Had the bill been a law 90 days earlier than it did it is quite probable that the business conditions of the country would have so adjusted themselves that the political result would have been different.

State Chairman Poo, when asked by your correspondent to night what caused the landslide, said: "Five cent cotton was the lion in the path." He added that the legislative and State tickets are both very close and that the official vote will be required to determine how they stand. He further states that the fusion was far more complete than the Democrats ever imagined.

The North Carolina Christian Advocate and the Raleigh Recorder are having some words over the subject of baptism. A recent communication in the Recorder, headed, "A Methodist Baptizing," is in spirit that shows a lack of Christianity on the part of the author and but little courtesy towards a great denomination in the part of the religious (?) editor in publishing it.

The very best Register of Deeds in the State has been turned down by a small majority—most of the adverse vote having no business in that office at all.

Let us hope that the county may have a free ballot. Let us hope that hereafter an honest, upright colored man may vote his sentiments without running the risk of being slashed with a knife in the hands of anarchists.

Jao. S. Henderson is defeated. This is a calamity to all North Carolina. It might not be so bad, were his successful opponent a man of any brains. To be beaten by stuff like Shuford is humiliating. Pray, Shuford, when you are taken to Washington, don't register from North Carolina.

Charleston, S. C., Nov. 7.—A special from Wagners, S. C., to the News and Courier, says: "Prof. H. S. Cunningham, principal of the High School here, was ruthlessly shot down on the streets this morning while quietly proceeding to the school room, by Robert L. Gunter. He was hit by two pistol balls, and though painfully, is not fatally shot."

To the Methodist of the Charlotte District.

DEAR BROTHERN: Within less than three weeks your pastors will start to the Annual Conference. Reports at the fourth Quarterly Meetings so far held show that you are very much behind with your finances. Suffer a word of exhortation from one whose duty it is "to oversee the spiritual and temporal affairs of the Church" in this district.

1. Let us remember that God has blessed nearly or quite all the Churches of the district with more or less of revival and other spiritual blessings during the year.

2. Let us not forget that He has given us unusually abundant temporal harvests. An intelligent farmer has recently said to me that he believes that notwithstanding the low price of cotton, the large crop of this staple will bring as much money as the smaller one of last year did. And he believes that in his section twice as much corn has been made as was gathered in '93, floods not having damaged it as they did then. Besides, there is a fine crop of peas and a good one of potatoes. Hence, it is confidently believed that the crops of this year are worth decidedly more than those of last year. Let us be willing to credit "the Lord of the harvest" with all that He has done for us, and to give Him grateful and liberal return for year, through your boards of stewards, assessed for them. In some cases the assessments made are smaller than they were last year, while the expense of supporting themselves and families is nearly or quite as much as it has been for a number of years past. And their most expensive necessities are the products of your farms, such as corn, fodder, meat, lard, etc. Can you say that your pastors have not done hard, earnest and faithful work? Remember that it is much easier for a Church of a hundred or more members to pay off her deficiency than it is for the pastor to lose it. And is it not more in harmony with the claims of justice?

4. The cause of missions, the superannuated preachers and other objects of benevolence for which you are asked to contribute need all that has been assessed for them. These causes will suffer if there is any material falling off in our contributions to them.

Now, let us make some advance along all financial lines. If the members of any Church or Circuit feel that they cannot pay all that is asked of them for these objects or their pastor, let them resolve to do at least do better than they did last year. Let them do for others as God has done for them. Let every one do something, and let all try to do more than they have done in the past.

I confidently appeal to you to "honor the Lord with your substance," and thus to bring His rich blessing upon you in the future.

With best wishes for you as my co-laborers in the Lord's vineyard, I remain, fraternal yours,

Mr. Fred Miller of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called kidney cures but without any good results. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement.
