown friend" bestowed a quarter of a million, and yet the country abounds with colleges who have not and from whom the little that they have is being taken away.

Mr. Jimmie F Honeycutt, who was lost but now found, and over whom there was more rejoicing than over the ninety-nine that didn't stray off, has returned to Concord. He has fared roughly externally, but internally it looks as if the community that his presence afflicted has suffered financially. Mr. Honeycutt declares that he didn't know before that the county is so large—he walked over one-twelfth of it, No. 9 township, going from home to home in search of food.

Miss Minnie Cook, of St. John's, spent Monday in town.

Mr. and Mrs. E P Mangum have returned from Salisbury, where they spent Christmas holidays.

Mr. Clint N. Brown has severed his connection with the Salisbury Herald. Mr. Brown is a good reporter.

Mr. and Mrs. L E Heilig, of Salisbury, passed through Monday on their way to Mt. Pleasant to visit relatives.

Mr. Charlie Barnhardt, of No. 9, who is attending a medical college in Philadelphia, spent Christmas at home.

J F Honeycutt is off on a flying trip to Stanly. He will go to Albemarle, before returning, to see Dan Bivins.

Mr. Will Robinson now has only one animal of the cow kind, since the hydrophobia wave, and this one was bitten but is recovering.

Miss Annie Anthony has retired from the post office and Miss Corinne Harris has accepted a position in the office.

We learn, through Commissioner Nesbit, that Esq. J O Witherspoon has an excellent school at Coddle Creek Academy.

Misses Maggie and Willie Bays left on Monday for Abbeville, S. C., where their father, Rev. Dr. W H Bays, is stationed.

Messrs. Brevard Harris, Julius Parker and Howard Cannon accompanied Dr. W C Houston to Monroe on that important mission.

Col. T H Robinson informs us that Dr. Steele, of Mecklenburg, has located in the Springville section for the practice of medicine.

Mrs. Robt. Hix, of Wilkesboro, is visiting her mother, Mrs. T C Stricker. Mrs. Hix has many friends here, who were delighted to see her.

The county board of commissioners held a two days' session this month. The pressure of business and the fact that Monday was a legal holiday made it necessary.

Mr. R O S Miller has the contract for building a bridge across Dutch Buffalo near Mt. Pleasant. This is the biggest and highest bridge over any creek in Cabarrus county.

There was some discussion on Monday as to whether legal business done on that day would hold because of Monday being a holiday. The county commissioners did no work except audit accounts.

Rev. F P Cook, of Ada, Okla., son of Mr. M Cook, one of the oldest citizens of Mt. Pleasant, and who was here in May on a visit to his old home, is reported to have about lost the sight of one eye from the effects of a tumor on the ball. He is now in Cincinnati for treatment.

Mr. Geo. Fink, a native of this county, but a resident of Panhandle, Texas, is here on a visit to relatives. Mr. Fink married a daughter of the Mr. Hartman, who was recently killed in Rowan county while hauling a mill rock, an account of which appeared in these columns.

Dr. D G Caldwell has decided to remove from Tulin and Springsville section, where he has enjoyed a lucrative and successful practice for several years. Dr. Caldwell intends taking another course of lectures and will then locate in some city, yet unselected. The Standard joins many friends in regrets over the loss of Dr. Caldwell who is justly popular and highly esteemed.

Mr. W H Barnhardt, of No. 4, has received a paper that announces the death of a brother-in-law in Mountain View, Stone county, Ark. He was a Mr. Adam B Brewer, born and raised in Randolph county, this state. Mr. Brewer was about 69 years of age, and his death was very sudden. He had held very important offices and was considered a wealthy man. If we mistake not he is related to Mr. K L Craven of this place.

The old man sat up Saturday night to see Father Time readjust his machine and start of a new tune. A few minutes later, a gentleman (whose name we withhold) passed the place where we are monarch and on his return from the "Leap Year Finale" and he was grumbling—grumbling at the non-performance of a duty on the part of one of Concord's best and most inspiring ladies. "Too late," was the last we heard as his grumbling voice faded in the distance.

