AT FOREST HILL.

Two Men are Hurt, One Gets Married and Another Will Be—Mr. Emery Entertains.

Mr. I. H. Beatty, while stacking cotten in the yard in front of No. 4 Hill at Forest Hill Thursday evening fell a distance of fifteen feet and was seriously injured. After driving his hook into the bagging and leaning backward, the hook lost its hold, causing Mr. Beatty to fall to the hard ground upon his head and back. Besides receiving injuries on the head and spine, he is hurt internally. Dr. L. M. Archey was summoned to attend him, and states that while the injuries are serious, Mr. Beatty may recover.

Mr. J. S. Proctor, who runs a slubber, got his left hand torn to pieces this (Friday) morning in the machinery in Mill No. 2. His hand was so badly torn and mashed that probably one or more fingers will have to be amputated. Dr. S. J. Montgomery dressed the wounds.

Wednesday night Mr. John Hornbuckle was married to Miss Alice Bailey, one of the most charming young ladies on the Hill. In a very impressive manner Rev. M. A. Smith performed the ceremony.

The marriage of Mr. H. T. Williams to Miss Maggie Robinson is announced for next Tuesday evening at 6 o'clock.

Mr. F. L. Emery entertained quite a number of invited guests Friday evening at his home on Church street. Among them were Revs. Surrat, M. A. Smith and J. B. Carpenter. The clerks are all busy and things are rocking on smoothly as usual at the company store.

Death Near Mt. Pleasant.

Within one mile of Mt. Pleasant, at the home, Mrs. William W. Eudy died about 11 o'clock Thursday night.

Mrs. Eudy has been badly afflicted for six months or more. She was stricken with paralysis, which was the immediate cause of her death.

Her husband died about one year ago, thus several boys and girls are left fatherless and motherless. She was probably 55 years of age. Her remains were interred in the Lutheran cemetery at Mt. Pleasant.

Talmage Resigns.

New York, Nov. 8.—The association of the Rev. Dr. DeWitt Talmage with the Brooklyn Tabernacle has been formally severed. His resignation is due, he said, to the fact that he does not feel that he should ask the fourth church for him. He advises them to either join other churches or bid for a new pastor. Dr. Talmage's letter of resignation was dated on Monday and sent to the session.

As to his future plans he says he will either take a new pastorate or enter evangelistic work, "preaching the gospel to all people without price."

The session last night met and formulated a letter to the Presbytery asking that they formally dissolve the pastoral relations between themselves and Dr. Talmage, and also expressing regret at his action.

The Passing of Populism.

One thing, at least, is clearly demonstrated by Tuesday's elections. The Populist party has seen its best days. It was driven out of its strong holds, and in States where it had recently made gains it lost heavily.

Instead of electing thirty-five or forty members of Congress as it boasted it would, it has had its representation of eleven in that body reduced almost one-half.

The people of the United States may now and then be deluded by Republican fallacies, but they will never adopt the wild theories of government which the Populists proclaim. They have seen Populism put to practical test. Several States have been under its complete domination. The result has invariably been the same. The credit of the State has suffered; private property has depreciated fearfully; outside capital has refused to come and millions of dollars have been taken out of the reach of reckless Populist legislation.

The various trials that have been accorded to Populism have all resulted in one verdict. It is that Populism is incapable of safe government and fatal to public and private interests.

Populism is doomed.—Atlanta Journal.

The failure business has begun. A bank in California threw up the sponge on Thursday. We were promised that there is it?

A HISTORY OF HUMANITY.

A Characteristic Summary of the Doings of Man Since His Earliest Creation.

CHAPTER I.
The earliest information which we have of man is that he was created. Having exhausted himself in calling the animals names he proceeded to go to sleep!

CHAPTER II.
Woman then occurs, and her first recorded act, was to appropriate one of the male ribs for her own convenience.

CHAPTER III.
Woman is now at the summit of feminine terrestrial propriety. She possesses the only living man, and she inhabits the Paradise of Eden.

The next incident, therefore, is an inevitable sequence.

Straying from Adam, Eve entered into conversation with the only other talking creature in the garden—the serpent, the most villainous, loathsome and venomous animal of all!

To emphasize the situation, this particular serpent is Satan—the principle of Evil.

CHAPTER IV.
The serpent deceives Eve, who possessing entire liberty, characteristically exercises her right for something new!

CHAPTER V.
Eve rejoins Adam, prevails upon him to make a foot of himself, as she already had of herself, and hiding—leaves the first man to tell the first lie!

CHAPTER VI.
Adam and Eve are summarily expelled from Paradise.

