SELLS BROTHERS' SHOW.

The Grandest Triumph Ever Known in the History of the Circus World. Sells Brothers' will be in Charlotte, Friday, October 4, in a blaze of glory, and it is, without doubt, the most gigantic exhibition that has ever visited that city, introducing triple ring circus, five continent menagerie, real Roman Hippodrome, huge African aquarium, Australian aviary, Arabian caravan, and the unequalled free street parade. The Sells Brothers' big enterprise has been under one and the same management for a longer period than any other in existence, being now in its twenty-fourth prosperous year. Go to town early and see the free daily street parade of glittering splendor. The procession leaves the show grounds at 10 o'clock on the morning of the exhibition. It is over a mile in length. See the vast city of canyas! Then decide whether or not you want to see the greatest show on earth. Two performances daily—afternoon at 2, night at 8. Doors open one hour earlier. Special excursion rates on all lines of travel.

Goods Recovered, But Thief Escapes.

Early this morning a thief entered the meat house of Mrs. G W Taylor on West Corbin street and took therefrom a ham. He was traced and run for one hundred yards and the goods were recovered, but the thief (which was a hound) escaped.

Snakes 25 1-2 Feet Long.

Superintendent Geo. Barnhardt, of the Cabarrus chain gang, is working near the Lippard mill in No. 11. On Saturday he met up with 25 1/2 feet of snakes.

Discovering a moccasin, he killed her and through a lacerated place out crawled 43 little snakes averaging 6 inches long. He set the chain gang on to this covey and demolished every one of them. Their entire length, including 4 feet for the mammy, amounted to 25 1/2 feet. Saturday was a bad day, too.

A Derby Hat in a Hen House.

The chief of police has been handed a derby hat that was found one morning in the chicken coop in the rear of Mr. John K Patterson's store.

The supposition is that the gentleman who visited this hen house in the dark lost his hat.

The hat bears these marks on the inside: W. H. & R. S. Tucker, Raleigh, N. C., and in pencil mark these initials "H. M. B."

Marion Art School.

Miss Bettie V Alexander, who has for the past several years taught successfully the Marion Art School in this city, has reopened with a large class in the rooms formerly occupied by her at the home of Mrs. Paul B Means. Class hours are from 3 to 5 o'clock p. m., every day except Saturday. Tuition $3.00 to $4.00. s16 3t.

For Over Fifty Years.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. mw&w

EVEN THE DARKNESS PALED

Mr. Walter Henry Threatens to Take Off His Belt and Lick Somebody.

Mr. Walter R Henry was very much pleased with the handsome portrait of himself in yesterday's News and Observer. He returned yesterday from the mountains, and has quit "Blowing Rock" for the present. Whether he has quit blowing Walter is not stated.

He called attention to the rapid gait with which he was "leaving the party" and suggested that he is getting there with both feet.

Last night Mr. Henry wore a belt—a leather belt with rings in it and a curious buckle—possibly a championship belt—with leather medal attached. It reminded one of the belt worn by the Supreme Snark as he resides over the Hoo Hoos of the Universe. But if Mr. Henry is a Hoo Hoo, he did not say so.

Touching with impressive hand this equator of his fleshy sphere, he said significantly: "If some people don't watch out, I'll pull this belt off and lick somebody."

Even the darkness grew pale at the thought.—Raleigh Observer.

His Head Banged Up.

Jim McKnight, a colored boy about 12 years of age, came near passing out of existence this afternoon when he was thrown from a wagon with which a horse was running away, striking his head upon a stick of wood, severely cutting and bruising it. He was hauling cloth for the Odell Manufacturing Company, and was in the mill yard. Dr. L M Arohey gave him the proper surgical attention. He is now doing quite well, considering the severe blow.

The Sick List.

Mr. L B Etheredge, who clerks at Mr. D P Dayvault's, is quite sick at Mr. John A Cline's, where he is boarding.

Mrs. James O Fink is sick with chills.

Master George Swink, who has fever, is better.

Mr. Herbert Cook is considerably better today, although his fever is high at times.

Miss Ada Carter, of Forest Hill, is still very low.

The condition of Mr. Safrit is very encouraging and hopes are entertained for his recovery, while there is a change for the worse in the case of Mr. Bost, although the latter is brighter today than yesterday.

Miss Nannie Cannon is no better today. She is very sick.

Master Edgar Caldwell is "at home" entertaining the chills.

Wallace Brothers Assign.

Statesville has had an immense crash in financial circles.

Wallace Bros, composed of Isaac, David and William Wallace, doing business in Statesville since 1859, made an assignment last Saturday, naming Ex-solicitor Long as assignee.

The firm has been carrying on one of the largest businesses in Western North Carolina. They borrowed lots of money, principally from the Merchants & Farmers bank, of Charlotte, and from private parties. The liabilities are estimated at $200,000, with a probable similar amount of assets.

They turned over everything, their private residences included.

It is a crash that surprises the whole western part of the state.

NO THIRD TERM.

President Cleveland's Sister Says That He Wouldn't Accept One.

New York, Sept. 14—A special to the World from Rochester, says: Mrs. L T Yeomans of Oneida, sister of President Cleveland, in an interview, says the President would not accept a third term.

[Now we can all rest well and sleep soundly.]

A Remarkable Cure

Prof. H M Smith, of Staunton, Va., who has been the guest of A S Hielig, tells us of a remarkable cure of a young man, whose name is Everett Strauss and who is identified with one of the foremost families of Staunton was dying from Bright's disease. The physicians had lost all hope of their medicines proving efficacious. When all hope was given up it was suggested that the faith cure be tried. Accordingly the young man was anointed with pure olive oil and six elders from the different churches were sent for. They began praying in the morning at six and continued to pray without intermission until four. At the expiration of that hour Mr. Straus arose from his bed, dressed and walked down the street. He attended to some mail matter and went out driving the same afternoon. He says now that he is perfectly well. Prof. Smith tells us that the cure is creating no little amount of wonder and astonishment and he vouches for its accuracy, being an eye witness.—Salisbury World.

[The part of this story that refuses to go down is six elders that can pray—that long.]

Africans Going Expositionward.

A car load of native Africans passed through Sunday night bound for the Atlanta Exposition. They were robed in the African apparel and were curious to behold. They were stacked in the car, which was securely fastened, like so many hogs, and their chattering was like unto the cackling of geese to our natives. None of them got out, or probably several people would have been eaten up.

The Scene of Explosion.

From all quarters of the county, people, some through sympathy, some curiosity, and some for the want of elsewhere to spend the Sabbath, went Sunday to view the scene of the explosion at Mr. Jackson Safrit's which occurred on Wednesday morning last. The place was a rendezvous, and the unusual sight of wonderment for several hundred people.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J Gunderman, of Diamondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug store Regular size 50c. and $1.00.
