THANKFULNESS EXPRESSED.

Fraternal greetings from Central M. E. to St. James Church.

At the morning session in St. James church on Sunday, the 2nd, the pastor of Central M. E. church, Rev. J. A. B. Fry, read the following kindly and appreciable resolutions:

"Whereas, our brethren of the St. James E. L. church, of Concord, have, with fraternal courtesy, extended to the congregation of Central M. E. Church South the great privilege of worshipping in their church whilst the Central church was undergoing repairs, and whereas the Methodist have greatly enjoyed this privilege and have realized, 'how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell in unity,' thus exhibiting to the world that there can be unity and good fellowship among brethren 'despite variety and contrariety of views.' We, the board of stewards of Central church, both officially and individually, do unanimously resolve,

"1. That we hereby tender our sincere thanks to the congregation of St. James E. L. church for their kindness and do assure them that we will gratefully remember it and will ever pray that peace be within thy walls and prosperity within thy palaces. For our companions and brethren's sakes we can now say peace be within thee."

"2. That Rev. J. A. B. Fry present the above."

HANGED IN DAYLIGHT.

A Negro Strung Up in the Court House Yard in a Kentucky Town.

Nicholasville, Ky., Feb. 6.—Tom Brown, a negro under arrest on the charge of having assaulted Miss Emma Powell yesterday, was hanged in the court house yard today by a mob. Early today a mob surrounded the jail where Brown was confined and demanded the prisoner. The mob was finally placated by the statement from the officers that the prisoner would be taken before Miss Powell for identification. The officers were permitted to take the prisoner to the young woman's home, where she at once identified him.

On the way back to the jail the mob suddenly closed in and secured the prisoner. Hurrying him to the court house yard, he was soon dangling from a tree limb. Miss Powell is 16 years of age and was on her way home from school when the negro sprang out from the roadside and seized her. She reached home finally in a dazed condition and officers later captured the negro. A mob made an unsuccessful attempt to storm the jail last night.

"Hoax—"I tell you a man can't do anything without money," Joak—"Oh yes; he can get into debt."

A BEAUTIFUL WEDDING.

R. HANSEL THOMAS and MISS NETTIE ALLEN UNITED.

St. James Church the Scene of the Lovely Event—Bride is Given Away by Her Little Brother—Profusion of Bridal Presents—The Happy Couple Go South.

St. James church was the scene of a most charming nuptial event on Wednesday, the 5th inst. At 6:45 o'clock Mr. Hansel Thomas and Miss Nettie Allen pledged mutual fidelity for life at the hymenal altar.

The altar railing was moved back to receive the attendants, who formed a picture of beauty with background of ferns and palms and snow-white fabric. The recess and choir railing were draped in white.

Miss Mary Louis Harris presided and sent forth the gentle, deep tones of the splendid pipe organ.

Miss Dora Sater sang a most beautiful and appropriate solo, expressive of the bride's joy and confidence in the groom which was followed by the gladly thrilling tones of the wedding march.

The ushers, Messrs. Joe Hill and Wade Barrier came up the side aisles, the former to the left and the latter to the right, and crossing took their stands near the altar.

Little Miss Helen Archey approached from the center, carrying the ring on a handsome cushion. Miss Minnie Allen then approached from the center aisle and was followed by the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Master Sidney Edward Allen, who gave her to the groom, coming from the vestry room leaning on the arm of his best man, Mr. Henry Shelton.

Bishop Edward Rothbauer met the bridal pair and calling the audience to their feet read the very simple but solemn and impressive service of the Moravian church.

At the proper time Miss Helen Archey gave the ring to the groom's best man who passed it to the officiating clergyman. He presented it to the groom, who placed it upon the ungloved hand of the bride saying, "With this ring I do thee wed."

After the ceremony the bride and groom passed out by the center aisle, followed by Master Sidney Allen and Miss Helen Archey. Mr. Henry Shelton, escorted Miss Minnie Allen, the maid of honor, followed by Miss Ada Allen, first bride's maid, and her escort, Mr. D. E. Allen. The other attendants followed by couples in the reverse order of entering.

The bride was gowned in white Duchesse satin and real lace and chignon and wore a bridal veil caught up with diamond pins. She carried a shower bouquet of bride roses and maiden hair ferns.

The bride's maids wore gowns of white tulle and lace and each bore a bouquet of bride roses and asparagus ferns.

The gentlemen wore full dress suits. The happy couple repaired to the home of the bride where they received the congratulations of many friends together with their parting greetings as they left to board train No. 7 for a bridal tour in the South.

