

FREE TRIP TO ATLANTA.

THE STANDARD has arranged to give a free trip to Atlanta to some one—a trip covering one week. This way: The one that secures, between now and December 10, the greatest number of new cash subscribers to the WEEKLY STANDARD will be presented on December 11 a free ticket to Atlanta and back, good for one week or less, as the successful one desires. The subscription is $1. If you secure one for only six months, it is 50 cents and counts a half; for only three months, it is 30 cents and counts one fourth. This is a good chance for a young lady or young man or old one to get a free trip to Atlanta. Who'll win it?

SUBSCRIPTIONS PAID.

Joe Blackwelder, Caleb Melchor, W. G. A. Gruse, Miss Mary Bost, Mrs. A. Blackwelder, W. J. P. J. Ataker, A. W. Bost (part), Martin Dry, J. M. Fisher, D. B. Parikh, Miss Sallie A. Smith, Dr. R. J. Caldwell, F. A. Klutz (Texas), Rev. J. D. Sherry (new), Jas. B. Ritchie, Jas. E. Long (part), Lawson A. Barrier, Sandy Black, J. T. Hahn.

Sunday was a blustery day.

Treasurer Keatler returned Saturday, from Raleigh, on the delayed train.

Communion services were held Sunday morning at Forest Hill Methodist church.

There were three accession to St. Andrews Lutheran church at Cannonville Sunday night.

Cabarrus's model farmer, Mr. O W Swink, is having a large wind mill and pump put up on his plantation for watering purposes.

Sunday, October 37, was very much like the Sunday of July 30, 1893, the day before the terrific cyclone that passed over this section.

Misses Jennie and Lelia Cook, Ella Belle Shires, Addie Deger and Grace Heilig, the Mt. Pleasant exposition party, returned Saturday night, after a week pleasantly and profitably spent in Atlanta.

Apple, cherry and pear trees are blooming in all parts of town. With these blossoms and the light shower of Sunday night and the merry chirping of the birds, it makes one think of spring time.

Mr. W A Ridenhour has secured a position as stenographer and billing clerk for the wholesale drug firm of Burwell & Dann, of Charlotte. He returned to-day and will go to work at once.

Ernest McKenzie, late of Salisbury but now of Greensboro, and Miss Katherine Scates, of Greensboro, are to be married in November. Both are well known in Concord. Miss Scates has visited here.

Children's Day exercises were observed Sunday at Trinity (Lutheran) church in No. 4 township under the supervision of members of the church, of which Rev. V R Stuckley is pastor, who delivered an interesting address.

Sallie, the 18-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hathcock, of Forest Hill died Monday night of typhoid fever. The funeral was conducted from the house this afternoon, and the remains were interred at the cemetery.

The "Women of the Future" is the title of Rev Tom Dixon's latest lecture. He's to be in Raleigh Friday night. Would Concord not like to hear this fine and entertaining lecture? Suppose some of our moves in this matter?

Messrs James Shevlin and Thomas H Downing, of New York City, have written to friends in this city, stating that they would be in Concord the latter part of November to spend several weeks in hunting. Mr. Shevlin has just returned from a trip to Europe.

In the wood just this side of the coal chute, near Mr. Fred Glass, tramps built a fire on Friday night and on Saturday about noon the whole wood was discovered to be burning and it was with difficulty that what might have been a disastrous fire was put out.

H A Graber is so accustomed to hailing every one to buy some beef or pork, that on Sunday, on his way to church, he forgot himself and asked John O Wadsworth "how much nice pork you want, Mr. Wadsworth?" THE STANDARD means to say that Mr. Graber was on his way to church.

Mr. L W Springs, of Salem, the largest drummer on the road, who has been travelling from time immemorial for Ralph's snuff has resigned his position with Stewart, Ralph & Co. Mr. Springs is known to every merchant in Concord and his face will be missed. Brown Bros. will not have to send a one-horse wagon to the depot again. Mr. Springs always thought he couldn't get into a box and always refused to try.

A load of Thanksgiving turkey struck town Tuesday.

