Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hoisting Pencil Pusher.

The hunting party scared to death two rabbits Friday.

Mr. Robert. Coble, of Forest Hill rode the Pythian goat the second time, Friday night. He said it was a "jiner."

One man has proposed to contribute $25 to a public library. The dead beats get more than that out of the Standard.

Mr. T. L. Ross, of China Grove, is quite sick. Mr. Ross has many friends here, who will be sorry to hear of his illness.

A Salisbury hog was killed—it was a year old—and to give an idea of its weight one ham weighed 2 pounds and 10 ounces

A young man, a clerk, who is polite and obliging, was crushed to the earth while assisting a 200 pound country lassie from a buggy on Friday.

There will be a change in hotel circles in Salisbury February 1. Mr. P. A. Frecks, the owner of the Mt. Vernon, has leased it to Capt. John Bryant, of Asheville.

Contractor A. H. Propst was in the city looking after the work he has in hand here. He says the Xmas edition of the The Ledger was a daisy.—Gaffney (S. C.) Ledger.

Dr. W. H. Wakefield, of Charlotte, will be in Concord at the Mt. Concord on Friday, February 1st, for one day. Practice limited to eye, ear, nose and throat.

Dr. A. H. Dreher has returned from a visit to Wilmington, and went out to his home in Mt. Pleasant. He has not decided upon a return since returning from South Carolina.

The impression seems to be that the disreputable law, unamended, does not allow anyone to bring liquor into the State. Such is not the case, however. As much as a single gallon can be brought in at a time.—Gaffney (S. C.) Ledger.

Says the Salisbury Herald: Miss Lula Esperman, of Barium Springs who is attending school at Buena Vista, Va., spent last night here and left for her home this morning in answer to a telegram announcing the serious sickness of her father, Rev. J. H. Esperman.

The Standard knows his many friends in Concord will be pained to hear of the continued weakness of the good old Mr. V. N. Mitchell. This winter has gone hard with him, and seldom has he been seen in Concord. We hope as the winter passes away his strength will increase and that we may yet see him in town.

Mr. Caleb Pitts, who is Register Weddington's right bower, does not think that Marion Butler is the dictator of the Legislature. He says that there are many Populists who think Mr. Butler needs to have a collar put on him to hold him in check, and for that reason he can not have his way. Phew! Mr. Butler is the central planet around which the Populistic people get their wisdom. Whatever he thinks—the others think.

Fourteen barrels of whiskey from the rectifying establishment of Mr. D. L. Arey, and seven barrels from the distillery of Mr. T. D. Roseman, were seized yesterday afternoon by Deputy Collector H. P. Watson and Revenue Officers Means and Mebane. The seizures were made by direction of the Revenue Department for alleged irregularities. The whiskey was stored in the cellar of Bingham & Co's store last night.—Salisbury Herald.

Continued Pounding.

The Rev. B. F. Davis, on the 1st, day of January, 1895, by the members of the New Gilead Reformed church. Or rather the pounding began on that day and has been continued ever since, until pounds of pork, sausage, sour-kraut, lard, sweet and Irish potatoes, shelled corn, live chickens, butter, groceries, eggs, etc., and cash have found their way to the parsonage, and still the good word is that there is more to follow. For that which has been received and for what is to come, brother Davis would heartily thank the kind donors. Coming so near the Christmas-tide when extra drain had been made upon the parson's pocket-book, this kindly remembrance is doubly appreciated both on account of the intrinsic value of the gifts and more especially as a token of kindly regard on the part of those amongst whom the Lord has called the brother to labor.

Nor is this the only time that our brother and family have been remembered since he came into our midst some eight months ago. Individual members of both congregations have repeatedly shown their kindly regard by contributing the necessaries of life. And on Xmas he members of the Trinity (Concord) congregation left at the parsonage an easy rocker for the use of the inmates, besides laying on two previous occasions visited the parsonage in a body and pounded the inmates, thus supplying them with much that was useful. All of which hath caused joy in the hearts of those so kindly remembered and no doubt more joy in the hearts of the kind donors; for "it is more blessed to give than to receive."
