

Meeting in Charlotte Wednesday—Portraits of Senator Vance and Col. Fisher Presented for Confederate Museum.

The fifth annual convention of the North Carolina division Daughters of the Confederacy was called to order Wednesday in the auditorium of the Presbyterian College in Charlotte by Mrs. "Stonewall" Jackson.

After the opening prayer by the Rev. G. T. Thompson, chaplain of the Mecklenburg U. C. V's, the whole audience sang Dixie which always trails a southern group.

Miss Julia Alexander who made a neat welcome address closing as follows: "And now in the name of our honored president, Mrs. Stonewall Jackson, in the name of the Stonewall Jackson, Chapter U. C. V., and of the Mecklenburg Camp of Confederate Veterans, I bid you welcome. To Charlotte and to Mecklenburg, to our hearts and homes, we gladly welcome you. May the days spent in our midst be the means of uniting us more closely in the work which is so dear to us, and may the names and brave deeds of our Southern soldiers be kept in perpetual remembrance."

Mrs. W. H. Overman of Salisbury said in response: "Daughters of the Confederacy, Noble Womanhood of Charlotte, Daughters of the Stonewall Jackson Chapter: "Today we stand on the mount of beatitudes, guests of Charlotte, Queen City of North Carolina, and one of the progressive towns of our fair South land; noted for its culture, refinement, wealth and Christian charity; guests of the Stonewall Jackson Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy, of Mrs. Jackson, your president, and companion of him who was the stonewall of the Confederacy."

She then enlivened General Jackson and Barringer whose consorts formed links of the past with the present and said in closing: "Tender and true memories are with us. We thank the Stonewall Jackson Chapter for its gracious invitation to be its guests, and with grateful hearts for their courtesy we pray that good may come to our division and every chapter be blessed by the reunion of social mingling, of hearts and hands and united interests."

Mr. Doritte then sang "The Southern Girl." At this stage Mrs. Vance accompanied by her grand daughter Miss Florence Martin arrived and were conducted to the stage amid cheers.

Mrs. Overman who presided introduced them to the audience. The convention then went into the business of the session. On roll call it was found that 28 of the 33 chapters in the state were represented.

Mrs. Armistead Jones' historical report was read by Mrs. Josephus Daniels of Raleigh in the absence of Mrs. Jones. The recording secretary's report showed eight new chapters and one child's chapter organized within the last year.

Mrs. Wm M Robbins presented a gavel from the Gettysburg battle ground.

The delegates reports were read which were indicative of life and progress in the cause.

Mrs. J. M. Tiernan, nee Miss Frances Fisher, arrived and was accorded an ovation.

The evening session was probably the most delightful period. It was the occasion of the presentation of the portraits of Zebulon B. Vance and Col. Charles Fisher to this division to be placed in the Confederate museum at Richmond.

Mrs. Bessie Henderson was commissioned by the Vance Portrait Committee to present the portrait which she did in beautiful terms. The painting is by Mr. Jacques Martin and was unveiled by Miss Florence Martin, the grand daughter of the distinguished subject.

Mrs. W. S. Parker made the reception speech in which she touched upon the great war government's record.

Hon. J. S. Henderson, commissioned by the Salisbury Chapter of the Southern Cross Children of the Confederacy, presented the portrait of Col. Fisher. He delivered a well prepared and somewhat lengthy review of the subject which will appear in next Sunday's Charlotte Observer.

At the conclusion of his speech little Misses Kathleen Klutz and Janet Crump, of Salisbury, unveiled the portrait.

MISS STONE IN GREAT DANGER.

Parsuit Abandoned Through Fear of Injury to Her.

The following dispatches give the drift of the situation with regard to Miss Stone with intimidation that the worst is withheld.

London, Oct. 12.—"The United States legation here," says a dispatch from Constantinople to The Daily Telegram, "has received information which it withholds of some expected developments in the Stone affair. On Tuesday it was supposed an attempt would be made to capture the bandits, but nothing has been heard since Monday, when Mr. Haskell reached Samakoff. He is not provided with funds but has been empowered to arrange the lowest terms."

"The attempts to capture the band have made the brigands shy of future traps, thus rendering negotiations difficult. Such tactics are severely criticised here. The brigands may in revenge kill their captive. Moreover, the fact that no money was produced on the first demand may cause the brigands to mutilate Miss Stone as a warning."