Coal dealers and woodmen are beginning to smile pleasantly.

Beware of every man who is honest only because it is his best policy.

An organ grinder and a monkey are enroute to Concord. Save the brownies.

Mr. D J Suttentfield, special agent for Mutual Benefit Life Insurance Company is in the city.

Rev. R H Parker preached at Bays' chapel last night. These meetings are largely attended.

The three large boilers have been placed in the new mill at Cannonville.

Railroad man Bob Bost has been spending several days at his old home at Bost's Mills.

Brown Bros. have purchased eleven head of fine horses. They arrived Monday night.

The Rogers-McDowell clothing company, of Winston, will go out of business the first of the year.

The large china berry tree on Litaler's corner has been trimmed, which greatly improves the looks of the corner.

Eddy L Morrison, of No. 2, has accepted a position with the Morris Hardware Company. Eddy is welcomed to town.

D M Walker pays the highest market prices for all kind of country produce, cash or barter. Don't forget the place opposite D C Farr's at Forest Hill.

A sale took place at the home of Mr. W C Earnhardt. He sold off all his stock and farming tools preparatory to moving to town.

The street Evangelist continues to conduct meetings on the Square at Forest Hill. He had quite a large audience Monday night, it is said.

Dr. and Mrs. S J Lafferty did not go to Atlanta on Monday, as was their intention, owing to the illness of Mrs. Lafferty. They will go later.

Mr. S L Klutz gave the old man of this shop a quart jar of the finest kind of honey. There is always a sweetness in every life.

The street "evangelist" got down to Coleburg, Tuesday night. He believes he's sent forth to convert the world. He has a big job on his hands.

A novel way of getting mortar and brick on the high smoke stack in course of erection at the Cannon factory is by means of a tackle and mule.

In the Harrisburg section of this county people are praying for rain. From appearances there are some indications of their prayers being answered.

A piece of shafting twisted in two in No. 4 mill at the Odell factories Monday afternoon, causing a part of the machinery to suspend operations for a few hours.

Cotton has advanced to 8 S24 with prospects of reaching 9 cents before another week. The rise is gradual and sure. Only about thirty bales were marketed to day (Wednesday), the ruling price being 8 80.

In many cases, the first work of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is to expel the effects of the other medicines that have been tried in vain. It would be a saving of time and money if experimenters took Ayer's Sarsaparilla at first instead of at last.

D A Bamer, with a large force of linemen, passed through Concord this morning, putting on an extra telegraph wire between Atlanta and Washington on the Western Union poles.

Mr. Ed. Freeze, of No. 4 township, has secured the position made vacant by the resignation of Miss Eyyie Kime at the Odell company store. He will enter upon his duties as salesman to-morrow.

We know whereof we affirm when we state that Ayer's Pills, taken promptly, at the first symptoms of colds and fevers, arrest further progress of these disorders, and speedily restore the stomach, liver, and bowels, to their normal and regular action.

North Carolina State Fair (colored), Raleigh, N. C., tickets on sale Nov. 5, 6, and 7, final limit Nov. 11, 1895. Fare for round trip, including one admission to fair grounds $3 55. Continuous passage and no stop-over allowed.

Concord is no exception to the general rule laid down in the following from the Madison Observer: "The most degenerating practice of modern times is that of allowing children and youths to run on the street at night completely outside of parental restraint. This practice prevails in nearly every town in the State. Give the children good literature to read, and keep them away from boys who congregate at places to tell snappy jokes." The whole matter may be summed up in a few words: make home attractive and cultivate a taste in the boys for better things.

RUFUS HEAVILY GAINED.

He is loaded down under a great load—greater than Shasta Hill is made with fifteen minutes of Compliments.

The Raleigh News and Observer, of Sunday, gives an account of the State Fair Marshall's Ball, and THE STANDARD runs its knife around a part which is herewith reproduced: At 11 o'clock Maj. Samuel F Tel fair, in a few pleasant words, introduced Mr. J Crawford Biggs, of Oxford, who had been selected on the part of the marshals to present to their chief, Mr. Rufus L Patterson, of Durham, a handsome gold headed cane as a token of their high esteem and regard.

