 Mr. J. A. Kennett, of Lexington, who succeeded Mr R F Coble as boss of the weave room in Mill No. 2 at the Odell factories, has arrived and took charge of the work this morning.
 Nervous debility is a common complaint, especially among women. The best medical treatment for this disorder is a persistent course of Ayer's Sarsaparillo to cleanse and invigorate the blood. This being accomplished, nature will do the rest.
 THE STANDARD delights in noting the high stand Mr W A Ridenour, of St. Johns, has taken in the Business College in Charlotte. A recent examination puts his grades all above 95, and several as high as 98. A Cabarrus boy has got the stuff.
 "Canst thou minister to a mind diseased?" asks Macbeth. Certainly, my lord; the condition of the mind depends largely, if not solely, on the condition of the stomach, liver, and bowels, for all of which complaints Ayer's Pills are "the sovereignest thing on earth."

A Small Child Run Over—Will the Commissioners Not Do Something? Meet Tomorrow Night.
 Saturday afternoon a little Misses Mary and Helen Archey were crossing the street at the corner of Depot and Union streets little Mary was run over by a bicycle. The streets were pretty well crowded and the happening was purely accidental, but it occurred. Nevertheless, and accordingly the city funds have been increased to the tune of $5.35 for assault.
 The wheel was rode by a colored boy, Love Chambers, who was going at quite a rapid speed.
 The child was not seriously hurt, but in this case it can be said that she "might have been."
 Will the city fathers at their meeting tomorrow night not do something to prevent bicycle riding on the sidewalks? This is the question generally asked by men and women who fear not only for their own but other children.
 It would be well to consider this matter before too late.
Seventy-Three Years Old.
 Esq. V N Mitchell and his wife spent several days up in Rowan last week. This good old friend has just celebrated his 73rd birthday and is stronger now and enjoying better health than for a year. His daughter, Mrs. Stokes Wilhelm, prepared a big dinner for her father last Saturday and invited about thirty. One pound cake was nicely decorated and labeled: "Grandpa—73 years old." Another, given him by Mrs. Jacob W Deal, was handsomely decorated. This good old man was made to feel extremely happy and loves to think about it.

SALE OF LAND.
 By virtue of authority vested in me as commissioner by a decree of the Superior Court, made in the case of Lawson Blackwelder and others, plaintiffs, against N M Starnes, defendant, I will sell at public auction in front of the court house door in Concord on Monday, Sept. 2, 1895, to the highest bidder, the following real estate of which John C Starnes died seized.
 1st. Tract known as the Rowland tract adjoining J F Furr lands, Martain Furr and others and on which Henry Crayton now lives, containing 114 acres, and known as the home place. This tract of land will be sold subject to the dower of Mrs. John C Starnes which has already been allotted, and consists of about 67 acres.
 2nd. Tract known as the Adam Honeycutt tract adjoining Jackson Honeycutt, the tract above mentioned and others, and contains about 46 acres, and on which O V Mauney now resides.
 3rd. Tract known as the Alexander Shoe tract adjoining Nathan Lambert, Mac Cox and others, and contains about 15 acres.
 4th. Tract known as the John M Shoe tract adjoining Jackson Honeycutt, Thomas Swinson and others, and contains about 33 acres.
TERMS:—One-third cash, one-third in twelve months and the remaining third in two years, the deferred payments to bear 6 per cent interest from day of sale until paid, but the purchaser will have the right to anticipate them by paying cash if he desires to do so
 J. A. C. GIBSON, Commissioner.
