For sale—call on R A Brown.

Our 20c carpet has arrived.—The Racket. 3t

Money to loan on real estate, W G. 1f

The beautiful fell in glorious was Wednesday evening.

Misses Sterling silver set rings at Correll's Jewelry store. 2

Magie poultry food at Sims & Alexander's. Everybody uses it.

Mrs. D A Caldwell is quite sick with grip, at her home on Spring street.

Of Prof. Ford, the Yonkers Statesman says: "A matter of pathos and humor."

Tickets for the lecture of Prof. Ford are now on sale at Gibson's Drug store.

Rev. M G G Scherer, of St. James Lutheran church, is quite sick. It is possibly the grip.

Ritz is putting up new scenery in the Gibson Hall. The stage is being overhauled.

Rev. B S McKenzie, who has been lecturing in New York, has received and accepted a call to Hillsboro, N C.

A petition asking for the increase in the rate of taxation in Concord, has been introduced by Mr. Hileman.

We have just received the hand made line of fine French and plain gaudies in town—Sims & Alexander.

All wool sample carpet just received. Only 20c per yard.—The Racket. 4t.

Prof. S T Ford will be here Friday and Saturday night. This is a treat in store for Concord. Secure your tickets.

Korner writes today. He's on changes. In fact he has changed the day of writing—all is change, except pocket change.

Mr. J Whit Burkhead, secretary and treasurer of the Cabarrus Cotton Mills, is very sick at his home south of Concord.

If the carrier misses you, let it be known at this office. We have no other way of finding out oversights of carriers except through you.

The prohibition bill introduced by request of the W. C. T. U, has been unfavorably reported by the committee to which it was referred.

Mr. R L Keesler and Misses Addie Patterson and Bertie Quantz have returned from Danville, Va., where they attended the marriage of Capt. E. I. Patterson.

The residence of Judge Bryan, at Newbern, was nearly destroyed by fire on Wednesday. The loss to the building is about $5,000 and to the furniture $1,500.

The unheard of low prices of 20c per yard for all wool carpet is the result of the auction and not jealous cut at competition. We got it at 15c and can afford to sell it at 20c.—The Racket. 5t.

The wife of a Mr. Rogers, near Salisbury, and daughter of Mr. Caleb Fisher, of No. 3, Cabarrus, died Tuesday. Her remains were buried at Trinity Lutheran church, No. 4, on Wednesday.

The Charlotte News of Wednesday says: Mr. Jas. N Brown, an old veteran, who fought in the Mexican and subsequent wars, and who has been a true blue Democrat through thick and thin, is here today. Mr. Brown is outside of Concord today for the first time in 20 years. He is a type of the gallant old Southerners of whom there is now but too few left.

THE RUSH OF HUMANITY.

People Who Travel, as Seen by Our Reporter.

—Lawyer W M Smith is in Raleigh.

—Rev. J C Davis is visiting at his old home, Athens, Ga.

—S A Strauss, a frequent visitor and shoe drummer, is in the city.

—Miss Minnie Templeton, of Mooresville, is visiting Miss Mary Reed.

Mr. Hileman introduced a bill Wednesday asking a pension for Mr. Joseph W Blume, of Cabarrus.

—Rev. B S McKenzie, of New York, will preach at All Saints' Episcopal church Sunday morning and night.

Quite a lot of campers from a distance took up quarters in the rear of Mr. Dayvault's store Wednesday night. Mr. Dayvault showed them lots of courtesies, enough to make them comfortable.

Mr. Sandy Myers, of No. 11, whose affliction with paralysis has been noted in these columns, died Wednesday morning. Mr. Myers was a quiet citizen, who attended to his own affairs. For a long time he was mail-carrier on Flowe's store route.

Mr. Jno. W Wadsworth, of Charlotte, whose serious illness has been noted in this paper, and father of Mr. Jno. G Wadsworth, of this place, is greatly improved. This will be glad news to his many friends in Concord.

It will come to pass that all the churches will adopt the plan of Fryon Street Methodist Church at Charlotte in the matter of separate communion cups for each member. The teachings of medical science require this.—Wilmington Messenger.

Free Pill.

Send your address to H E Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of Constipation and Sick Headache. For Malaria and Liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c per box. Sold at Fetzer's Drug store.

Desire for a Full Publication.

We are requested by the chairman of the Graded School Board to state that he would like for the full proceedings of the late unpleasantness to be published.

The affair was not of the Standard's making and we regret that all is not peace. Our advertising space is open for any legitimate purposes at the usual rate of charges.

All Free.

Those who have used Dr. King's New Discovery know its value and those who have not, now have the opportunity to try it free. Call on the advertised Druggist and get trial bottle free. WEBSTER'S INTERNATIONAL DICTIONARY
Entirely New. A Great Educator.
Successor of the "Unabridged."
Standard of the U. S. Gov't Printing Office, the U. S. Supreme Court and of nearly all the Schoolbooks.
Warmly commended by every State Superintendent of Schools, and other Educators almost without number.

A College President writes: "For a case with which the eye finds the word sought, for accuracy of definition, for effective methods in indicating pronunciation, for terse yet comprehensive statements of facts, and for practical use as a working dictionary, Webster's International exceeds any other single volume."

The One Great Standard Authority, So writes Hon. D. J. Brewer, Justice U. S. Supreme Court.