Mr. Biggs arose and paid a beautiful tribute to the women of North Carolina and to the State's chivalry. He lauded the State Agricultural Society for the selection of so excellent a man as Col. Julian S Carr, of Durham, as president, and then in a pleasant and delightful manner delicately complimented him for his choice of such a chief as Mr. Patterson has made. No Chief has ever done more or thrown more enthusiasm into the work for the good of the fair than Mr. Patterson, and his assistants recognized his ability and appreciated his sterling worth.

Mr. Biggs closed his remarks with a compliment to the social success, and looking around him said: "Never has there been assembled together in the State a more beautiful representation of her beautiful women or chivalrous men."

Mr. Patterson seemed deeply moved by the feeling outwardly shown by the marshals, and in a brief speech thanked his assistants. Mr. Patterson is a courteous and courtly gentleman and has won the esteem and confidence of all with whom he has come in contact, and though they wish him all joy it was the regret of his many friends that in a few weeks he will be disqualified for service in 1896.

Much credit is due to Mr. Patterson's selections of his assistants, for the good order kept at the grounds, nearly a year.

Saturday evening at Mr. Pleasant there came near being a fire. At the building of the Frick Mfg. Co, a gin is run. Some cotton was being unloaded by the auction process and a match in the cotton ignited. The flames rushed over the building in a few seconds burning off the loose lint.

A barrel of water was convenient and a number of people present aided in putting out the fire. The loss will be covered by a few dollars.

No License, No Marriage. Saturday night about 10:30 o'clock Register Weddington was called on at the jail to go to his office and issue a marriage license to John Hathcock and Miss Mattie Phillips, both of Patterson's mill. Mr. Weddington did not comply with the request, however, and therefore prevented the uniting of this couple.

From what we can learn it was a run away affair, the girl was taken away from Underland Hill school under the pretense of sickness in her family only a few miles away. Both man and woman have returned to their respective homes, not married, but with lots of romantic experience.

A Desperate Character. Salisbury World: Officer Pace was called on by Jim Ellerson, a darkey of Davie county, who had been assaulted by Henry Forrest, also colored, of Concord, to arrest the latter yesterday afternoon. Mr. Pace found Forrest in the alley between Ritchie's bar and Swain's store, Bay Forrest determined not to be arrested, slashed with his knife right and left. Mr. Pace finally grappled with him and as he still resisted brought his blivet into play as a means of persuasion. But the blivet broke and the darkey was in the act of bringing the knife across Mr. Pace's throat when the latter pulled his pistol and hit him on the head with the butt of it. Instantaneously the pistol went off and the ball entered above the darkey's eye and came out at the top of his head. Mr. Pace called in assistance and it required three or four men to get him in the lock up. Even after he had been put in the calaboose he jumped on Mr. Jno. I Shaver's back.

Dr. S P Wright was called in and dressed the wounds which are not considered dangerous.

Forrest is a desperate man and had been involved in a difficulty with Mr. Will Mears, of Linwood, in the morning, and had it not been for the interference of Tom Vanderford, Jr. he would have cut Mr. Mears. Mr. Pace is one of the best and most conservative officers Salisbury ever had and he jeopardized his own life by not using his pistol at the beginning. In view of these facts the very bad spirit shown by some of Forrest's race over the affair is highly censurable. Forrest was committed to jail this morning and is getting along very well.

Pitt-simmons are not allowed to ripen in Texas and Arkansas.

WEDDING OVER TO COURT.

Late in afternoon—about 9:00—given immediately.

Tuesday's Durham Sun: Yesterday was a day of excitement for Durham. Last night seemed like a lull after a terrific storm or a calmness which follows a hard fought battle.

Still the air was full of apprehension and everybody felt a tinge of expectancy, which caused them to move around with more or less alertness and stop to listen to every wild and idle rumor that was discussed on the street corners.

