The Leans and Fats of Salisbury played a match game of baseball. They say it was so bad it was good. The Star performance was Editor Wichard knocking up the ground with the back of his head in a grand, spectacular slide to a base, held down by a fat man, Mark Ritch.

Rev. O A White, son of Mr. Benton White, of No. 11 township, this county, preached Sunday, both morning and night, at the First Presbyterian church. Although Mr. White is a young man and his ministerial experience limited, he is an able expounder, and his sermons Sunday were worthy of great praise.

From what we hear a young white boy, of eastern Cabarrus, who ought to have more sense and respect for older people, is in a good way to get a head put on him. It is said that he delights to do uncivil things towards a quiet, middle aged man. Such a boy ought to be strapped at home and if the paterfamilias knew it, the boy would get his deserts. As it is, he's courting an outside flogging.—Communicated.

He Was "After Them."

Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock a gentleman appeared on the streets of Concord in a somewhat excited condition. It was Mr. Lennie Nussman, a citizen of Rowan county, who was in pursuit of his 16-year-old runaway daughter, who was wedded Saturday or Sunday in No. 6 township by Esquire J D Walker to Mr. Ed. Misenheimer, of No. 5 township. The father of the young wife was very much opposed to the union, but he was just a "leetle" too late to prevent the ceremony. At last accounts he had not found the happy couple, but he was still "after them," making threats that he would separate them.

Sunday Schools.

Only three Sunday schools were heard from this morning, the reports from which were as follows:

|                          |     |
|--------------------------|-----|
| Forest Hill M. E. church | 289 |
| Enrollment               | 648 |
| Absent                   | 354 |
| St. Andrews—Union        | 98  |
| Enrollment               | 152 |
| Absent                   | 54  |
| Bays chapel              | 70  |
| Enrollment               | 113 |
| Absent                   | 41  |

We regret very much that the secretaries of the different Sunday schools do not send in a weekly report, as the work is of great interest to the public generally.

Mayor Cook's First Trial.

Mt. Pleasant, this county, has the youngest mayor in the State. John M Cook, son of Capt. Jonas Cook.

As evidence of peace of that community, he has been in office since May last and on Saturday he had his first case. A negro Forrest assaulted a young white boy Arrington (No'kin to Mrs. Pattie Arrington). The mayor found Forrest guilty and fined him $4.35 so quick that Forrest's heels got dizzy and cayed in.
