Philadelphia Twins.

There is a good joke on a German-town father and mother, who not long ago found some difficulty in finding acceptable names for their twin babies, who, by the way, were girls. After deliberating over the matter and coming to no satisfactory conclusion, paterfamilias struck a happy idea and decided to name his girl babies Kate and Duplicate. Recently another pair of twins appeared under the same roof, this time the infants being boys. The husband saw here an opportunity to get even with his wife, and he determined that she should find suitable names for her latest offspring. Imagine his feelings when the mother one day, with a happy and satisfied air, told the lord and master that she had named the boys Peat and Repeat.—Philadelphia Record.

Two Women Drowned—One's Kin Fight Over Her Effects.

HUNTINGTON, W. Va., Aug. 20.—Malinda Smith, keeper of a saloon at Gray, a small place south of here on the Norfolk & Western Railroad, was crossing Big Sandy river in a skiff last evening with a colored woman named Lina Hass when the boat capsized and both occupants were drowned. The relatives of Mrs. Smith, who was a widow, flocked to her effects, Sam Hunt being shot in the melee.

Dr. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
Dr. J. F. KINCHELOE,
Corway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