The trial of A A Latta, for arson, which had been on all day and was still on when the Sun went to press yesterday afternoon was concluded about 5 o'clock. Mayor Pay bound him over to the next term of court under a justified bond of $1,000. He gave bond with Messrs. E J Linesberry, Thomas H Martin and J G Latta, his father, as bondsmen and was released.

October's Receipts. Register of Deaths Weddington has issued nearly one and a half dozen marriage license this month, eleven whites and five blacks, which are as follows: WHITES—Wm. G Maynard, Miss Verna Troutman; Jason C Misener, Miss Misaouri Suther; James D Mills, Miss Emma Moore; John L Saffir, Miss Mary J Laughlin; James F Allman, Miss Annie Deal; H W Tucker, Miss Laura Holshouser; Frank L Robbins, Miss Mary Grace Gibson; Ross L McConnell, Miss Mattie A Castor; John V Winecoff, Miss Loula B Laughlin; Worth P Barnhardt, Miss Alice M Beayer; Samuel G Daniel, Lizzie A Bost.

BLACKS—Thomas Reed, Ella Bost; Andrew McMechens, Sarah Martin; Thomas Cowan, Laura Houston; Frank Radcliff, Hettie Pharr; Benjamin Eryin, Mattie Parve.

A Church Wedding. On Thursday night next Mr. Charles Eagle will be married to Miss Matilda Lentz, both of Cannonville. The event will take place in Bays' chapel at 8:30 o'clock, Rev. J R Moore, the pastor, to officiate.

A Trip to Baltimore. An agreement has been made by three young men of this city to marry, with the understanding that all three, with their wives, go to the Baltimore exposition in 1897. Ladies wishing to get married and a trip to Baltimore may be accommodated by calling on three of the handsomest clerks in Cannons & Fetzer's store, who will furnish them with conditions and particulars in general.

To save the innocent and married ones from a gay and festive rush of colossal magnitude, we name the trio that propose this great undertaking: Messrs. Sam Ervin, Ed. White and my genial Watanga friend, Mann Stuart.

Arrested a Bress. On Thursday afternoon last Fannie Holdbrooks, a colored girl of Coleburg, went to the home of Mrs. John McLeeland, at Forest Hill, and obtained a dress from Mrs. McLeeland under the pretense that her mother wished to purchase it, and stated that she (the girl's mother) cooked at Lawyer Crowell's, where she was to take it, and if it pleased the old man, Fannie was to return with the money—but she never returned.

The deal was reported to Chief Boger and today he effected the arrest of the dress at the home of the girl and would have gotten the girl, but she was absent.

Three in one Day. Early Monday morning Mr. John Winecoff was wedded to Miss Lou Laughlin, both of Cannonville, immediately after which they left for Danville, Va., where they will reside in the future.

At 10 o'clock Monday morning H W Tucker took unto himself a bride, when he was married to Miss Laura Holshouser. Both were of Cannonville. A wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride.

At the home of Rev. J Simpson Monday afternoon Mr. Worth Barnhardt, of No. 5 township, was married to Miss Alice Beaver, of Forest Hill. They will reside at Mr. Barnhardt's home in the country.

Got Red and Drew a Pistol. Salisbury World: This morning Thomas Payne a white tramp, was beating his way on a freight train out from Salisbury when his presence was discovered by a brakeman. He was at once and as the train moved on he drew his pistol on the brakeman. This was unloading. His action was reported and he was arrested by Officer Pace Mayor Cooghenour bound Payne over to court for carrying a concealed weapon. On failure to give bond he was put in jail.

We understand that previous to this difficulty the same man drew his pistol on Mrs. T E Nash at her home next to the covered bridge. He should be severely dealt with.

NO WOMAN'S SUPFRAGE.

The Board of Deacons of the First Presbyterian Church of Concord, N. C., in paying a last tribute to the memory of the late J W Barabead, wish to bear testimony to his Christian character, abiding piety, and usefulness in church and community.

His character, as seen by us among whom he spent the whole of his life, was conspicuous for its uprightness and integrity, being built upon the solid principles of truth, justice and honesty.

