A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hustling Pencil Pusher.

Fires were comfortable yesterday. The graded schools will open Monday next.

The Rowan fair will be held the 1st, 2nd and 3rd of October.

M. L. Blackwelder is again on the hunt of sewing machine buyers.

Charlotte is having some trouble with Dick Morse and his temperance wagon.

Six Coffins went from this place to Greensboro this morning, over the Southern.

Walls to the new addition of the Cannon factory are up to the second story and are still ascending.

Miss Julia Taylor will entertain a number of invited friends at her home on Corbin street tonight.

Rev. J. D. Shealey preached in St. James Lutheran church, Sunday night; text: "Where Art thou?"

The plantation of Rev. C. W. Robinson was sold at public auction at the court house door on Saturday.

Josephine Overton, a colored girl of about 18 years of age, died in Coleburg Sunday afternoon of typhoid fever.

Mrs. Matilda Clark, of the Cabarrus cotton mills, has moved her family and household effect to Danville, Va.

Marion Art School was reopened this afternoon by Miss Bettie V. Alexander in her rooms at Mrs. Paul B. Means'.

Mr. Stafford Goodman, of No. 2, has a hog that walks about on her knees. It is not often swine get so humble and pious.

Work on the new home of Dr. B. L. Griffin, on South Main street, is progressing at a rapid rate. The frame work is all done.

Workmen have begun on the new front to Yorke, Wadsworth & Co's. store room. It will be a great improvement in the appearance of the entrance.

The woman's addition to the Fayetteville Observer is an excellent number. It is the finest piece of work by journalistic women we have ever seen.

Mr. C. Richmond Montgomery has resigned his position with Dr. D. D. Johnston to accept one with the new drug store, that it to be opened by Marsh & Co.

The long row of stalls in the Cannons & Fetzer lot in rear of their store, has been recovered and otherwise fixed up for the convenience of the public.

Master Joe Smith, son of townsman James Smith, has secured a position with the Liddell foundry, in Charlotte, where he has gone to become a machinist.

Mr. John VanLandingham, the general business manager of the Charlotte Observer, has severed his connection with that paper, and gone back to his first love, buying cotton. He's worth his weight in gold.

Dr. Whitley, who moved here from Norwood for the practice of his profession, has returned to his old quarters to remain. He was a good musician as well as physician, and it is regretted by many that his stay with us could not be permanent.

Sells Brothers' World Famous Show

This great show exhibits in big cities only, and will visit Charlotte, Friday, October 4, and regarded as a whole, it is doubtless without parallel. Wherein it differs from others is this: In its rare variety, endless interest, its boundless capacity to please every taste. Good things with it are not doled out with a grudging hand; they are poured forth in a Niagara-like profusion, typical of the great country of greatest enterprises. Here we have a regal Roman Hippodrome, Fifty-Cage Menagerie, Three Big Circuses, Caravan, performing droves of Wild and Domestic Beasts, a huge Tropical Aquarium, Australian Aviary, Huge Stages, Gladiatorial Combats and Magnificent Free Street Parade, rolled into one tremendous alliance for but one price of admission. Under some ten acres of tents. Whew! the very thought of it fairly makes one catch his breath. And not only is it all a very great, but it is a very good, clean, admirably managed show, under the immediate eye of its proprietors, and free from any and every annoyance or objectionable association. Grand excursions will be run on all lines of travel to the big show.

Unequal Distribution of Wealth.

President Julius D. Dreher, of Roanoke College, Virginia, recently delivered an address before the Social Science Association at Saratoga on "Education in the South." He referred to the thirteen Southern States, not including Missouri. These States have a tax valuation of $371,000,000, while New York alone has more than this, and New England and the Middle States together have a valuation three times as great as the whole South. Thus the public tax which would support schools at the south for ten months would only give three and one-third months at the North.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mabrey, of Forest Hill, have the tenderest sympathy of the community in the death of their infant babe, which occurred Sunday. The interment was at the cemetery.

It is said that Mr. Rufus L. Patterson, once holding a position with the Odell Mfg. Co., but now in Durham, is soon to be married. He will go beyond the Atlantic for his bride.

All those who are to assist the choir in rendering the music during the protracted meeting at Forest Hill, which begins Sunday next are requested to meet at the Methodist church tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock. Friday will be observed as a denial and fast day.

Ayer's Hair Vigor tones up the weak hair roots, stimulates the vessels and tissues which supply the hair with nutrition, strengthens the hair itself, and adds the oil which keeps the shafts soft, lustrous, and valuable toilet preparation in the world.

"The Southern Business College of Asheville, N. C., the Queen Mountain City of the South, offers one-half tuition free to two worthy students from this county who are to be recommended by the Chairman of the County Commissioners and must enter by Oct. 20th."

There is nothing to prevent anyone concocting a mixture and calling it "sarsaparilla," and there is nothing to prevent anyone spending good money testing the stuff; but prudent people, who wish to be sure of their remedy, take only Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and so get cured.

Col. Culp Pleased With Charlotte's Roads.

Colonel J. R. Culp, supervisor of Chester county, S. C., was up Tuesday attending the horse sale at Wadsworth's stables. After purchasing a fine pair of mules at $300 for the use of his county, he rode out to the stockade and other places around the city to see and admire Mecklenburg's roads. He expressed himself as highly pleased.—Charlotte Observer.