Constantinople, Oct. 11.—In compliance with a request from Washington the search by Ottoman troops for the abductors of Miss Stone, the American missionary, has been abandoned that being feared that the brigands would kill her should they be closely pursued.

Arrangements are now being made to pay the ransom demanded.

Boston, Mass. Oct. 11.—The misunderstanding existing in various parts of the country as indicated, especially in private advices received here as to the progress of the fund to ransom Miss Stone, the missionary, is considered to be of sufficient reason for the issuance of another appeal for funds by the clergymen who signed the first one. The idea is to impress upon the people of America the danger which still threatens Miss Stone. The appeal says: "Private advices received were to the effect that it was absolutely necessary to raise the full amount at once. The story of a 30 days' respite is absolutely discredited in the best informed circles."

Washington, Oct. 11.—The State Department has heard again by cable from United States Consul General Dickinson, and Secretary of Legation Spencer Eddy, touching the progress of the negotiations looking to the release of Miss Stone. None of the details was made public, however, and all that could be gathered as to the status of the case is that the conditions are by no means as reassuring as were expected yesterday.

Robbers in Rowan.

The Salisbury Sun says Mr. John Walton was held up by two men who seemed to be peddlers. They drew pistols and demanded his money. He had but 25 cents, which he parried with under such persuasion, when the villains made good their escape.

DAUGHTERS OF THE CONFEDERACY.

Thursdays Session—Mrs. Allison's Report—Days to Bestow Crosses of Honor.

The North Carolina Division Daughters of the Confederacy spent its second business day Thursday. Among the matters of interest noted in the Charlotte Observer we clip the following items:

"Mrs. J. P. Allison, of Concord, chairman of the Jefferson Davis monument committee, made a report saying that she had on hand collected this year, $472; that North Carolina stood fourth in the list of States that have contributed to this fund, having sent to the fund the sum of $1,186.85 not including the $472."

Mrs. Garland Jones, chairman of the Arlington dead committee, reported that now each state will be at liberty to claim its own dead from the Arlington cemetery, at Washington.

The dates selected for giving the crosses of honor are as follows:

July 21st, the date Col. Fisher fell at Manassas; Sept. 17th, the date that General Branch was killed at Antietam; October 19th, the battle at Cedar Creek, Virginia, where General Ransom was killed."

The general department in adopting the crosses of honor specified memorial day and the birthdays of President Davis and Gen. Lee but left the divisions to adopt such days in addition as they might elect and the above days are added by the division.

Mrs. Vance suggested the idea of getting up pamphlets concerning sketches of North Carolina generals and other statistical matters of which the state should be proud but which lie so much unnoticed and unappreciated. It was well received.

The convention finished its work today.

Was It Glanders?

The Yorkville Enquirer of Saturday states that at least two horses that were supposed to be diseased with glanders during the summer have recovered and are now sound. The people of the Tirzah section now have their doubts as to whether there has been any glanders in that section or if there has these cases have recovered which is generally supposed to be an impossibility. If such doubts have arisen there will be likely to be some unpleasant feelings in the neighborhood where several horses were condemned and shot and there is probability of some legal proceedings.—Gastonia News.

Bring Back That Lantern.

Mr. Haas, the boss man of the cement gang, says he is minus a good lantern this morning that he left to prevent the nocturnal work from making his mark in the world and of leaving his footprints on the sands of time. It was his favorite lamp which he lights in day time when looking closely for an honest man and he thinks the piffering an utter desecration.

Strict on Divorcement.

The Episcopal Convention in San Francisco on Wednesday passed in the house of Bishops by a vote of 37 to 21 a very pronounced measure on marriage that forbids the marriage of a divorced party even though it be the victim of infidelity. The matter must pass the house of deputies, however, to be concurred in.

THE SHREDDER IN MECKLENBURG.

A Machine that is Revolutionizing the Methods of Harvesting the Corn Crop.