Thus, upon the first day, the first woman fell at the first temptation, ruined the first man and accomplished sufficient mischief to endure even until the last trumpet shall summon the last man to attend the Last Judgment.

CHAPTER VII.
A very creditable address rehearsal.

CHAPTER VIII.
Reproduces the ingredients of this episode, with a full and elaborate, innumerable billions of times, and you have the complete "History of Humanity" from the first breath to the last sigh!

ADDENDA.

In the course of the busy first day the first woman invented the first fashion!

A circle of interest is that Eve introduced female dress with a lead and iron. She will recently fashion has continually added to the costume with a civilized woman shall wear. It has been reserved for this century, however, to reverse the process, rapidly undressing her, and it may be, therefore, that the end of the world will occur when woman reaches again the primitive starting point. At the present rate this may be estimated to happen somewhere about 1897. Or it may be a trifle earlier.—London Truth.

And Fate.

A young lady in Concord is the possessor of a poor innocent dairy cow that has lately developed a talent for the sweet notes that such birds can sing. But the stormy petrel told. She has owned the bird for several years, and until Wednesday morning last it had never sang a note, and since the election returns have brought forth the sad news of Democratic defeat, the little fellow seems to be trying itself. It has sang each day incessantly. The poor little bird's life has been threatened upon the belief that it is a Republican.

This is an actual fact. The lady has shed many tears over the sudden change, but the poor little caged bird does not cease to send forth its melancholy notes.

Poor bird!

OVER 100 YEARS OLD.

An Honest Colored Man Passes Away.—He Had the Respect of All.

Some days ago the Standard made mention of the serious affliction of "Uncle Alfred" Barrier, a respectable, honest, faithful old colored man of Concord.

Up to one year ago he lived in Mt. Pleasant. He had the respect of everybody. "Uncle Alfred" was the wood chopper of that town.

He was one of the smallest men in the county, but with a frank face. He was over 100 years old.

The man's original African, having been brought from Africa when the slave trade was owned by old Mr. Babcock's grandfather, Mr. Pleasant, at the time of the war.

Uncle Alfred is dead. He passed away Thursday night. Peace be to his soul.

The next House of Representatives will be elected Nov. 7.—Chairman Babcock of the Republican Congressional campaign committee estimates the next House will be 121 Democrats, 231 Republicans, and 4 Populists, giving the Republicans a clear majority of 106 over-all. This estimate is based on returns received up to 3 o'clock p. m.

The Republican Congressional Campaign committee closed up its headquarters today. Several attempts were made this morning by Chairman Babcock and Secretary McKee to prepare a table showing the relative party representations in the next House, but each time fuller returns received threw out the calculation. The Democratic campaign committee concedes a Republican plurality fifty-six in the next House.

Washington, Nov. 7.—At 8 o'clock tonight Mr. Blythe gave out the following statement:

"Returns received up to this hour show that we have elected over 200 members, with several other States to near form. We have carried the solid Congressional delegations of twenty-three States. We have carried the majority of the delegations in thirty States, thereby enabling us to elect a President in case the election should be thrown into the House. The returns indicate that we have secured control of the next Senate by a majority of one to three without counting the vote of North Carolina, which has undoubtedly elected a Republican Legislature."

Chairman Babcock's figures show that the Republicans have carried the following States by solid Congressional delegations: Connecticut, Colorado, Delaware, Idaho, Indiana, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, New Jersey, North Dakota, Oregon, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Vermont, Washington, Wyoming, West Virginia and Wisconsin. The number of districts in the House of Representatives for other States are: Alabama, 1; Arizona, 1; California, 6; Illinois, 12; Iowa, 10; Kentucky, 6; Louisiana, 4; Missouri, 7; New York, 19; Ohio, 13; Pennsylvania, 11; South Carolina, 1; Tennessee, 7; Texas, 10; Virginia, 2.

This is a very opportune time for the colored man to be looking blue, but blue he is and looks like all over the election. He was over yesterday talking over the "dreary business" and denouncing the fact that Cabarrus had joined the Republican procession.—Charlotte Observer.

Who is the Jonah?

Next comes Thanksgiving. Begin to advertise Christmas goods now.

The electric lights are about all straight again.

Policeman Blackwelder, of Charlotte, a native of Cabarrus, is quite ill.

Mr. John W. Fink, who has been quite sick for a month or more, is able to be out we are glad to say.

Judge Graves is critically ill at his home in Mt. Airy. His life is despaired of.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield, who visits Concord frequently on professional work, is to change his home from Winston to Charlotte.