Company G. Attention! You are hereby ordered to appear in your uniform on Friday evening, January 6, at 7:30 o'clock, for monthly inspection and the annual election of officers. This is an important meeting and all should attend. Full dress uniform required. By order of

LIEUT. W J SWINK, Commanding.

SERGEANT W L BELL, Secretary.

Our onions are coming up nicely, and this snow is good on 'em.

W L Daniels, formerly of Mt. Pleasant, applied for license to retail whiskey in Charlotte, but was refused.

Senator Means and Representative White left Monday for Raleigh. They make a good team and Cabarrus will be well represented.

The high water tank, in the rear of the postoffice, is to be partly encased in brick. H C McAllister, of Mt. Pleasant, has the contract.

Messrs. John A Sims and C E Alexander are now associated to gether in business. They occupy the Caldwell building, next door to Dove & Bost.

R B Raney, proprietor of the Yarbrough House, of Raleigh, was on the Umbria, which became crippled out at sea, and which other steamers refused assistance.

Master Edgar Caldwell, son of John B Caldwell, has been appointed page in the Senate of North Carolina. The Standard congratulates the little boy.

Even F B McDowell, of Charlotte, wants a foreign mission. And a man King, of Guilford, wants to go to Turkey. Let them have these appointments.

Col. R B Glenn, who made a brilliant canvass during the recent campaign, is endorsed for the district attorneyship for Western North Carolina. Glenn ought to have it.

We have seen one of the new stamps. It is half again as long as wide. The picture represents the landing of Columbus. It is not pretty enough to make your eyes water.

Col. Elam King left on the noon train (Wednesday) for Charlotte, where he marries Miss Carrie White, daughter of ex-sheriff R M White, and sister of Mrs. G M Lore, of Concord. The bridal couple will return on the evening train. The Standard extends congratulations and wishes the couple every blessing.

The Charlotte Observer gives an account of the marriage of Mrs. M. L. Brown and W Cyrus Houston of Concord, took place this evening in the Methodist church at 7:30 o'clock. The beautifully decorated church was literally packed and jammed with the numerous friends and relatives of the contracting parties. Miss Nannie Dow, of Charlotte, was organist for the occasion, and the ceremony was impressively performed by Rev. Mr. Barnett, pastor of the Methodist church. The following were the attendants:

Miss Joe Adams, maid of honor, and Mr. Howard Cannon, of Concord, as best man; Miss Lizzie Andrews and Mr. B E Harris, of Concord; Miss Bells Bost and Mr. Julius Parker, of Concord; Miss Mary Montgomery, of Concord; and Mr. J C Leslie, of Charlotte; Miss Isabelle Montgomery, of Concord; and Mr. Herman Dowd, of Charlotte; Miss Mary Strat, of Carthage; and Dr. J C Montgomery, of Charlotte. The ushers were Messrs. E A Houston, L Z Williamson, R B Redwine, and Bruce Adams.

A royal reception was given the bridal party and a number of friends and relatives at the residence of the bride's father, H Adams, Esq., after which the bridal party left on the west-bound train for Concord. The bride received many and costly presents—tokens to her popularity. Both the bride and groom have host of friends in this county and consequently there are many genuine wishes for their happiness.

House For Rent. One Dwelling House and Lot for rent adjoining Mrs. Bracken. D. F. CANNON.

Big Ones In It. Mr. J C Neil, of Coddle Creek, and he's "up to snuff" and here's where we like him, sends us a gentleman's size postal card, which bears this information to Standard readers:

Rev. Samuel Turner led under the marriage bell at the hymeneal altar in matrimonial intent, on the 29th at the residence of the bride, Mrs. Francis Sherrill. The affair was a big one, as the groom pulls Jones, he pays-the-freight scales at 222 and his bride goes it better at 272 pounds. Rev. Sherrill performed the mysterious ceremony that made a matrimonial lump, in the aggregate, of 494 pounds.