The corn shredder is a new thing in this section of the country and is arousing almost as much interest among the farmers as did the appearance of the preliminary thresher, some years ago. Two of these shredders are being operated in Mecklenburg county, one by Mr. Robert Wallace, of Eastfield, and the other by Mr. Oscar Hunter, of Sharon. The shredders are run by steam power and are moved from farm to farm, like wheat threshers. Mr. Wallace's shredder is now at work on the farm of Mr. John Sims, about three miles north of the city, and its operations are being watched with much interest by the neighboring farmers.

The introduction of the shredder marks a new era in agricultural operations in Mecklenburg. The shredder takes the corn as it is cut from the field, shucks the ear and by means of a belt elevator sends the grain to the bins. The stalks, shucks and fodder are cut to shreds and by means of another elevator are conveyed to the barn loft. "The farmers who have had their corn cut by the shredder are delighted with the result. Every particle of the crop is saved and at the same time stored away, saving a great deal of labor, time and expense in the handling. The appearance of the shredder on the Mecklenburg farms means the passing of the old system of harvesting the corn crop.

Death of a Child.

The little 3 year old child of Mr. and Mrs. Stewart of South Carolina, died Wednesday afternoon at the home of its grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Shinn of No. 10 township. The remains were laid to rest at 4 o'clock this (Thursday) afternoon in St. Martin's cemetery.

Two Serious Accidents Yesterday at Greensboro.

Greensboro, Oct. 10.—Only one accident marred the pleasure of the day at the fair grounds. The trick bicycle rider, while preparing to ride down a stairway, fell from his wheel, struck the stairway and fell to the ground. He is probably fatally injured.

Sam Harvey, a cigarmaker of this city, stepped in front of a shifting engine on the track of the Southern railway here today and was instantly killed. He was intoxicated and had been taken off the track once. Harvey was about 35 years old and was unmarried.

Mr. Jasper Robinson Dead.

Mr. Jasper Robinson died Wednesday night at 9 p. m. of paralysis at the home of his brother who lives at Gibson's Mill. He was 54 years old and unmarried. The remains were laid to rest in the city cemetery at 4 p. m. this evening.

The Polley Was Not Dead.

Goldsboro, N. C., Oct. 8.—Special.—At the continued solicitation of Mr. Thomas McGee the heirs of the late N. H. Gurley finally produced a policy on his life for $1,000, which proved to be worth far more than its weight in gold. In fact, it is worth its face value in gold. Mr. McGee recollecting having insured the life of Mr. Gurley for $1,000 in the year 1892, and he also knew that Mr. Gurley paid the premiums on that policy for some six or seven years, and thought possibly that the extended feature would cover the period of his death. When the agent mentioned the matter to the heirs they were utterly indifferent and said that the policy was worthless, but finally, after being importuned to do so, they brought the policy to Mr. McGee for inspection, and he made the discovery that puts the heirs of Mr. Gurley in possession of $1,000 in cash, something they never dreamed of. The time of the extended insurance was for five years and one hundred and thirty days, while the death of Mr. Gurley occurred in a little less than four years from the payment of the last premium. It might pay other families to look over papers of deceased relatives. There may be money in them.

Two Peach Crops This Year.

Mr. D. H. Wilkinson, of Glass, brought us samples Thursday of fruit from his many crop peach tree. The tree bore only two crops this year but the first crop was finer than usual. It will be remembered by Standard readers that the tree bore three crops last year.

Hetty Green Yet a Woman.

Mrs. Hetty Green, the richest woman in America, is tenderly nursing her stricken husband, it appears, at his summer home in Bellows Falls, Vt. The two have not always lived in harmony, we believe, but now that Mr. Green is ill, and "there is need of woman's care," his wife is all devotion to him. So the pursuit of the dollar is not everything to Mrs. Green, after all. It is gratifying to be able to note the development.—Daily Record.

MAGISTRATES COURT.

White Man and Negro Tried—Both Bad Characters.

Esquire C. A. Pitts' time was consumed this morning in the trial of Levi Honeycutt, a white man for abandoning his wife and failing to furnish an adequate supply of food and clothing for his children, also in the trial of John Davis for breaking into Mr. Lock Barnes residence of No. 1 township.

Levi Honeycutt has been living with his family at the Cannon Mills for the last two years up to Sept. 12th, but all that time he was wanted in Stanly county charged with an attempt to rape a highly respected woman near Albemarle and a diligent search had been made for him in this and other counties, until on that stated day when he was arrested in his home by deputy sheriff. He was allowed to go into the back room for his hat and made his escape and has been free until Thursday evening when he was arrested on the Jessie Misenheimer plantation on the warrant issued by his wife. In default of a bond he was sent to jail.

