

Daily Concord Standard.

Vol. XI.—No. 123.

CONCORD, N. C., THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 26, 1895.

WHOLE NO. 1301

Concord National Bank.
CONCORD, N. C.

President, J. M. ODELL.
Cashier, D. B. COLTRANE.
Assistant Cashier, L. D. COLTRANE.

Capital, $50,000
Surplus, $16,000

—DIRECTORS:—
J. M. ODELL, D. F. CANNON
D. B. COLTRANE, J. W. CANNON
E. M. KING, W. H. LILLY,
W. R. ODELL, D. B. COLTRANE.

Speculation,
HAMMOND & CO.
Stock and Bond Brokers.

130 & 132 Pearl Street,
NEW YORK CITY, N. Y.

Stocks, Bonds and Grain bought and sold, or carried on Margin.
P. S.—Send for explanatory circular on speculation, also weekly market letter. (Free) dwly

KLUTZ'S MEAT MARKET.
(LITAKER'S CORNER)

I have opened my MEAT MARKET in the Litaker basement, formerly occupied by Swink & Daywalt. When you want nice, fresh meats, beef, pork, mutton, etc., call on or send in your orders to S. L. KLUTZ. P. S. I am in the market when beef cattle and hogs are for sale.

Clall Manufacturing Co.,

MANUFACTURERS OF FINE GINGHAMS,
OUTING CLOTHS,
PLAIDS, SHEETING AND SALT BAGS.

DEALERS IN

General Merchandise.

BUYERS OF Country Produce of all Kind

— AND —
Four-Foot wood always wanted—best prices for same. We invite an inspection of all the goods we Manufacture.

Clall Manufacturing Co.

WAS HE STARVED?

The Boys Tell a Bad Story On the Oxford Asylum at Oxford. Can it all Be True?

Mrs. A C James, of Mt. Pleasant, was in the city today, to meet her two little children who arrived on the noon train from the Oxford Asylum.

Arthur and Walter, aged 12 and 9 years respectively, are the names of the boys. If what they tell be true, the conduct of the Oxford Asylum needs immediate investigation. The treatment said to have been given these children is not only not humane, but cruel, very cruel.

They claim that they did not get enough to eat, that they actually suffered for food. Arthur, according to his statement, together with six others, ran away six weeks ago. They went to Youngville, thirty miles distant. One of these boys has been at the asylum for six years and grew so tired of the treatment he could stand it no longer. For five weeks and two days these boys were away, the authorities knowing nothing of their whereabouts; neither were the parents notified of their escape. Mrs. James knew nothing of the matter until today.

Hearing that her children were so dissatisfied with their treatment, she wrote Mr. Lawrence to let them come home; whereupon he simply replied that "nothing would please him better," and instructed her to get an order from the Master of the Mt. Pleasant Masonic Lodge.

Walter's story is a sad one. He's thin and weak. His arms are no larger than a grown person's thumb; his legs have dwindled away until you can reach around them with two fingers. He's not sick—his eyes are bright—and yet he's so weak he can neither stand or sit up. The first thing he said, when reaching the parsonage (they stopped with Rev. Scherer before going out to Mt. Pleasant) "won't you please give me something to eat, I'm so hungry." The little boy's story (as he lay there the picture of hunger and weakness) was indeed a pitiable one. He said he was not sick and had not been; that they didn't give him enough to eat nor even enough water to drink.

THE STANDARD does not know that these boys have told a correct story, but its reporter gives what they say, and sees that little Walter, while not sick, is too weak to walk or sit up. He said they ate green fruit and even dried green walnuts to eat.

Has the Oxford Orphan Asylum come to this? Can all this be true? If it is, there must in the name of humanity be an investigation; if not Mr. Lawrence will have an opportunity to correct the statements that have been going around for some weeks, that do not speak well of the institution's management.

THE STANDARD can not believe that Mr. Lawrence knows this; if it exists at all, it must be without his knowledge.

Don't Wear Ready Made Clothes.

We represent B. Stem & Son, one of the best tailoring establishments in New York on nice goods. Suits made to order and fit guaranteed from $13.50 and up. We are showing a handsome line of samples. We pay all express charges. tf

LOWE & SON.

THAT FATAL HILL

Is the Place of Another Accident—Mr. John Gray Hurt by Jumping from a Buggy.

