THE RADICAL BLUE BOTTLE GETS IN HIS WORK.

Thus ended the contemptible conspiracy against the life of the two grand old parties—a conspiracy in the name of patriotism, engineered by the jackals of both parties who fear to lead a right, and have not the courage to stop their cohorts in time to save the innocents.

Mole nit sua. YAHOO.

The above is the closing paragraph of a one and a half-column communication dated "Raleigh, Sept. 25," that appeared in Sunday's Charlotte Observer. It purported to be a humorous account of the Silver Convention that is called to meet in Raleigh this week.

While the News and Observer is in accord with the action of the State Democratic Executive Committee, held in Raleigh, May 20th., in believing that no necessity exists for holding a silver convention in the State this year, this paper cannot permit nameless scribblers to call the promoters of the convention "jackals" and "conspirators" without an expression of indignant rebuke. If the rumor of the authorship of the communication be correct, it will not occasion any surprise that such Democrats as Jarvis, Carr, Cooke, Smith, Ashe, Broughton, and others should be called "jackals" by discredited, life-long Republicans. No Democrat, not ready to plume his flight to greener pastures, would characterize the honest and well meaning action of these gentlemen as a "contemptible conspiracy," or the men engaged in this movement as "jackals."

The article not only ridicules and slanders such men as we have named, but many other Democrats who, while believing in silver, have not approved the calling of the convention. Its purpose is therefore shown to be to hold up all advocates of silver as "conspirators" and "jackals," and thus fly-blow as many Democrats as possible. This is the policy of wisdom for the Republican politicians who see in the division in Democratic ranks, which they thus try to create, and the gullibility of some the opportunity of coming into power of the Populists and the venality of others, again. These Republicans know that the men from whom they have the most to fear are the consistent Democrats who are standing by the cause of silver just as the whole party in the State has stood by it since 1873. It is these consistent men, whose Democracy was learned in the schools of Jefferson and Jackson, whom the Republicans fear. Hence they hold them up to ridicule and contempt, and seek to destroy their influence by wanton misrepresentation. You rarely see one of these fellows criticize a gold bug Democrat for the reason that they know their policy is helpful to Republican success. The man they attack are the men they fear.

[The above is an editorial in Tuesday's Raleigh News and Observer. THE STANDARD cannot see, for the life of it, what good such articles can do the Democratic party. It held up some of the most prominent workers and unblemished characters to the ridicule of the public. Such is not conducive to harmony; and my Lord, it is harmony that is needed at this time.]

IF DEMOCRACY SAYS OVERMAN, ALLRIGHT.

Yesterday's STANDARD tells how Hon. Lee S Overman was taken at Lynchburg, Va., by a colored woman for a conductor. Go slow Professor. This is evidently a scheme hatched by your fertile brain to side track Overman for governor and make him a railroad conductor. And we will expose the plot in all of its envy if you don't let up.—Salisbury World.

[It's a true bill, certain. Mr. Overman enjoyed it and we are here to testify that he answered the dusky maid's questions courteously—indeed more so than any conductor on the Virginia Midland railroad would do, and Mr. Overman certainly knew he was out of the State of North Carolina. He's not like a Charlotte candidate for mayor, who buttonholed a Cabarrus colored sovereign and fixed him, but afterwards, finding out the negro to be no Charlotte voter, cussed him. Mr. Overman, the true gentleman that he is, will not allow no one to outdo him in politeness.

No, we have no plot. There's no crime for any man to aspire to the Governorship. But we are not in the manufacturing business—this the people will do. It is before them we must all take our claims and get them audited, We are not making or unmaking candidates.]

Notwithstanding the efforts of the Chinese and Japanese officials to suppress the news in regard to the cholera, the truth has at last come to light concerning the plague. Japan and North China are fairly alive with cholera germs. Siberian officials have declared Japanese open ports infected, and from official sources it is learned that over 17-000 people have died in Japan from the plague since its start in the Pescadore. In China the disease has gained a firm foothold. Advices by the Steamer Rio Janerio report that in Tokio the heat is terrific, and the disease germs have been nursed by the climate into virulent life.

In another column we print a clipping from the Statesville Landmark about the assignment. The break is even worse than at first expected. But like all failures, there is a sadness about this. Wallace Bros. have done too much good to come to all this.

The Discovery Saved His Life.

Mr. G. Cailhouette, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We won't keep keep store or house without it." Get a free trial bottle at Fetzer's Drug Store.

CANCER CURED

—AND A—

LIFE SAVED

By the Persistent Use of

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

"I was troubled for years with a sore on my knee, which several physicians, who treated me, called a cancer, assuring me that nothing could be done to save my life. As a last resort, I was induced to try Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, after taking a number of bottles, the sore began to disappear and my general health improve. I persisted in this treatment, until the sore was entirely healed. Since then, I use Ayer's Sarsaparilla occasionally as a tonic and blood-purifier, and, indeed, it seems as though I could not keep house without it."—Mrs. S. A. FIELDS, Bloomfield, Ia.