The bride was the recipient of a profusion of handsome, costly and valuable presents, such as cut glass; china; wedge wood; silver ware, with gold lining, from friends, and a beautiful hand painted chop dish from her sister, Miss Ada Allen, her own artistic handiwork; a beautiful suite of furniture from the groom's parents and a desirable building lot in Winston-Salem from her mother.

The bride is the second daughter of Mrs. Laura Allen, intelligent, accomplished and winning and was a most worthy object of wooing by the groom, who is a merchant broker of the Twin City, the son of Col. and Mrs. James Thomas of Winston-Salem.

FEARFUL EXPLOSION IN CHICAGO.

Twelve People Blown to Death by Mysterious Explosion—Probably From Gas Main—Two Buildings Blown to Atoms and Street Car Thrown Off the Track.

Thirteen lives were lost and many were injured by a mysterious explosion in Chicago on the 5th. The family of Otto Trostle, consisting of himself and wife and six children and a nephew, Fred Trostle, 23 years old, a young lady domestic and three others were blown away or crushed beneath the falling building.

Two buildings were demolished and a street car was thrown off the track, while glass was broken in the community.

There is no certainty as to the cause but the most plausible theory is that there was a gas leak that became ignited.

Only one body, that of little Lena Trostle, was found at the writing of the dispatch. It is believed that the others are beneath the burnt debris.

M. C. DAVIS KILLED. Slayer of Mr. Jno. I. Odell Courts Death and Wins—Shot Down by Penitentiary Guard at Bakersville.

It will be remembered that about two years ago M. C. Davis, a mill operative at Bessemer, in a fit of madness, killed Mr. John L. Odell, nephew of our townsman, Mr. J. M. Odell. Davis was sent to the penitentiary for a term of 30 years.

The force is being worked just below Bakersville in Mitchell county on the Ohio river and Charleston railroad.

Davis has been manifesting something of the old elephant insubordination and had threatened to kill the son of Maj. McIver for threatening to report him for punishment for indolence at work.

On the morning of the 5th he refused to go to work and Superintendent McIver sent a negro to bring him to his office where he hoped to wield a reasonable influence over him. When the negro came to lead him he caught around him and slipping a knife out of his sleeve, ripped the negro so that his lung protruded from the wound.

Davis then made for the stockade gate holding everybody at bay by slashing with his knife. He got out of the gate and was making his way when a guardman was ordered to fire. Davis fell with his heart punctured with buckshot and died instantly.

This ends a satanic monster that, to all human appearances, should have been taken off before he was allowed to do violence to others.

MISS MARY WATSON DEAD. Falls Asleep Today at 11:15 a. m.—Was Loved in Concord.

The sad intelligence came that Miss Mary Watson died today (Friday) at 11:15 o'clock at her home in Salisbury.

Her condition has been critical in the extreme for several days, but her improvement was hoped and prayed for, that her beautiful young life might be spared.

All were doomed to sad disappointment while her gain was subserved.

Miss Watson was the daughter of Clerk of the Court, W. G. Watson, and was the sister of Mrs. J. E. Smoot. She had visited Concord and had won many friends whose hearts will be pained at this stroke.

Miss Watson was a member of the First Presbyterian church of Salisbury.

THESE WIRE'S CROSSED.

Postal Telegraph and Western Union in a Fight in Pacific Waters.

The following has been handed us with request to publish. It is the Postal's side of the controversy which, if correctly stated, and we know nothing to the contrary, seems quite magnanimous.

The Postal Telegraph is laying a submarine cable from California to the Philippines, 8,000 miles, at a cost of $12,000,000, without subsidy or guarantee of any kind.

The Western Union is asking Government to lay a cable government expense for the Government to prevent the Postal from carrying out the work, and is also asking the benefit of the Western Union.

The Postal Telegraph (Commercial Cable Company) has agreed in writing with the Government to sell its cable to the Government, at any time, at the cable's appraised valuation.

If the cable does not work, or is a bad venture, the Government need not take it. The Company takes all the risk, and gives the Government all the chance of gain.

The Company can lay this cable as cheaply and as well and as successfully as any cable company in the world. The Company believes it can make the cable succeed commercially, and is entirely willing that the Government shall have the right to take it, at its appraised valuation, whenever the Government wants it, for any reasons, political, or governmental or commercial.

