Which is worse, imprisonment for life or a life-long disease, like scrofula, for example? The former certainly, would be preferable were it not that Ayer's Sarsaparilla can always come to the rescue and give the poor sufferer health, strength, and happiness.

Master Louis Smith can't play baseball with as great success as he can shoot cranes. He brought to town this afternoon a large one, of the bluish variety, as a result of a half day's sport with his gun.

Miss Maud Brown, of Concord, who is well known and has many friends here, is visiting Miss Beulah Bernhardt. Miss Brown is under the treatment of Dr. John Whitehead, for chronic malarial, and we trust that she will be permanently benefitted.—Evening World.

A hacking cough keeps the bronchial tubes in a state of constant irritation, which, if not speedily removed, may lead to chronic bronchitis. No prompter remedy can be found than Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. Its effect is immediate and the result permanent.

The regular meeting of the town fathers takes place tonight. Just what will come up for their consideration is not known, but it may be that there will be complaints in regard to the sanitary condition of the whole town. Something should be done.

THE STANDARD saw two preachers of the same denomination standing for one hour, or more, on the streets. Why so much difference? The scene reminded us of the picture "Before and After Taking." Does one "Shake" before using and the other doesn't?

A Salisbury paper tells of a native Cabarrus boy and what is told shows he has nerve and other things: "Mr. W A Fries has the contract to build twenty-five houses for the new factory in Greensboro. He will leave with a squad of hands in a few days for that place.

THE STANDARD had a call from a gentleman, who reminds one of the days when the Charlotte Observer was called Charlotte Chronicle and floated by Messrs Dowd and St. Clair. The personage was none other than the old foreman—he wore richly-hued auburn side whiskers

A bundle of dress goods was found near Cold Water Baptist church. The goods were tied in a copy of the Weekly STANDARD bearing the name of E H Howell and from this we judge it for some one in the neighborhood of Flowes. The owner can get same by calling in and yanking out 20 cents for this ad.

Mr. and Mrs. D B Coltrane and the small children left this (Tuesday) morning for a visit to friends and relatives in Carrollton, Ky. Their many friends wish them a delightful trip, and hope that Mr. Coltrane's rest will be to him just what he hopes it to result in. They will be gone some two weeks or more.

The following news comes from the Charlotte Observer's correspondent at Wadesboro: Sunday afternoon, just before twilight, Mr. J Henry Lockhart dropped dead. His wife had been out of the house only a short while, when on her return she found him on the floor dead and cold. He was evidently reading his Bible when the summons came, as it was found on the floor between his feet. A doctor was sent for immediately, but he could only tell the bereaved family that the deceased died from a stroke of apoplexy. Mr. Lockhart was a brother to Congressman Lockhart. He leaves a wife and two very small children.
