JOTTINGS AND CLIPPINGS.

San Francisco has quarantined against Honolulu on account of cholera.

Statistics show that American imports from Spain include garlic and onions.

George Rogers, who lived near Jacksonville, Ill., was murdered by burglars.

A new cereal has been discovered in the seed of a kind of marsh grass of Alabama; it is like oats.

Two young men, named McAfee and Clayton, were killed in a shooting scrape at McKae, Ark.

Charles Stewart was sentenced to a year in prison at Chaster, Ill., for enticing two St. Louis girls from home.

Some strong evidence against Preacher Hinsaw, charged with wife murder, was given at Danville, Ind., Saturday.

Some of Sam's Sayings.

Some of you old fellows from the country, sitting there with $5 in your pockets, and won't give a cent. You ought to get more hair and a snout and tail and go to eatin' corn.

There's a stranger here. One fellow put in a dollar. He don't live in this town.

If the devil don't git you, Bud, it'll be because he don't want you.

The Methodists here pay their pastor $1800, and the Baptists $1200. You see you can ship one-third cheaper by water.

I'd rather be a chain-gang nigger in the Georgia penitentiary than to be a Methodist that voted for whiskey.

You won't be dead and in hell two years before Sallie will have another fellow sitting on the front porch bragging about marrying your widow.

When I see an old maid, I am sure some fellow ain't done his duty. When I see an old bachelor, I think of a hog.

Your wife's got as much right to drink whiskey and get drunk as you have, you lousy scoundrel.

The girls are as pure as the morning dew, but God pity the crowd they've got to dance with.

If one of the dancing dudes is all right it is the first one I ever say. I want his picture to show around.

We need some daddies that will meet the dancing buck at the door and kick him over the front gate and say, Good-bye, John.

You girls that don't know anything but to dance. You'll evaporate some day and leave some bangs and slippers on the floor.

I like a drunkard better than I do a close-fisted, stingy devil. There's hope for the drunkard. If you get him sober you may make a man of him. But if a fellow's no account, drunk or sober, the gig's up.—Winston Twin-City Daily.

Notes From the Organ.

The joint council of the Organ pastorate has granted Rev. Geo. H. Cox a months vacation. Rev. Cox has been a hard worker since he came to this pastorate, and deserves a short rest. During his vacation he expects to attend, as a delegate, the meeting of the United Lutheran Synod, which will convene at Staunton, Va., on the 18th. From Staunton he is going to visit his sisters, who reside in Portland, Maine, his native heath. His son, Mr. C. Brown Cox, starts today (Monday) for Gettysburg where he will enter the Theological Seminary.

Mr. Henry Cruse, while working at Mr. E. B. O. Hambly's large cattle barn last week fell through the scaffold and sustained painful but not serious injuries.

Mr. Jimmie Bost has thrown down the shovel and the hoe and taken up the saw and hammer. He is now working at the carpenter trade in Concord.

Miss Daisy Klutz, who taught a very successful term of school at Brick church, Davie county, came home last week. Next week she expects to start for Bloomsburg where she will enter school.

Miss Dora Bost left a few weeks ago for Mt. Pleasant where she is attending Mt. Amoena Female Seminary.

Mr. Vance B. Miller starts to-day for North Carolina College at Mt. Pleasant.

So you see our community is awakening from its "Rip Van Winkle" sleep and is becoming aroused on the subject of education.

Miss Myrtle Beaver, who was so badly burned about six weeks ago, is, we are glad to learn, able to sit up some.

Mrs. Mariah Cruse, who lived in ten miles of China Grove for sixty years, paid that flourishing village her first visit Friday. WHIT.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, Constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters, 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzer's Drug store.

Jack Frost.

CASILE, N. Y., Sept. 16.—A heavy frost Saturday night ruined the garden truck and other farm crops. Potato vines lying on the ground were entirely killed. Many farmers were at work cutting their corn Sunday.

BINGHAMPTON, N. Y., Sept. 16.—A severe frost in this vicinity Saturday night and Sunday morning ruined grapes, and vegetables suffered severely.

LANCASTER, Pa., Sept. 16.—Reports from the rural districts shows that the frost on Saturday and Sunday night did a great damage to the growing tobacco, a large portion of which is still in the field.

Dr. Creasy Not in Love With "Trilby"

In the course of his sermon Sunday night, Dr. Creasy spoke of the book "Trilby" in no complimentary terms. He said it was not fit to enter the house of any Christian family. He also spoke of the young ladies wearing "Trilby" hearts as souvenirs, as being disgraceful. One young lady in the congregation had a large "Trilby" heart pinned on her belt. When the doctor spoke of the "Trilby" hearts not being fit to wear she immediately removed it and handed it over to a friend.—Charlotte Observer.

Rochester Offers Gold.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 16.—The associated banks and trusts companies of Rochester have sent to the Assistant Treasurer of the United States at New York $250,000 in gold to be exchanged for legal tender notes. It is the purpose of the Rochester banks to do their share in maintaining the Treasury reserve.

TURNING GRAY AND THREATENED WITH BALDNESS

The Danger is Averted by Using

AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend any of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Neb.