The Charlotte Observer has recently put in a job office, managed by Mr. R. E. Blakely, a clever and courteous old gentleman.

Lippard & Barrier's black delivery horse got scared Thursday afternoon at a covered wagon and backed the hack all over the sidewalk. No damage was done.

One hundred and sixty-three men marched to the music of a brass band from McAdenville to Lowell and cast a solid Democratic vote. Brass bands must be a "Jonah."

Miss Edna Pitts has accepted a position with the Lowe Co. Miss Pitts has many friends in the city who are glad to know she is again with us. She will be glad to see them all.

Dr. D. G. Caldwell is in Concord to stay and will not live in the country, as many believe. He will be found at the home of Mrs. Dr. Henderson, on West Depot street, instead of the St. Cloud Hotel.

Mr. Lee S. Overman, of Salisbury, has been elected president of the Board of Directors of the North Carolina Railroad Company. This is to fill the vacancy caused by the death of W. F. Konegay, of Goldsboro.

The reason Mr. John D. Green, of No. 7, voted the Fusion ticket was that one year ago he got $1.50 per day as a carpenter and now just $1.25. Fusion must put up wages to $1.50.

Fred. T. Adams, a New York broker, who had been offering so much money and heavy odds on Morton's election, won $70,000 on the election. If Hill had been victorious, Adams would have lost more than $250,000.

It is said of a certain official who is recently devoted much time to the study of grace-saying that he had become so accustomed to repeating "O Lord make us thankful, that when he was swearing a man Thursday he began with the above "O Lord, etc." instead of "Do you solemnly swear, etc." He is a young man and married, and hasn't been in public office many years.

Two years from now, when the Republicans and Democrats are struggling for supremacy in this country, where will be our Populist neighbors? Elated with the apparent success of the fusion movement, they vainly imagine that they have swelled up and absorbed the Republican party, but in 1896 they will find that they themselves have been swallowed and wiped out of existence!—Chatham Record.

Politics is very quite these days.

Our Methodist people are getting ready for the Annual Conference. It meets in Statesville this year.

Mr. Luther Ridenbour, of St. John's gave us a pleasant call. He hopes when the shipment of silver begins that a divide will be made.

Th. L. L. of A. met Friday night and a great time was had. This organization is young, but has lots of life in it.

Mrs. Dr. H. C. Herring left Thursday night for Charlotte, where Dr. Herring has located. This means one loss to Concord of a good and valuable family.

Evidently there is to be another year and the millennium is not yet at hand; at least a new Almanac for 1895 is out and tells us what kind of weather we are to have.

Mr. J. Whit Burkhead and family have moved out to their new country home. Mr. Burkhead says it is not the Ur place any more. "Lansing" is the name.

Mr. J. W. Mehaffey of our town has kept a list of all the deaths of adults in Concord since the war. The Standard will publish the list and if there be any omissions we want to correct it.

The New York Celebrities, Louis Blumenberg, manager, will be in Armory Hall tonight. Don't fail to attend. Our people know this company and the entertainment will be unusually fine.

The Standard forgot to say, and in fact overlooked, that in the general wreck last Tuesday we saved not only Jim Gibson but Robt. Sappenfield, who was elected township constable.

Coroner Dorsett says he has no doubt but that Mr. J. W. Butler of Ebochville, was murdered. He had had a dispute at a corn shucking and was driving a 20-year old horse that was never known to run away. The jury did not finish their work adjourning to meet next Wednesday.—Salisbury Herald.

While the fusionists were celebrating their victory at Maiden on Wednesday night an explosion occurred which resulted in the death of one man and maiming for life another. It seems they were using some old iron they had gotten to celebrate with, when one of the pieces exploded, striking Mr. J. F. Radul on the leg shattering it so fearfully that amputation below the knee was necessary. Mr. Joe Setzer was struck on the side of the head by a piece of material crushing his skull and killing him.—Newton Enterprise.

Democrats Have Eight Texas Congressmen.

Dallas, Texas, Nov. 9.—Not more than one-third of the vote of the State has been reported officially, but enough is known to predict the success of Culberson, Democrat, for Governor, by about 40,000 plurality. He runs ten to fifteen thousand behind the balance of the State ticket. The Democrats certainly elect Congressmen in eight of the thirteen districts, namely: First Hutcherson, 4,000 plurality; second, Cooper, 3,000; third, Yoakum, 1,500; fourth, Culberson, 2,000; fifth, Bailey, 8,000; ninth, Sayers, 1,500; tenth, Crowley, 1,000; eleventh, Crain, 1,000.