Last Friday while Mr. Lock Barnes and his family were here attending the circus, John Davis, a negro considered a dangerous character, broke into his residence and stole a razor, 3 suits of clothes, 2 shirts and a hat. He was arrested Thursday night by deputies Robinson and Peck and in default of bond he was also sent to jail.—Daily of 11th.

One Man Tries to Rob a Train.

Between Columbia and Charleston on the Southern a robber secured $10,000 about 18 months ago. On the 10th the trick was tried again but the robber was discovered between the smoker and the express. With a revolver drawn on the train men who had him at bay he stopped the train and escaped. Bartow Warren came near conviction for the former crime and the train men recognized him as the would-be robber.

Shamrock to Stay on This Side.

New York, Oct. 8.—It is settled that the Shamrock II is to stay in American waters this winter and next summer she will probably be seen in races on Long Island sound and elsewhere. Sir Thomas Lipton said today that the yacht would be laid up at Erin Basin and not at New London as originally intended. The tall steel mast will be taken out and all her other spars taken on shore and stored for the winter.

Most Loving Thing on Earth.

An angel was sent down from heaven one day to bring back the most beautiful thing on earth. He hunted long and carefully, saw a bed of full blown American Beauty roses, lovely beyond compare, and he gathered an armful and started to return to his home above.

As he soared into the air he saw a baby's smile, and filled by rapturous admiration at the sight, returned to take it, too. By its side he discovered a mother's love, and with all three in his arms, he mounted to the place beyond the skies.

Just outside the pearly gates the spirit paused for a moment and, lo! the roses had withered and were dead, the baby's smile had vanished, but, strong and faithful and serenely beautiful as ever, the mother's love remained; and he cast the others aside and took this and laid it at the feet of his Master as the most lovely and lasting thing on earth.—Sam Jones.

Concord has a Rain-tree.

There is a species of tree known to science as the rain-tree. It is indigenous to the tropical regions of America and has been found to be a desirable tree for shade in barren salt-impregnated soils as in India. It is essentially different from our elm but it seems the latter sometimes takes its habits. We have a rain-tree in our midst. If the pedestrian will observe closely the elm tree on the side walk immediately in front of the main entrance to Mr. J. W. Cannon's residence he will see that there is a sprinkling on the cement walk. It may be felt on the hands and probably seen by the keener eyes. It is a real rain-tree. Whether it has lately adopted this habit is not known as it might have done the same for its whole existence but the opportunities to detect it were not so good as that of the cement sidewalk.

Oiden Time One Cent.

Esq. D. W. Honeycutt, of No. 7 township, was in our office today (Saturday) on pleasant business and showed us a copper 1-cent coin bearing date of 1798. This gets back to the days of small things in Uncle Sam's domain, as at that period we used largely the Spanish coin.

By the way, Mr. Honeycutt is now well into his 81st year and by his appearance promises to reach the point of a contented life. It is intensely interesting to converse with bright minds of so many years of accumulated wisdom.

She Was the Hit of the Convention.

We are pleased to learn that little Miss Julia Barrow was the hit of the convention of the Daughters of the Confederacy at Charlotte. She was led by Mrs. Overman and introduced to the audience with a sketch of the John Pifer Young Chapter Children of the Confederacy which she represented and whose report she then read with clear deliberateness that caught the audience. The applause was so spontaneous that but for an unusual amount of nerve she possesses she would have been embarrassed. At the close of the report she was personally introduced to Mrs. Jackson, Mrs. Vance and other noted characters, manifesting a clear conception of that which rendered these ladies so famous.

The body with a rising unanimous vote accepted her report and manifested its delight at her achievement.

A Kansas Bank Robbed.

Beatrice, Neb., Oct. 11.—News which reached here today told of the robbery of the bank at Narja, Kan., 40 miles southwest, some time last night. Expert safe blowers used dynamite on the steel safe and secured about $15,000 in cash. Later the reports are that the bloodhounds have the trail of the cracksmen and are far out in the country with a large posse in pursuit.