Is it not best for the United States Government to let the Postal do the work and put its money and take all the risk of the cable not working, all the risk of the cable not paying, laid by the best expert cable talent in the world, laid economically, laid skillfully, laid to secure the greatest efficiency, and then if the cable succeeds for the Government to take it at its appraised valuation?

Wouldn't Have a Man Until They Could Get one. Kalamazoo, Mich., Feb. 7.—By the marriage of Miss Mabel Clare Mills, of this city, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. A. J. Mills, to Edmond W. Chase, a young business man, the Tailors' Club, losses its president and prime mover.

The organization was formed three years ago by twenty society girls of the city, who decided to play pedro all alone and do without the attention of men. Six of the members, however already married, and the others have made merry at their expense. Miss Mills's loss will be a hard blow, and the club may now go to pieces. Miss Mills invited all the members of the club to act as bridesmaids at the ceremony, which was one of the most elaborate events in Kalamazoo for several years.

A Convincing Answer. "I hobbled into Mr. Blackmon's drug store one evening," says Wesley Nelson, of Hamilton, Ga., "and he asked me to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm for rheumatism with which I had suffered for a long time, I told him I had no faith in any medicine as they all failed. He said, 'Well if Chamberlain's Pain Balm does not help you, you need not pay for it.' I took a bottle of it home and used it according to the directions and in one week I was cured, and have not since been troubled with rheumatism." Sold by M. L. Marsh's Drug Store.

PRESIDENTS SON SERIOUSLY ILL.

Has Pneumonia at Groton College—The Charleston Trip May Be Abandoned.

Theodore Roosevelt, Jr., is seriously ill of acute pneumonia at Groton College, Mass.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt were to have started to Charleston Monday but Mrs. Roosevelt will be at the bedside of her son and unless symptoms are somewhat assuring the President will cancel the engagement.

It is not definitely stated that there is local cause but there are several cases beside that of young Roosevelt and the students have stamped for home and the school is suspended for two weeks.

Hicks says Bad Weather. Rev. Irl R. Hicks, the long range weather prophet, predicts unpleasant, wintry weather for February and March. He advises farmers to exercise all reasonable and possible precautions for the sheltering and feeding of live stock, and suggests that wise planning for outdoor work should be done. He believes that the months of April, May and June will be propitious above the average for agricultural and outdoor vocations.—Anderson Intelligencer.

LIFE IN EVERY DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS IS MADE UP OF SUCCESS AND FAILURE.

It is said that the old-time tradition that women must wait for amatorial proposal is to be relegated to the attic. A western movement by a St. Louis clergyman favors proposal by women. Many women support themselves and a husband, and if a woman is able to support a husband, she should certainly have something to say, in fact everything to say, in the selection of one.—Anderson Intelligencer.

The Last Heard of It. "My little boy took the croup one night and soon grew so bad you could hear him breathe all over the house," says F. D. Reynolds, Mansfield, O. "We feared he would die, but a few doses of One Minute Cough Cure quickly relieved him and he went to sleep. That's the last we heard of the croup. Now isn't a cough cure like that valuable?" One Minute Cough Cure is absolutely safe and acts immediately. For coughs, colds, croup, grip, bronchitis and all other throat and lung troubles it is a certain cure. Very pleasant to take. The little ones like it.—Gibson Drug Store.

How to Encourage People.

It is great to know how to administer encouragement wisely. Perhaps the best you can do for anyone who is in perplexity and difficulty is to manifest your own faith in him. The secret of discouragement is self distrust. The man thinks that he has done all he can, or fears that he will fail. The friend who shows that he believes in him sends him away with a new inspiration and confidence. It is a mistake to seek to encourage people by under-rating their trials. You say to your friend: "Oh, that is nothing at all; you can do that easily enough," and you have made his burden heavier. The difficulty is a real one to him. You cannot help him until you take his point of view and see how hard the conditions are in his conception of them. Then you encourage him, and you do it by telling him that you understand the difficulty, but that you believe that he can conquer it. Then you have appealed to the man with the man. He knows that some one understands him, and the next time you meet him he will say by his glowing face: "I thank you! It was hard work, but I did it because you believed in me, and that made me believe in myself."—Exchange.

Forty Eight Counties. The North Carolina Baptist, published in Fayetteville, has been studying the temperance situation in North Carolina for a number of years. It is authority for the statement that there are forty-eight counties in the State that have no saloons.

Don't be misled by a surprising statement to many who think lightly of the cause of temperance; but it shows that the temperance sentiment is strong in the State, and there is good ground for hoping that at no distant day North Carolina will be measurably freed from the curse of the liquor traffic.—The Common Wealth.
