Women Scarce In Greensboro.

Too many men or not enough women in Greensboro makes things unpleasant if all this from the Record be true:

This story comes straight. In fact all stories are straight, more or less, but this one comes in a bee line and may be relied on, that is to say, as much as any story of this kind.

Not many moons ago a certain young gentleman—we'll call him Tom—called to see a certain young lady at her home in Greensboro.

He was met by a servant at the door and shown into the parlor, where he found another young gentleman—we'll call him Jim—waiting for the young lady—we'll call her Phoebe Jane.

Now these young men were good friends, so when Tom came in and found Jim, he remarked:

"Say, Jim, I want to see Miss Phoebe Jane alone this evening. Won't you just skip out, old fellow, and give me a chance to have a confidential chat?"

Replied Jim—"I'd like to know why I should skip out for you. I'm in the same box; I'd like to have a private chat with her. Why not you skip out?"

"Well, to be frank," said Tom, "I'm engaged to her and want to talk over some few details tonight."

"Engaged—thunder? "So am I," and then the two glared at each other for a few seconds. But it was no use quarreling so they compared notes and ascertained beyond a doubt that both were engaged to Miss Phoebe Jane. They then skipped out together, fearful, as one of them said, that another fellow might come along and swear he too was engaged to her.

Sam Jones is to be in Winston September 12.