It is said that this is the biggest deal in personal property occurring during 1892, in that section.

To People Living About the Factory. A small truck factory for rent; a newly fixed up, freshly painted 7 room house, with 10 or 20 acres of land, all will be rented for about the same price one would pay for a house at the factory. Apply to R F Phifer, at Dove & Bost's, 1 wk.

Mr. Daniel W Moore, who had for some time suffered from pneumonia, just a short while after the old year was gone and the new one had set in passed from this life and entered into rest where there is no end. Mrs. Moore was about fifty-five years of age, a devoted, Christian mother, a loving wife, and was a member of the Reformed Church of this place. Her remains were interred in the churchyard at Mt. Gilard on Monday. A husband and several children survive the mother who has thusly passed away.

The Richmond Dispatch refers pleasantly to a Concord lady and another, who is greatly admired here:

Mrs. J P Yancey gave a very charming party to young people on the evening of the 27th, in honor of Miss Emily Magruder Gibson, who is the guest of Miss Fairfax Loving. The decorations of the rooms and table were artistically designed in yellow and holly, mistletoe and ferns.

The evening was passed in games and dancing, and beautiful souvenir favors were presented to each at parting by Miss Julia Magruder, Virginia's gifted authoress.

For Sale. A desirable lot with fair house on it, on Spring street and within three minutes walk of the business part of town, is offered for sale. Apply to John K Patterson, agent. Im

LEAP YEAR DONE UP.

A Brilliant and Stylish Entertainment that Wound Up 1892 and Received 1893 in a Grand Manner.

Saturday night, At 12 o'clock, Dec. 31st, 1892.

At the residence of Mr. M. L. Brown, on South Main street, a large party of handsome and beautiful dressed ladies of grace and charms wound up the social affairs for the year and greeted with open arms the advent of the new year and welcomed its possibilities.

About twenty-five invited couples were carried, by carriages, to the above home, where Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Brown received them in a hospitable and cordial manner.

The dining room was a scene of beauty, the memory of which is a joy forever. The centerpiece presented a picture of harvest in its zenith and the decoration was exquisite to a very marked degree. The guests were served in couples, at side tables, in style most royal and in quantity that was suggestive of the centre of the fat of the land.

The evening was rich in pleasures and enjoyable incidents. The guests will ever remember how Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Brown aided them in seeing the Leap Year Finale well done up.

Just how many heart strings were snapped asunder by the intensely restless spirit of Cupid before closing his shop for four years, can only be told one by one as they fall in the struggle for single existence. The ladies, we are told, came up to Cupid's highest ideal.

House for rent—Lot next to J A Cline. Apply to G. W. PATTERSON.

THEY REGARD SOMETHING LIKE EGYPT.

A Large Delegation Hung Around At Day. Rev. N I Bakke, the pastor of the colored Lutheran Church here, whilst he has doubtless been imposed on by some, has done a deed that shows the inside interest he takes in the duties that devolve upon him as a missionary. Representing a board that commands no little money, he felt it his duty to ask for clothing that he might furnish some colored people who were in need. Of this we have spoken before, but on Monday during the entire day there was another large delegation waiting on Allison's corner to be supplied with gifts. We noticed some there who ought not to ask for anything. They are strong, able bodied, while many others need all they can get. Mr. Bakke has done, by his efforts, a noble deed, and, though he labors in difficulties and some unpleasant hardships, he works in untiring and earnest manner.

While impositions are made, it is no reason that this wholesale distribution of clothing has not been a very fortunate affair in our midst.

Can't Leave Home Again. Mr. H W Whorton, of the Greensboro Patriot, has fallen in the terrible struggle for single existence.

The organization of the Cabarrus Cotton Mills has been effected: J W Cannon, president; J W Burkhead, secretary and treasurer; directors: J W Cannon, D F Cannon, E King, R S Young, L J Foil, L D Duval, D B Coltrane. Mr. Burkhead will keep his office at Cannons & Fetzner's store until further notice. The first payment will be due next Saturday.