His piety, while not conspicuous, was pervading, directing and controlling even the smallest affairs of his everyday life.

It was a useful man—leaving his impress upon the community in which he lived, for the better, and contributing in no small degree to the progress and up-building of his town and county. He was a man upon whom can be passed this high eulogium—the world is better for his having lived!

As an officer of this church his discharge of the duties entrusted upon him was marked by the same zeal and sagacity that characterized him in the administration of his own interests.

Although in the death of Mr. Burkhead the church has lost an exemplary member and a useful and devoted officer, we can but say in humble submission: It is the Lord; let him do what seemeth him good.

We extend to his bereaved family our tenderest sympathy, commending them to the loving care of the God he loved and served.

D. G. CALDWELL, W. L. BELL, B. E. HARRIS, Com.

University of Virginia Burned. The main building of the University of Virginia at Charlottesville, was burned Sunday night. The loss is $250,000, and strange to say, there is an insurance on it all, of only $25,000. Two of the smaller buildings were blown up with dynamite to prevent the spread of the fire.

col. Temp Snell has $250.

Some time ago Temp Snell, Esq., of Greensboro, started to Raleigh. On the way he got a knee and a hip done up pretty considerably. He carried an accident policy and for this little irregularity the company sent him two $10 checks.

col. Dockery Wants to be Governor. Col. O H Dockery, who was here at the fair, is an avowed candidate for the Fusion nomination for Governor. He told Col. Olds that Spier Whitaker and Buck Kitchen tell him that he was really elected in 1888, but was swindled out of it. The Democratic campaign of that year was in charge of Whitaker and Kitchen.—Raleigh Observer.

If there was a theft it was perpetrated by those who have landed where they belong.

An Old Man Hurt. Mr. S A Field while working at the elevator in Mill No. 1 at the Odell factories Saturday afternoon came near being crushed to death by a falling box of empty quills that fell from the third story. The old gentleman is about 50 years of age and was frightened a great deal worse than hurt, although he received several bad bruises. He saw the falling box just in time to avoid being killed.

Death of Mrs. A. M. Waddell. Wilmington Star: The community will hear with regret of the death of Mrs. Ellen Savage, wife of Col. Alfred M. Waddell. The sad event occurred yesterday evening at 7 o'clock at the residence of the family in this city. Mrs. Waddell was the youngest daughter of the late Mr. Timothy Savage and sister of Mrs. Z Lattimer and Mr. Henry Savage of Wilmington and Col. Edward Savage of New York.

Why Not Cart it Off. It is a great pity that the town authorities do not stop the burning of trash on the Main streets of the town. It does not look well, neither does it create a very savory odor, besides the smoke and soot is very damaging to goods in the merchants' shelves. Why don't the town make every business man have a trash barrel or box, put his trash in it and then the town cart it off once, twice or three times a week? This procedure would give general satisfaction to everybody, it is thought.

Marvelous Results. From a letter written by Rev. J Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Fetzer's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

A CLEAR HEAD; good digestion; sound sleep; a fine appetite and a ripe old age, are some of the results of the use of Tutt's Liver Pills. A single dose will convince you of their wonderful effects and virtue.

A Known Fact. An absolute cure for sick headache, dyspepsia, malaria, sour stomach, dizziness, constipation, bilious fever, piles, torpid liver and all kindred diseases.

FIRE INSURANCE. When in need of Fire Insurance, call and see us, or write. We represent only first-class Home and Foreign companies. Respectfully, WOODHOUSE & HARRIS.

NO WOMAN'S SUPFRAGE.

The Proposition Voted Down in the South Carolina Convention by a Big Majority.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Oct. 29.—The convention today voted down the woman suffrage amendment by a most decisive vote of 121 to 26. The whole morning session was given up to the discussion of the question.

Geo. D Tillman made a great speech in advocacy of the amendment, claiming that the enfranchising women with a property qualification the white people could carry the elections by fair and honest methods and by no other way could they do it. He characterized the suffrage plan of Senator Tillman as a temporary fraudulent makeshift, which would not endure.

