TOUCHED THE BUTTON.

President Cleveland Starts the Ball to Rolling—Atlanta Has 40,000 Visitors—Imposing Ceremonies Attended the Formal Opening—Will Close With the Dying Year.

Special to the STANDARD.
ATLANTA, Ga., Sept. 18.—This morning at 6 o'clock the gates of the Cotton States and International Exposition were thrown open for one hundred and twenty days. Till the bells in the chimes tower toll the knell of the dying year, the exposition will be open to the people of the world. The formal opening was attended by imposing ceremonies. Half of the nations of the earth were represented in the procession during the day and the more prominent speakers of the country addressed the multitude that gathered in the auditorium to witness the formal inaugural exercises.

About 80,000 people witnessed the movement of the machinery when at the hour of 1:15 p. m., President Cleveland at Buzzard's Bay gently touched the button and started the ball to rolling.

An imposing procession, commanded by Col. W. I. Kellog, United States Army, moved to the grounds at noon from a point in the center of the city, comprising the Washington Artillery of New Orleans; the Fifth regiment of regulars; the Sixth regiment of Georgia volunteers; The Third regiment of Georgia volunteers; the Atlanta Artillery and a battalion of cavalry.

At the grounds addresses were delivered by President C. A. Collier, Mrs. Joseph Thompson, President of Women's Board; Booker T. Washington, colored; Mayor Porter King, Hon. George Brown representing the governor, and Judge Emery Speer.

A wire was put in from Buzzard's Bay, the telegraph station for Gray Gables, the home of President Cleveland, and another wire from the auditorium to the machinery building. When the time for touching the button arrived the wires were cleaned and an operator in the auditorium notified another operator at Gray Gables. The wire running into the machinery building was connected with two electric machines attached to valves on the big Frick engine which drives the shafting of the machinery and the valve on the largest water pump. As soon as the President closed the electric current the valves opened and the steam poured into the engines. As they began to act the engineers' building opened all the engines and started every machine in the hall. There are 40,000 visitors in the city.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Diamondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist Church at Rives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at Fetzner's Drug store Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

THE LEASE APPROVED.

The Stockholders Meet at Greensboro and Ratify It—The Tax Exemption Surrendered—New Directors.

GREENSBORO, Sept. 17.—The agony over the North Carolina Railroad is at last over. A called meeting of the stockholders of this road was held here this afternoon; and for the first time since 1893 a quorum was present. The directors agreed two years ago to allow the railroad to be listed for taxes, but the stockholders were unwilling and remained away from the meetings in order to prevent a quorum, so that the action of the directors might not be ratified. Now, however, since the Southern has leased the road and will pay the taxes there was no excuse for not ratifying the withdrawal of the tax exemption. At 3:30 o'clock when the stockholders were on the point of assembling a telegram came from the Governor insisting on a surrender of the exemption. About 4 o'clock the stockholders met and agreed to surrender. Judge Burwell was made temporary chairman and Dr. Benbow secretary. When the vote to ratify the leasing of the road to the Southern was taken, not a dissenting voice was heard.

The following resolution was offered and adopted vive voce:

Resolved, By the stockholders of the North Carolina Railroad Company, the president of the said road be and he is hereby directed to return, on the first day of June after January 1st, 1896, when the dividends of the profits will exceed 6 per cent., all property of the North Carolina Railroad Company, without exemption for taxation, as other railroad property is returned for taxation.

The directors on the part of the State are: S. B. Alexander, W. C. Maxwell, J. P. Allison, J. J. Young, C. W. Johnson, F. S. Spruill, L. S. Overman, V. E. Turner. On the part of the private stock the directors are: R. F. Hoke, Thos. M. Holt, H. W. Fries; and B. Cameron.

Theo. F. Davidson, Mr. Julian and Wm. E. Holt were made the financial committee.—Special from Charlotte Observer.

Not the "New Woman."

Many homes in the western portion of the city were visited by a weary, wandering descendant of Mother Eve Tuesday night. Although a stranger she was not the "new woman." Her calling hours were unusually late and her questions and manner bore evidence of a demented mind.

She was very well dressed and claimed to have been on her way from Greensboro to South Carolina, where, she said, lived her people. This is not a good story, however, as she arrived here from Charlotte on the delayed train, about 8:30 o'clock, and after applying at both hotels for lodging and refused, she visited a dozen or more private residences, telling a different tale.

For Over Fifty Years.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. mwj&w

NEW GILEAD PICNIC.

Tomorrow Set Apart as a Day of Pleasure for the Children—Four Sunday Schools Unite.

To-morrow, Thursday, will about wind up the picnic season for 1895, and great preparations have been made to make the day one of pleasure for the Sunday school children of No. 5 township, in which four schools will unite themselves for one day, at least. New Gilead, Mt. Carmel, Cold Water, and Trinity Reformed (Concord) will all be represented. At 10 o'clock the exercises will be opened by music, followed by recitations by the children, after which the pastors of the different churches will make short addresses. Then dinner, which is one of the main features, will be served under the shade of the beautiful oak grove. A great time is anticipated and the children, as well as older ones, will have sway to many amusements provided for on this occasion. Ritz, the lemonade vender, "will be there."

Locked Up.

Heywood Martin, the little colored boy that works around Mr. Ed Fisher's store, fell asleep and was locked up during Tuesday night in the store room. He was frightened by Mr. Johnston, the night watchman, and was completely overcome with nervousness this morning when liberated. Mr. Johnston and Mr. Fisher were both ignorant of the negro being in the store, although the latter missed the boy's presence at closing up time. He was on hand at the proper time for once.

"He Never Came Back."

Mrs. A. E. Lentz is out of a cook today. It occurred in this way: Walter Christian, a young colored boy, who is a splendid cook and who is fickle in mind, was sent to the market for eggs on Tuesday morning, but he never came back. He had no doubt read in THE STANDARD of several days ago that all the eggs that came to market were being shipped to Atlanta, and accordingly sent word to his mistress that he had left for that place, and in all probability he will not return until he obtains what he was sent for.

Uncle Jones in Winston.

WINSTON, Sept. 17.—Sam Jones has stirred Winston as she has never been stirred before. The people are talking about little else. The warehousemen signed certificates today agreeing to close on Sunday. The butchers also agreed to do no more work on the Sabbath. All but one druggist agrees to close on Sunday. There have been several hundred conversions, and it looks now like no more licensed barrooms will be seen here after next May. Your Uncle Jones is jumping on the Twin-City Pleasure Club with both feet, and sin in high and low places generally.

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, indigestion, Constipation, dizziness yield to Electric Bitters, 50c and $1.00 per bottle at Fetzner's Drug store.
