Concord, N. C.

CONCORD, AUGUST 29, 1895.

Your Uncle Ransom, you must have noticed, pretty generally lights on his feet.—Charlotte Observer.

China claims the oldest civilization in the world. The way she has been acting, we can grant it and believe, too, that it is so old it has become rotten.

"Do horses weep?" inquires the Scientific American. Well, there are things in politics these days funny enough to make a horse laugh, and sometimes they may laugh till they cry.

Mrs. Taylor, of Florida, recently ran up an expectedly against a 250 pound bear, but instead of apologizing, she grabbed a club and laid the bear out. Ever since then, her husband, Mr. Taylor, never remains out later than 10 o'clock p. m.

THE STANDARD expressed some surprise that Mr. Josephus Daniels did not answer its question put to the Raleigh News and Observer in a courteous and respectful manner. A letter from the editor conveys the fact that the issue containing the question miscarried.

We have seen more drunken men in the last three weeks than in the past three years. We are lead to believe that the circulation per capita of new brandy is increased or its killing properties are more considerably in evidence than formerly.

The same man did not report Senator Jarvis' speech to the Charlotte Observer and the Raleigh Observer, we may believe. One has the court house crowded, the other two-thirds full, and small house at that. As a passing remark, we wish to say that Senator Jarvis has enough to tackle without making faces at the Charlotte Observer.

In no State Democratic Convention yet held have the advocates of the single gold standard dared make a fight on that issue. President Cleveland favors the single gold standard, Secretary Carlisle favors it, Secretary Hoke Smith favors it, Secretary Morton favors it. Yet we find none of their followers bold enough to propose anything stronger than the old financial straddle of 1893. This is significant.—Wilmington Star.

A funny little Populist paper, replying to an article in the Observer, says: "If we had no more faith an confidence in the integrity of this government than to believe it can not make good money out of anything it chooses to put its stamp upon, we would immigrate to some other country. We wouldn't want to live in such a weak country." That's the cheap money argument in a nutshell, but we never have been able to understand why any man who holds this doctrine should want the government to put its stamp on such heavy and expensive materials as silver and gold. Why not buy up an indefinite number of hides, cut them into pieces of convenient size, stamp them and put them into circulation.—Charlotte Observer

LOSS OF VOICE

After Acute Bronchitis
CURED BY USING
AYER'S Cherry Pectoral

A PREACHER'S EXPERIENCE.

"Three months ago, I took a violent cold which resulted in an attack of acute bronchitis. I put myself under medical treatment, and at the end of two months was no better. I found it very difficult to preach, and concluded to try Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. The first bottle gave me great relief; the second, which I am now taking, has relieved me almost entirely of all unpleasant symptoms, and I feel sure that one or two bottles more will effect a permanent cure. To all ministers suffering from throat troubles, I recommend Ayer's Cherry Pectoral."—E. M. BRAWLEY, D. D., Dist. Secretary, Am. Bapt. Publication Society, Petersburg, Va.
