Painted Up and Put in Shape! By Our Hustling Pencil Pusher.

Greensboro is to have a show on the 25th.

Mr. C F Walter has moved his place of residence from West to East Depot street.

Mr. Noah Correll, who has been quite ill and confined to his room for some time, is better—able to be out.

Messrs. Charles Russell and Mack Suther returned this morning from the Yackin river, where they have been fishing.

The Kennebec ice handled by R Will Johnson is the best. Delivered free in any part of the city at all times. Send in your orders now.

If the tax list takers will send the Standard their appointments we will publish them for the benefit of the people.

Messrs Giles T Crowell and guest, Dr. McInnis, W G Means and J C Wadsworth have gone to the fishery in Montgomery county. They will return Friday or Saturday.

Rev. E A Plyler, of the M. P. Church, a native of Stanly county, now located at Orleans, Lincoln county, N. C., was in this section visiting home folks and transacting business. The Standard acknowledges a pleasant call from Rev. Plyler.

Mr. W P Houseal, business manager and owner of the Lutheran Visitor, at Newberry, S. C., being in attendance upon Synod, passed through Concord Tuesday enroute to St. John's where he goes to visit his sister, Mrs. Rev. J Q Wertz.

The autograph letters testifying to cures made by Ayer's Sarsaparilla and other preparations are kept on file at the J C Ayers Co.'s office Lowell, Mass. They are from all over the world and are cheerfully shown to anyone desirous of seeing them.

For every variety and phase of the many diseases which attack the air-passages of the throat and lungs, Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will be found a specific. Its anodyne and expectorant qualities are promptly realized, and it is always ready for use.

Mr. J M Woodside had an egg boiled for his breakfast yesterday. On opening it he found a black spot in it. He took it to Burwell & Dunn's and "Dr." Wearn said the egg had strychnine in it. Charlotte Observer.—[Mr. Woodside was once an ice dealer in and resident of this city.]

The Standard has received a very handsome invitation card to the 44th Annual Commencement of Horner Military School. These exercises occur May 31st. The annual address is by Editor Josephus Daniels, of Raleigh. Subject: "Taking an Ideal."

W W Reid and Calvin Reid, Esq., returned from Baltimore last night where the latter has been under the treatment of the celebrated oculist, Dr. J J Chisholm. A cataract, which threatened to destroy the sight of his left eye was successfully removed, and we are glad to learn that his sight will be restored.—Salisbury Herald.

A Romance.
Mr. Eugene P Semple, of Columbus, S. C., arrived in the city Tuesday night. He came with a purpose—that being to marry—and this morning on the southbound vestibule arrived Miss Cynthia May, of Ohio, the lady to whom he was married this (Wednesday) afternoon at Sunderland Hall, in the presence of the school and Mrs. May's niece, who is one of the teachers. Dr. D J Satterfield officiated.

A Narrow Escape.

Jeff Calham, one of the force employed by the Bell Telephone Company came near meeting with instant death this (Wednesday) morning, on West Corbin street. He is a climber and was transferring wires from the old Western Union poles to the Phone Company, when the old pole, which was not more than 4 inches in the ground, began to fall, Jeff on the under side. His climbers were deep into the pole and could not loosen himself, but he had presence of mind to twist himself in some way on the top side. The pole fell on some sharpened pailings in the fence of Mr. Pound's, at the shop lot, and had he fallen beneath the pole they would have been driven through his body. His breast was considerably bruised, but not seriously hurt. Jeff is fortunate to have escaped alive.

Firemen Met and Elected Officers—They Will Celebrate.

The Fire Department of Concord met Tuesday night in joint session for the election of a chief and assistant chief of both branches of the department to be in authority until January 1, 1896, when another election will take place. Chief of Police J L Boger was elected chief and Mr. John W Fink his assistant.

Immediately after the adjournment of the joint session the Hose and Reel company was called to order for the purpose of electing officers for the ensuing year, which resulted as follows:

President H P Deaton; captain, J V Stiller; first lieutenant, Henry L Propat; second lieutenant, L C Biles, secretary, W W Deaton; treasurer, Jas. R Cook; sergeant at arms, Cecil Foil.

The auditing committee elected was J V Stiller, J L Boger and W W Deaton.

Four nozzlemen were appointed by president, who were Messrs H G Ritz, Eli Goldston, Y C Caldwell, R A Sappenfield; wrenchmen, W E Castor and J L Brown.

Owing to the fact that the 18th of this month is the anniversary of the company, it has been decided to celebrate the occasion on Friday night, the 17th. A committee consisting of C M Sappenfield, Jas. R Cook, Eli Goldston, H G Ritz, J V Stiller and J L Boger was appointed to make necessary arrangements for sail celebration.
