

You've Been Anxious for a Fight. Now You Will Get in the Neck and Ains Poor Neck.
New York, Oct. 3.—The evening telegram this evening prints the following:
James Corbett has changed his mind about fighting Bob Fitzsimmons for the championship of the world. He has overcome his objection to meet a middle-weight, and has announced his intention of covering Fitzsimmons's money, now held by the sporting editor of the Herald, and he will be in the city to match one week from tomorrow.

Corbett communicated this information to a prominent sporting man this afternoon, who said: Corbett will go to New York to fight against my judgment. He has finished part of the state of the fight with Sullivan, and his action in meeting him is a fight. It will add nothing to his fame if he beats Fitzsimmons. He has a big chance.

Who voted for Corbett?
The recent railroad accident, we were riding on a free pass and the leg the train ran over was our wooden leg.
The alligator is to be envied. He can swallow a pine log on the 1st of October and he doesn't feel hungry again until spring.
We can furnish all the tar needed for the torchlight procession. The last time they applied it to us it stung.

We are sorry to hear that they had a lynching in Michigan recently. When will the people of that great State become civilized?
They are coming.
The first installment of students for the Normal and Industrial School arrived last night, while many more came on the trains this morning.
The greatest number, however, will be in tonight, and hereafter the hills up around the Normal will not look so deserted.
It is rather tantalizing to the young gentlemen about town, but we can't avoid remarking that in the arrivals so far are a score of just the prettiest kind of girls—Greenboro Record.

[There are Cabarrus girls in that score, too.]
No Populism in Camden.
Elizabeth City, N. C., Oct. 2.—The Democratic party of Camden held their primaries on last Saturday. The nominations for candidates for the Legislature and for county offices were made by vote at the polls. The candidates for the Legislature were C. F. Ferber and Samuel Gregory. Gregory was nominated. He is a supporter of Jarvis for the Senate.
Your correspondent attended the voting precinct at Shiloh, and was there throughout the day. There he witnessed with absolute certainty that the Populist party has no chance to exist in that county. At this precinct the last Presidential election the vote was as follows, 188 Democrats, 40 Republicans and 73 Populists. There were of the Populist ten or twelve former Republicans. These are safely back in the Republican party, whilst many of the Democrat-Pops have returned to the Democratic party.
Fusion did not fuse the Democratic Pops. It completely annihilated the Populist party in Camden for all time. Daniel Spire, the fusion candidate for the Legislature, will not get a vote from the former Populists of that county.

Dr. Herring Here.
It is no longer "Dr. H. C. Herring, of Concord," but "Dr. H. C. Herring, of Charlotte." Dr. Herring made the move yesterday. His family will probably not come over for three weeks. Charlotte gives Dr. Herring a light royal welcome.—Charlotte Observer. [The local editor of the Observer will do us a favor by calling on the Doctor for a batch of Fall poetry. He's a good one.]

THE ELECTION IN GEORGIA.
The Democratic Majority 40,000.—The Comparative Little Interest in the Election the Cause of the Small Vote.
Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 3.—A lighter vote was polled in the State election today than was cast two years ago. The Democratic ticket was elected by a majority estimated at 40,000. Atkinson, Democrat, for Governor, ran behind his ticket. Many old soldiers either scratched Atkinson or voted for Hines, Populist. Fulton county, outside of Atlanta, went for the Populist ticket.
The Democratic ticket elected is as follows: Governor, Wm. Y. Atkinson; Secretary of State, Allen Candler; Treasurer, Robert U. Searleman; Attorney General, Joseph M. Terrell; Comptroller General, Wm. A. Wright; Commissioner of Agriculture, Robert T. Nesbitt.

LEGISLATURE DEMOCRATIC.
Two years ago Georgia went Democratic for Governor by 71,000 majority for W. J. Northen over W. H. Hines, the Populist nominee. W. H. Hines, the Democratic candidate for Governor, was this year defeated by J. B. Hines, who has been Governor for the last two years.

