

It May do as Much For You

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had Severe Kidney troubles for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called Kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began the use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure all Kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price 50c for large bottle at Dezer's Drug store.

HERNEY MEN.

She—"What made love go blind?"
He—"Concave in his eyes, I guess."

She—"And that's why Niagara has many a broken, but healed couple, perhaps?"—Truth.

Tommy Lingo—"So far had her eyes and all bones her last night, and I was peering through the key-hole looking at them when she came along and stopped me."

Willie Sloman—"What did she do?"
Tommy Lingo—"She took a look."

—The Boy.

The woman who objects to her husband smoking usually keeps quiet about it and she has one—Spare Moments.

"What is the correct form for the opening sentence of a marriage license when an heiress captures an impoverished nobleman?" he asked.
"I give it up," she replied.

"Know all men by these cash presents?"—Chicago Post.

"And you say your father was wounded in the war?"
"Yes, sir."

"Was he shot in the back?"
"No, sir; in the stomach!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Down in Texas it is considered bad form to drink a friend who is unarmable.—Albany Argus.

Haverly—"Do you think there is any chance of the detective catching the burglar who broke into your house?"
Austen—"No, not much. They only have a faint clue."

Haverly—"What a pity!"
Austen—"The burglar left behind him a photograph of his wife, with his name and address on it."—New York Her Id.

It Was Paid For.

Poet—"What did you do with my little poem on Eternity?"
Editor—"Published it and here is a check for $4.20."

Poet—"Why, really—I—"
Editor—"No thanks, please. Our foreman tacked it onto a paid obituary and we received twenty cents a line for it and the full amount is turned over to you."

How 'Tis in the Heart:
"Do you like the music of the billows?"
"Can't say I do, because I'm not much struck on wave notes."

Mrs. Judge Settle Dead.

GREENSBORO, March 4—The many friends of Mrs. Mary Settle, relict of the late Judge Thomas Settle, were greatly shocked yesterday to hear of her unexpected death at half past 4 yesterday morning at her home on Asheboro street. Mrs. Settle retired Saturday night apparently in her usual good health, but about 2 o'clock was noticed to be breathing badly. Medical aid was summoned but was unavailing.

That self-reliance cannot be imparted; it must be developed.

THIS IS FOR YOU!

We have just bought from one of the largest clothing manufacturers in Philadelphia, their entire winter stock of Boys Knee pants suits in cashmeres and chevrets. We cleaned up every winter suit they had and we didn't pay more than half the regular price.

This deal gives us a big drive in Boys suits and we are giving our customers the full benefit of it. There is not a shoddy suit in the whole lot. We are satisfied with the smallest profit and therefore put this splendid lot of boys suits on sale at $1.25 for the Meltons, and $2.50 for the Cassimeres and Chevrets. These suits are worth from $3.50 to $4.00. We make a level price of $2.50 on them and let them go to do the people good. Sizes run from 6 to 14.

ALSO FOR MEN

We are just now getting an invoice of clothing that was shipped in October, and lost on the way. Of course we would not receive it at this late day. The matter was compromised with the railroad, by the shipping at 50 cents on the dollar and now these goods come to us at that rate.

We shall give the people the advantage of this. If you want a suit don't miss it.

FOR LADIES:—A big invoice of Padan Peacher's Fine shoes in regular button, Brokers and Oxford's ties, Prince Albert Oxford's, Madras and Jubets, in black and tan. All their finest goods, made to retail at from 2 to 3 dollars.

We swept in their whole lot of floor goods, and put them on sale at $1.25 and $1.50.

A lot of trunks and traveling bags at carter prices.

YOU RUN NO RISK

When you buy a Piano or Organ from Ludden & Bates, but are not so fully sure of getting your money's worth; every instrument we sell is of an old and reliable make, which has stood the test of years and is as standard as Gold dollars.

We don't sell a $600 for $250. Not yet. But we do sell a Piano for $250 worth every dollar of the two hundred and fifty which it costs.

But say! just take a look at the 600 one. Catalogue free on application.