Westings and Reception. Mr. and Mrs. John Bost and Miss Callie Beard, arrived last night from Salisbury, and, after spending the night at the St. Cloud, left this morning for the home of the groom's father, Mr. Martin L Bost, in No. 9 township, accompanied by a large number of friends who went out to attend the marriage of Miss Lizzie Bost to Mr. S G Daniels, of Littleton, which occurred at 3 o'clock. After the ceremony this afternoon the bridal parties enjoyed an elegant reception to Mr. and Mrs. John Bost and Mr. and Mrs. Daniella.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniels will pass through the city tonight for Littleton, their future home.

Arrest of a Crank. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 28.—O B Maugum, a middle aged crank, who claims to come from the State of Washington, called at the Treasury Department and the interstate commerce commission today and presented a claim for large sums against the government.

At the former he demanded that Treasurer Morgan pay him $317,000,000 for loss of gold he said he sustained by the sinking of the steamer Victoria. At the interstate commerce commission office he reduced his claim to $100,000,000.

He also called at the British embassy but failed to see any one and threatened to see the President. He was taken into custody by the police.

Merchants put goods out this morning not only to show, but to see them blow down and keep the clerks busy.

The gobble of the Thanksgiving gobble is heard gobbling in the land. It is sweet music and we await the day with great anticipation.

The mandolin club gave an operatic concert Tuesday night some where near the St. Cloud hotel, which was greatly enjoyed by the many guests.

On next Monday the county commissioners will meet, and among other things to be considered is the election of a superintendent of the county chain gang.

Now they are telling it on Mr. Jas. F Dayvault. He, too, has surrendered, and after a very interesting event soon to occur in Rowan county he will go to keeping house in Concord. Good!

Mr. Anthony Bost, of No. 5 township, is moving into his home on East Depot street, where he, with his family, will reside in the future. THE STANDARD welcomes him to town.

The fact that agriculture is in process of gradual abandonment in Great Britain may account in part for the increase in immigration from that country, the number of arrivals since August aggregating 238,000. It evidently does not pay the British farmer to raise wheat on high-priced British land. The next problem is to make this land profitable in some other way. The decline in wheat acreage this year is 26 per cent. less than 1894. This indicates that upwards of 200,000 acres of land have failed of cultivation because agriculture no longer pays.

Meeting at Center. The protracted meeting at Center, in No 11 township, being conducted by Rev. W H L McClaurin, the pastor, is full of interest and much good work is being accomplished. Rev. W L Dawson, of Troutman's, Iredell county, is assisting in the meeting. Two services are held each day, at 4 and at 7 p. m. The meetings will continue through the week, and a cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

Has Not Congratulated Him. Congressman Linney was asked in Statesville last week if he had yet extended the right hand of fellowship to a certain prominent citizen of this State who has recently joined the fusionists, and whom it is known that Mr. Linney loves above his chief joy. The Congressman from the 8th replied that he had not and would not. Moreover, he said, that one occasion, he had the fusionists worse than if they had received 10,000 barbarians.—Statesville Landmark.

Here's To You. Editor J P Caldwell, of the Charlotte Observer, was nominated in a Salisbury restaurant for United States Senator. O F McKesson was the orator to second it. This beats John Lowlaw's nomination of Col. Boyd for governor—his was not even seconded.

At the Fair. Raleigh News and Observer: "A long Dominica rooster, hatched out by an old yeller hen of no particular percentage, got into a fight with one of the blue bred Jersey stags. The Dominica put in a neat upper cut on the incubator dude and floored him, saying at the same time, "take that, you d—n son of a stove."

CASTORIA for Infants and Children. MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Leiterman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine? Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons? Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons? Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician know of what it is composed? Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle? Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Picher. That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined? Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Picher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense? Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless? Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 25 cents, or one cent a dose? Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have untroubled rest? Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts. The fac-simile signature of Dr. S. H. Picher is on every wrapper. Children Cry for Picher's Castoria.