The Oldest Citizen Dead. Mr. George Barnhardt, of No. 9, who was born July 4, 1800, died Tuesday, at his home.

Mr. Barnhardt's age ran with the years in the century, and was the oldest living citizen before his death. Mr. Barnhardt was an excellent gentleman and unassuming. He was the father of Mr. Jacob R Barnhardt, of No. 9, and the grandfather of Mr. J. F. Honeycutt, of this place.

A Brilliant Marriage. The marriage of Colonel Leroy Springs, of Lancaster, S. C., and Miss Grace A White, of Fort Mills, was a brilliant affair. Miss White is a grand-daughter of our venerable and much esteemed citizen, Mr. R W Allison. Mr. and Mrs. J P Allison, Mrs. and Miss Odell and Mrs. Dr. Young, of Concord, were present. The groom's present to the bride was a $5,000 diamond necklace, and presents from friends represent a value of over $3,000.

Mrs. Springs is well known here as the charming and lovely Miss Grace White. It is doubtless the most brilliant marriage that has occurred in the South for years.

Horrible Death. On Xmas day Mrs. Jacob Edgison, of No. 5, was burnt to death. She had been suffering at times with epileptic fits. Xmas morning her son went to church and the children were at a neighbor's. When found Mrs. E. was lying in front of the fire place with her clothes burnt off, her nose and breast entirely eaten off by the flames, and her whole body in a crisp.

It is supposed that one of her sick spells struck her and she fell in the fire.

The Standard learns that Mrs. Edgison was about 40 years old, and in her sad death there is a sad knowledge that cannot here be printed. The entire community sympathize with the bereaved family in this most awfully sad visitation at their home.

IT IS TEXAS AND NORTH CAROLINA.

A Romantic Marriage in a Very Quiet Way. Miss M A Coleman, of Bost's Mills, this county, and Mr. Garrison Bowen, of Annetta, Texas, were married on Xmas day.

The groom is 23 and the bride 23. They had never known each other except through letter, and that for a time of only three months. They were introduced by friends through letter, and a correspondence of business set in at once.

Mr. Bowen arrived here Saturday and secured Esq. Jesse Willeford to go with him. (Mr. Willeford is the Maxwell of Cabarrus). They met and agreed they liked each other, and Esq. Willeford was given the word to proceed.

Mr. Bowen is a well-to-do gentleman, and Miss Coleman is an excellent lady. They will remain here for a month and then go to Texas.

CABARRUS COTTON MILLS.

The Organization Partly Elected Friday Night.

As the Standard foreshadowed several weeks ago, Concord is to have another cotton factory!

This enterprise is to begin January 1, 1893, on the building and loan plan. The stock now numbers over 300 shares of $100 each. Outside of prominent business men, the majority of the stock is taken by young men who work on a salary.

The charter has been agreed upon and it will be presented to the coming General Assembly for the necessary legal fixture.

The meeting Friday night was held in the court house, Rev. Paul Barringer in the chair, and Mr. J W Burkhead secretary.

After the consideration of unfinished business, the following directors were elected:

D B Coltrane, L J Foil, D F Cannon, Elam King, J W Cannon, R S Young, L D Duval.

These gentlemen will serve until the charter is secured, then a permanent organization will be effected.

The business will begin on the paying in of 50 cents a share per week, on Saturday next.

Mr. J W Burkhead will have charge of that branch of the business, and to him much credit is due for the agitation of this matter and for the shape it has assumed.

The Standard congratulates Concord on its sixth cotton mill, the "Cabarrus Cotton Mill."

Officers Elected. The organization of the Cabarrus Cotton Mills has been effected: J W Cannon, president; J W Burkhead, secretary and treasurer; directors: J W Cannon, D F Cannon, E King, R S Young, L J Foil, L D Duval, D B Coltrane. Mr. Burkhead will keep his office at Cannons & Fetzner's store until further notice. The first payment will be due next Saturday.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

UNDER EXECUTION.