MR. HILEMAN SURPRISED.
Dr. Puryear Ran on Him and Did Him Up.
Mr. Hileman, the man who has been Democrat, independent, Democrat again, then on the fence and then Populist and whom Senator Means wiped up for the North Carolina Senate two years ago, was expecting a bully time Thursday night at Asheville. Mr. Puryear went down and they say it was an awful sight how Mr. Hileman was hacked. He got one of the best lectures he ever had.
Mr. T. J. Shinn tells us that Mr. Puryear, made one of the finest, complete and most convincing speeches he ever heard. Mr. Hileman took his medicine like a good man.

A NIGHTMARE.
On Thursday night to the sound of mournful cry of a female voice, the citizens on North Main street were awakened from their peaceful slumbers sometime after midnight to find that a poor unfortunate negro girl parading the streets, half naked and half starved, driven from home and friends without money or where to lay her head. She claimed to be from Alabama and said she had been on the road for two weeks. Her name is Harriet Moore, so she says, and when asked what her father's name was she gave us to understand that it was "Jack." The last seen of her was at Brown's livery stable about daybreak, but soon afterwards "Jack" was "kicked the sneak."

THE FIGURE SHOULD STAND.
The Asheville Citizen copying the News' analysis of the votes in this State upon which the Republican campaign committee made it decided not to send campaign funds to this State. The figures can be further elucidated. Harrison's vote in 1888 was 124,000; in 1892 was 100,000; showing that of the Populist vote of 44,000 for Weaver in 1892 about 34,000 were drawn from the Republican party. The figures this fall should stand, Democrats 150,000; Republicans and Populist, combined, 180,000.—Charlotte News.

Full of History.
There is a tree on Gen. James D. Owen's farm, in the Meadows, that measures twenty feet in circumference and shades an acre of ground when its foliage is full. It budded and the leaves put out last spring, but they died. Another tree on the place bears the name of Wm. Byrd and the year 1732, cut by Byrd himself. Both trees are oak. The General's farm is a part of the Royal grant to Wm. Byrd, who surveyed the "Land of Eden." Gen. Farley won it from the noted surveyor in a game of poker, and sold it to Wm. Brodnax, the father of Dr. Brodnax. It descended from the last named gentleman to his nephew, the present owner. An office built by Gen. Farley before the Revolution is still standing and in good state of preservation. The shingles were put on with wrought nails.—Reidsville Weekly.

Bodies Washed Ashore.
Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 4.—A special from Key West says that fifty dead bodies, victims of the wrecks occurring on the reefs during the recent storm, have been washed ashore on the islands. The dead are evidently sailors from the vessels destroyed, although the length of time which has elapsed since the storm has rendered the bodies unidentifiable through decomposition. The probabilities are that many more of these ghostly evidence of the hurricane's fury will be brought to light in a few days.

Fire Benefits.

THE GREAT AID IN ADVERTISING.
Investigation of Braintree's record shows that 80 per cent. of the business concerns that fail are those who do not advertise. The record is authentic, and conclusively proves that the great aid to success in mercantile pursuits is to advertise.
Registration books are now open. Persons entitled to vote who have not previously voted in the townships where they live, should register without delay. Those who have voted before should see that their names are on the book.

TOWN AND COUNTY.
Workmen are repairing the cotton platform.
The rainy day cuts the Standard short of local news today.
Mr. D. L. Bost and family have moved into the Fitzgerald house on North Main street.
Miss Laura Parish has gone to Asheville. She will teach in the mountains this year.
Mr. Fred Swink has received a car-load of cattle from Stanly. He took them out to the farm.
The N. C. Christian Advocate prints a picture of Rev. J. C. Kilgo, president of Trinity College. He is yet very young looking.

A sale of the personal property at the Nugget mine took place near Asheville, Wednesday. In the evening things got lively.
The Rowan Fair is a failure or else it is not going on at all, if we are to judge by the Salisbury Herald. The paper says nothing about it.
The New South Club is preparing to admit visitors for ten days. President Swink has had cards printed for the use of members.
Your attention is called to the very interesting statements made in the new "ad" of that enterprising, wide-awake firm, the Lowe Co.

Over the hills, valleys, rivers and forests, the Standard congratulates Dr. C. M. Payne. His household has another bright and promising addition.
The successful knights at the tournament of the Rowan Fair are: H. Kridler, Jno. B. F. ...

Mr. D. P. Daywalt's dray driver, while hauling some lime, was thrown off, two barrels falling on him. The colored man was right painfully hurt.
The authorities have run a fence—a closed fence—from the Graded School building to the Anthony lot. The girls will have their playground next to the Baptist church and the boys will take the grounds on the north side of the fence.