A Preacher in Trouble.

A committee to hear charges against Rev. Mr. Yarborough, pastor of B street chapel, in this city, has been appointed by Rev. Dr. Brooks, presiding elder of the Charlotte District. The trial before the committee will be held next week. The specific charge is that Mr. Yarborough tried to lead astray a young female member of his congregation.

Mr. Yarborough is a young man, and has never yet been through conference. A good deal of feeling has been excited against him in the community and especially among the members of his congregation.—Charlotte News.

Paid $100 to Get One Thrown Out.

The canvassing board of the election returns were asked to throw out No. 8 township because one man voted. It was claimed that a Mr. Kizer, who is a liner of Cabarrus and Stanley was registered in No. 8 and voted there.

The managers of the Populists sent for Esq. Geo. Baron of Charlotte to come over and appear for them. He heard the case and said: the box can not be thrown out, but the one vote of Kizer can be, if it is certain that he lives in Stanley and not Cabarrus. It cost $100 to have Mr. Baron to say this.

HOLTON TO BABCOCK.

Thinks His Crowd is Going to Need Them at the Meeting of the Canvassing Board.

Washington, Nov. 8.—The following letter from North Carolina received at headquarters explains itself:

GREENSBORO, N. C., Nov. 8, '94.
Hon. J. W. Babcock, Washington, D. C.

Dear Sir:—We won a complete victory at the polls here yesterday. Have elected the judicial ticket by an estimated majority of over 40,000 and have both branches of the Legislature, with four Republicans and three Populists. The fight will have to be made tomorrow before the county canvassing boards. These boards have judicial powers, the right to investigate the legality of every vote, and pass upon the regularity of the precinct returns. It will be necessary for us to have lawyers of reputation and ability to appear before these canvassing boards in many of the counties of the State. Will be compelled to employ Democratic lawyers at good fees; besides, it will be a stroke of policy to get them. I have borne the expenses of this campaign mainly, and now my money is exhausted. Our candidates claim that they have not the means, and this is true in holding the State it is the end of Democracy here, for we have had for years the majority, but through the election machinery we have been defrauded. If you can do anything for us name the amount by wire immediately upon the receipt of this. We have been arranging to employ counsel by wire where needed, if we can raise the means, the Democrats say that they have given up the State, but information comes to us that they intend to do their work before the canvassing boards tomorrow.

Some of their unguarded politicians are saying that they have the machinery and expect to use it, and do not intend to give up the State. "That the count beats voting." I have made estimates in thirty counties in the State on definite information, and in these counties we have gained 20,000 over the vote of two years ago, and have gained in these counties 35 members of the House out of 46, and it seems that this ratio will be kept up except in the first and ninth districts, and in these we have gained about 6,000. Pearson's majority in the ninth is 192, and Skinner's in the first is 800.

Yours truly,

A. E. HOLTON.

Chairman State Executive Com. Chairman Babcock telegraphed a reply to this letter, directing the Republican manager to take the necessary steps to protect their Congressman, and that the committee would stand by them.

To Be Married in Pennsylvania.

Cards have been issued for the marriage of Mr. Henry F. Otten to Miss Margaret Paschau, at Zion Evangelical Lutheran church, Greensboro, Pa., on November 22nd. They will be "at home," 406 North Front street, Wilmington, N. C. after November 20th. Miss Paschau is a daughter of Rev. F. W. E. Paschau, who was so long stationed in Wilmington, and who is so popularly known in Concord and throughout the State.

ABSOLUTELY PURE

ELECTION COMMENT.

New Look for the Populist Millennium. The millennium may now be expected. Everybody may expect to have plenty of money at least $50 per capita, and cotton will be at least ten cents a pound. For, did not the Populists promise all these things if they carried the election? Chatham Record.

Time to Get Down to Business.

Now that the election is over it is about time to settle down to business again. This is the best country in the world, and can be made one of the most flourishing on the face of the earth. If the Populists and Democrats and Republicans will cooperate together to build up this great country, it will become the garden spot of the world.—Wilson Advance.

No Time for Fast Findings.

This is no time for examination and reexamination among the Democrats. It doesn't matter now who, if anybody, is responsible for the result of Tuesday's election. The thing for Democrats to do is to pull themselves together and get ready for the fight of 1896—forgetting those things that are behind, and looking forward to those that are before, to press forward toward the mark of the prize.—Charlotte Observer.

Republican Discipline Did It.

As a party we have always lacked the discipline of the Republicans, and have never shown the discipline for which the Republican party is so remarkable. In the campaign that preceded the contest of
