GETUTAHIN.

Harry up with the Utah Constitution, with its clause forever prohibiting polygamy, under severe penalties.

There is still misinformation abroad in the land and still an impression that Utah is the land "where the passions, cramp no longer, shall have room and breathing space."

Simon Cross, of Cartersville, S. C., eloped with Mrs. Alice Hudson and Mrs. Minnie Marshall. The trio were en route to Salt Lake when overtaken by the husbands of the women, and they announced that it was their intention to be married on reaching the land of bliss. Simon had persuaded both women to accompany him with the understanding that both should become Mrs. Cross when the city of refuge was reached.

Utah should make it known in the uttermost corners of the earth that polygamy is not to be tolerated in the new State.

Otherwise there will be disappointment and regrets such as must now fill the gentle bosoms of Mrs. Hudson and Mrs. Marshall and the manly breast of Simon Cross.—St. Louis Republic.

When we get a board of health and the city thoroughly cleaned, there will be less sickness and decidedly less complaint.

In view of Reuben Kolb's advice to the farmers to hold their cotton till November or December, when they will get ten cents a pound for it, the old song, "Reuben, Reuben, I've Been Thinking," will get new popularity if the farmers take his advice and his predictions fail.—News and Observer.

An old lady recently died in one of the States, leaving a son-in-law to mourn her death. He was asked by inquiring and sympathizing friends what was the complaint, to which he answered that there was none, that everybody was satisfied.

This is not a dead town by any means, but from the variety of odors one would judge that "something is rotten in Denmark."

All that Ben Tillman has to do in his State is to pull the string—his followers do the rest. His brother, the illustrious and famous Democratic statesman, George Tillman, succeeded in naming the new county provided for in the constitutional convention at Columbia last Saturday, "Butler." At this Benjamin arose in indignation on Monday, and condemned the action of the convention in the naming of the county after his late opponent, ex-

Senator Butler, for whom he has bitter hate, and changed it to that of "Saluda," an Indian name. As Ben dictates, so the people act. But then you know the story of the long lane.

Unsuccessful Attempt of a Mob at Lynching Two Negro Fiends.

Memphis, Tenn., Sept. 17.—A mob of seventy-five men made an unsuccessful attempt last night to lynch Harrison Fuller and Frank Simpson, two negroes confined in the Henderson county jail at Lexington, for attempting to outrage the widow Pomeroy and her 16 year old daughter on the night of July 11. The negroes were captured shortly after the crime, and to avert mob violence, they were sent to Nashville, where they remained up to last week, when they were brought to Lexington for trial. A continuance of the case was granted by Judge Taylor, and Fuller and Simpson were returned to jail.

Between midnight and day the mob went to the jail, broke open the cell of the negroes the crowd was fired upon by the sheriff and his deputies, seriously wounding Hugh Cook, and slightly wounding men named Jones and Joiner. Excitement in Lexington is intense, and serious trouble is expected.

Appendicitis Mostly Fright.

At the meeting of the Virginia Medical Society now in session at Wytheville, Dr. Hunter McGuire Monday read a report upon seventeen operative cases of chronic or relapsing appendicitis, with one death. In his remarks commenting upon the report Dr. McGuire said he was convinced that this operation should not be performed so quickly as is recommended by most surgeons. He said that in all cases he had ever operated upon, and they were many, he had never found a single grape, cherry, or tomato seed, and he was glad to mention this fact to set the lay mind at ease.

Dr. James Herbert Claiborne, of Petersburg, stated that in a practice of forty-five years he had seen but twelve cases of appendicitis, and not one was operated upon or died. He is old-fashioned enough to believe in leeches and poultices.

To show the dread of appendicitis in the lay mind, he cited the case of a patient to whom he was called, and who was positive he had the disease. The doctor, however, succeeded in quieting him by assuring him that appendicitis did not occur on the left side.

Dr. Moore, who twice today held the attention of the society by his oratorical powers, said that he was decided in opposition to hurried operations in cases of appendicitis. He advocates going slowly.—Richmond Dispatch.

TURNING GRAY AND THREATENED WITH BALDNESS

The Danger is Averted by Using
AYER'S HAIR VIGOR

"Nearly forty years ago, after some weeks of sickness, my hair turned gray and began falling out so rapidly that I was threatened with immediate baldness. Hearing Ayer's Hair Vigor highly spoken of, I commenced using this preparation, and was so well satisfied with the result that I have never tried any other kind of dressing. It stopped the hair from falling out, stimulated a new growth of hair, and kept the scalp free from dandruff. Only an occasional application is now needed to keep my hair of good, natural color. I never hesitate to recommend any of Ayer's medicines to my friends."—Mrs. H. M. HAIGHT, Avoca, Neb.

$1800.00 GIVEN AWAY TO INVENTORS.

$150.00 every month given away to any one who applies through us for the most meritorious patent during the month preceding.

We secure the best patents for our clients, and the object of this offer is to encourage inventors to keep track of their bright ideas. At the same time we wish to impress upon the public the fact that such as the "car-window" which can be easily slid up and down without breaking the passenger's back, "saucers," "collar-button," "nut-lock," "bottle-stopper," and a thousand other little things that most any one can find a way of improving; and these simple inventions are the ones that bring largest returns to the author. Try to think of something to invent.

IT IS NOT SO HARD AS IT SEEMS.

Patents taken out through us receive special notice in the "National Recorder," published at Washington, D. C., which is the best newspaper published in America in the interests of inventors. We furnish a year's subscription to this journal, free of cost, to all our clients. We also advertise, free of cost, the invention each month which wins our $150 prize, and hundreds of thousands of copies of the "National Recorder," containing a sketch of the winner, and a description of his invention, will be scattered throughout the United States among capitalists and manufacturers, thus bringing to their attention the merits of the invention.

All communications regarded strictly confidential.