A train backed into a wagon at the Kerr street crossing last night, Clem Cowan, col., was on the wagon but jumped and kept his horse from being killed by holding him until the train which was going slow could be stopped. The wagon was torn to pieces.—Salisbury Herald.
Miss Della, the 18 year old daughter of Mr. David Parks of near Enochville, died Tuesday night of fever. This is the second death recently in that family. A short time ago Mr. Hugh Parks, a brother of this young lady and a member of the class of '94 at Davidson College died. It is truly an afflicted family.

The Laura Sunderland School, erroneously called "White Hall," is preparing to open. Everything is in readiness. Misses Stephens, Kerns and Allison, of Hopewell, Mecklenburg county, and Misses Corrie and Prudie Lewis and Euphria Robinson, of Gaston county, arrived Wednesday evening to enter Sunderland.
Rev. W. C. Alexander, the pastor elect of the First Presbyterian church has arrived. The manse was in great part refurbished. Mr. Alexander's family will follow in the course of several weeks. The people of Concord, irrespective of denominational affiliations give Mr. Alexander a cordial welcome. The First Presbyterian church is to be congratulated upon the securing so able and affable pastor without any delay.

The Standard has an abiding faith in the saving qualities of the Democratic party of Cabarrus. Just as sure as election day comes, just so sure will the entire ticket from Sheriff Morrison down to Coroner be elected. No one is expecting any other result. And the Populist can not say "fringe" either. We are sure that not a single one of the Populist ticket has much more than a fainting hope of election. It is just one of those examples of "as long as life there is hope" cases with them.
Salisbury Herald of the 4th. Misses Rose Harris, Grace Gibson, and Lall Hill and Messrs Geo. L. Patterson, Frank L. Smith, Jno. E. York, R. L. Kepler and J. P. Borders, of Concord, were in the audience at the opera house here last night. Mr. Kepler and Miss Hill are still among us. The others have returned home.

MR. E. E. GRIBBLE WAS IN THE CITY. He is now living at Newell's, N. C. When will we have the telephone in operation?
There are 445 students at the University.
Your attention is called to the mortgage sale by Mr. J. A. Rankin, trustee.
The yearly protracted meeting at Forest Hill Methodist church will begin a week from next Sunday.
Rev. T. W. Smith is conducting a very successful revival at Cannonville. Much interest is manifested.
The sale of revenue stamps in Stateville for September amounted to $15,996.97.
When a merchant stops advertising people get the idea into their heads that his "business is going down."
Only one marriage license has been issued up to date this month, that one to a colored couple—Augustus Culp to Rhoda Miller.
The much talked of Jabez Myers, of Charlotte, has reached New York. He is reported on the road to speedy and permanent recovery.
Mrs. E. C. Black, near Pioneer Mills, Cabarrus county is dead. She was 80 years of age. She was the mother of Mr. Jack Black, of Charleston.
Squire D. H. Ridenhour, of No. 8 township, was in the city. He has been having chills. It had been thirty-eight years since he had had a chill up to Monday.
George P. Poll, formerly of the Mt. Airy News, has entered school for the law at the University of North Carolina.

LITTLE NEWS.
A Populist, it is said, takes a silver dollar carried in 1894. It takes their thunder.
Buck Kitchen was at Salisbury Friday. They say he weeps great big tears when he begins to tell about the Democratic party having left him.
Buck Kitchen says that everybody down east knows that Fagcloth is not fit to be Supreme Court Justice, and that on a recent trip to the west he learned that Furches was even less fit. Buck, you know, is a priest and apostle of Populism, and his opinions should have weight with the party.
A beetle can draw twenty times its own weight. So can a mustard plaster.
No man ever yet had money enough to buy either good taste or breeding.
A Georgia boy thought to be lost was found on the bank of a river, where he had been fishing steadily for three days.
Who got up the petition to Mr. M. L. Buchanan? Mr. C. E. Barringe wants to know.
The Greensboro College Association is to be congratulated on the very wise and happy selection of a successor to the late Dr. Reid. Dr. Norman is intensely popular and an earnest, able worker.
The Georgia election takes place next Wednesday. It is time for the wild ones to get their mouths ready to cry "Fraud." They would do it if St. Peter personally watched every Populist.