By virtue of an execution issued to me from the Superior Court of Cabarrus county, and to satisfy said execution, the same being in favor of the State and against Bob Tucker, a non-resident of the State, I will sell on Monday, the 30th day of January, 1893, at the court house door in Concord, a one-seventh undivided interest in a tract of land containing about one hundred acres. Said land lies in No. 1 Township, adjoining the lands of Fred Starnes and others, and is known as the John Tucker land. The one-seventh interest of said Bob Tucker in said land will be sold to satisfy said execution. This Dec. 30, 1892.

L. M. MORRISON, Sheriff, Cabarrus County.

DO YOU KNOW HOW TO SAVE MONEY?

Buy your Goods at Cannons & Fetzner's. One Dollar will go as far there as Two Dollars do at most places.

LOOK AT THESE THINGS: J J V 3 ARSHIRTS?

Yes, you do. Well, we start you off with a good 3 Ply Linen Bosom Re-inspired back, heavy Muslin Shirt at 35 Cents. You can see it; well, come an see. If we don't convince you, you can take our hat. They are as good as you can get for 50 Cents. We stick to that.

Then At 50c. We give you a shirt superior in every way. If it isn't as good as you ever bought for 75 Cents, then we'll surrender. Better see these before you buy—25cts. each saved on one-half doz. shirts, $1.50. That much will buy a good pair of Shoes, or a good Hat, or it will buy you six Negligee or colored shirts—the kind you have been buying 40c. a piece for, but we sell them at 20c. Well, we give you a good Oxford Cheviot shirt for 40c. They are worth 65. We struck a manufacturer, who wanted to change a pile of shirts into money. We traded quick, and we are selling the shirts, "quick" too.

N ASTC CLLARS And Cuffs: You had just as well buy them here. We show a very good cuff for 15c, a pair, and collars at 10c. that you will think would cost more. We don't get out of the way for anybody on Collars, Cuffs and Shirts.

PANTS;

DID YOU SAY? Well, there isn't any joke about Cheap Pants. We just took in a level Hundred Dozen in one lot from an overloaded manufacturer, and they are not staying on our counters, either. We are distributing the surplus. Men's Pants at 20c. 75c and 1.00. If we had bought these in small lots of 10 or 15 dozen, we would have to sell at 75c. 1.00, and 1.25. But when it comes to One Hundred Dozen in a lot, why we save the 25c on a pair, and give it to the customers. That's right, ain't it? Maybe you want a whole suit. Well, if you can't spare 5.00 to get one of our Black Worsted, Corkscrew suits—that are worth anywhere you find them 7.00. We sell them for 5.00. You can get a nice printed Melton for 4.00 and a good heavy Satinet for 3.00 and a nice Melton for 2.50. Now you won't believe it till you see it, but we can, and do show them every day. What? Why, a gentleman's suit coat, pants and vest for 75c.

Yes Sir,

A full suit of ready-made clothes for a man at 75c—all cotton, but neatly and well made. Pearl buttons on coat and vest. Just step in and see them. If you expect to find them in any other store in North Carolina, you will be disappointed. We are the original and only House to offer a full suit for 75c. No Humbug! Come and see it.

Of course we have better and finer lines of suits. We will show you a better assortment and better goods in our $5.00, $8.50, $10.00 and $12.50 suits than you can find. We give you better value because we buy them low.

Have you a boy? or two or three or four or five boys? Well we are the people you want to see. We can give you a boys suit sizes 4 years to ten years old for 45c, you don't believe it but it's true. Waists and pants.

Recently we closed out a big lot of childrens suits coats and pants. We are selling them less than the manufacturers' price, 1.00, 1.25, 1.50 and 2.00 for suits that you would expect to pay 50 per cent more for.

Now there are Hundreds of other things. Take Hats and Caps. We bought 225 Dozen sample Hats and Caps. These were worth from 40c to