Col. Oliver Jockery is not to run in the 6th Congressional district. It is to be left along to Preacher Pollock Martin. It was hoped that James Lockart was to have somebody against him to make a campaign.
The tariff bill provides a tax of 2 cents on all playing cards—"spotted cards." This makes a revenue of $1,000,000 annually. Peffer wanted to raise this tax on a direct tax on land. This is the kind of stuff that our Populist friends are asked to support. Those who are sincere and have the best interest of the country at heart will not do it.
You gentlemen, who think the Populists have swept the country: What think you of Tennessee, Alabama, Arkansas and Georgia?
That cyclone which struck Arkansas Tuesday night was one of the most terrible on record. The ruins at the Insane Asylum are particularly sad.

The Concord correspondent writes the Charlotte Observer: "Mr. A. L. Butt made $67.60 for the three nights he exhibited his panoramas here. He left for Salisbury this morning." The effects of a 65-cent advertisement in the Standard.
There will not be a total eclipse of the sun until the 21st century. We will have to wait a long time.
If Buck Kitchen, the Populist campaigner, wants to convince any one that he is a Democrat he ought to quit going about the State with a blind bride on—that chain to the bridle reveals him.
Judge Dick of Greensboro, will vote for Judge Shepherd for chief justice. He can't swallow Faircloth, the fusion candidate.—Websters Weekly. All this shows the tide.
In Russia people over 80 years old are prohibited by law from marrying; and they are not allowed to marry over five times. This is a pretty liberal matrimonial law.

Convict Affairs.
Mr. H. W. Smith, superintendent of the Cabarrus convict gang was over yesterday. Mr. Smith stands guard over 28 men. He was taken yesterday out to see Mecklenburg's camp, and was greatly pleased with the work.
The convicts have worked their way on the Statesville road as far as Dr. Irwin's, and on the Dilworth boulevard as far as Mr. Rigler's. The work on both roads is progressing well.—Charlotte Observer.

THE GEORGIA ELECTION.
Georgia, old Georgia, Tom Watson's State, is again on record. The old State is still in the column where all good States are found. Georgia is Democratic and always will be—it is just like North Carolina.
The majority for the Democrats in Georgia at the election on Wednesday ranges between 30,000 and 50,000.
They had the great disease of fusion down in Georgia. They fused, eh? Yes they fused and fusion got mopped up and cleaned up.
It will be in order now for fusion sympathizers to cry "fraud." The better element of no political party will consent for the chosen few to make an unholy alliance by, which political honor, principles and personal opinion are to be sold, bartered or traded upon. Humanity has not come to that point when a few men can bargain and deliver the honestly held opinions of men and try to affect a mixture that will not mix any more than oil and water.
It will be refreshing to hear the explanations of the Populist managers of North Carolina upon the bad defeat of fusion in Georgia. Those whom they claim as followers will want to know from them what hit fusion in Georgia.
They fused in Tennessee—what was the result?
They fused in Arkansas—what was the result?
They fused in Alabama—what was the result?
They fused in Georgia—what was the result?
They have fused in North Carolina—what will be the result?
Any child that can read, see signs and put two and two together knows just what is in store for fusion in North Carolina. All over the State sincere thinking Populists are retiring from the unholy alliance put on them by their political managers. The sincere Republicans are turning their backs upon the fusion.
Here's the list: Tennessee, Arkansas, Alabama and Georgia.
Send along some more fusion.

POLITICAL NOTES.
The fusion business manager, Gideonite Sotho Wilson, refuses a joint canvass. The Republican chairman is willing but says he's turned the whole business to the Gideonite.
Greene has just had a large Democratic convention. Speeches were made and several Populists were converted.
Harry Skinner, who used to cuss the colored people, presided at the fusion convention in Pitt county on Wednesday.
The triangular congressional candidates spoke at Trinity on Wednesday. Dr. Ried Parker appeared for Stroud, the Populist.
Only one-fourth of a column is taken up by the People's Party campaign book on the subject of tariff. The book contains 124 pages.
Buck Kitchen and C. W. Tillet had a joint discussion, Thursday night in Charlotte Old Buck is not all Populist.