About 2 o'clock this afternoon a rumor was current that a man had been thrown from a buggy and seriously hurt but it was some time before an account of it could be obtained.

Wednesday Messrs Louis Bonds and John Gray went to the country, driving Mr. Bond's mule. On their return this afternoon, when reaching that fatal hill beyond the depot at Brown's cotton gin, the mule became frightened and ran. Realizing the fact that the waywardness of a stubborn mule was dangerous, Gray jumped from the buggy and fell, striking his head upon a rock. He was unconscious for a while, but he is all right now. Bonds was not hurt, having remained in the buggy and trusted to Providence and his faithful "Kit."

You May Know Them.

Her numerous friends will be glad to know that Miss Nannie Cannon is some better today.

Dr. N D Fetzer is confined to his home today.

Mr. Herbert Cook is now considered out of danger and is able to sit up.

Mr. Morrison H Caldwell became suddenly sick on the street this morning and had to be taken home. He has been very unwell, but not down, for several days.

Rev. Dr. J H Thornwell, we learn, is lying at the point of death at his home at Fort Mills, S. C.

A Half-Page Advertisement.

THE STANDARD has closed a trade with Lowe & Son for a half page advertisement, to begin next Tuesday.

This enterprising firm believes in printer's ink; they believe if you want to sell goods the public must be advised about it and invited.

This firm will put on the market great bargains within easy reach.

Had a Great Memory.

When Gov. Carr of North Carolina was a boy he used to go to preaching Sunday mornings and in the afternoon the negroes on his father's plantation would assemble in a grove near the house and, and young Carr would repeat the sermon he had heard in the morning, much to the edification and comfort of the darkies.—Danyille Register.

[The Register neglected to say whether Gov. Carr's sermonettes to the darkies, etc., of the last Legislature were a source of edification and comfort.]

Oregon Horses Here Friday.

I was here two years ago with Oregon horses. Those I bring here for sale Friday are even better than those I had two years ago. I desire to show you one of the finest lots of Western horses ever brought to the Southern market. The majority of them are from 3 to 6 years old, of all sizes. These horses must be sold and buyers may expect great bargains.

You will hear on the streets the place of exhibit—which is now not known.

Now's your chance for a cheap horse that will grow into money.

Yours Respectfully,
J. J. JOHNSON.

LOWE & SON.

SHE WAS FOOLED.

Little Miss Newsom, Who Eloped with Her Lover Returned Home With a Broken Heart and a Wrecked Mind

In the World of September 9th, was an account of how little sixteen year old Fannie Newsom had eloped with her lover and deserted her home. September 7th she left Salisbury a bright-eyed, intelligent happy little girl; last night she returned with a broken heart, eyes from which the light of reason had well nigh fled and a tale of suffering and neglect.

In the intervals when she can talk she tells how Ed Goodman seduced her from the shelter of her father's roof with promises of eternal fidelity and an easy life. But no sooner were they married than he began to neglect her. He refused to work and was entirely dependent on his kinspeople for sustenance.

Neglect was followed by cruelty and in the agony of hopeless despair she begged him to take her home. "Let me go back to my father," she said, "and I will never molest you." But he refused to aid her and she procured means elsewhere and came in last night. It is a sad story. It is feared that she will not recover her reason as her grief has passed into a state of settled melancholia. Mr. Newsom has employed Mr. Wm. Means, of Concord, and Capt. Chas. Price, of this city, to prosecute both Goodman and the Register of Deeds of Cabarrus county.—Salisbury World.

Dodsworth-Young Marriage.

The society event of the season was the marriage, Wednesday night, in the First Presbyterian church of Charlotte, of Miss Mary Moore Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Young, and Mr. Lawrence Dodsworth.

The presents were numerous and costly. A large number witnessed the interesting ceremony by Rev. Dr. Preston, many of whom were from a distance.

The Next Convention at Baltimore.

The twenty-second annual convention of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union will be held in Music Hall, Baltimore, Oct. 18-23. Reduced railroad rates have been secured and delegates and visitors can make the trip for full fare going and one-third fare returning, tickets good from October 15th to 26th inclusive.

Bitten By a Copperhead.

Tuesday afternoon while Mr. C W Sides was working in the field on the plantation of Mr. Dan Feil, a few miles northeast of the city, a large copperhead sprang upon him, biting him on three fingers. He was in the city on Wednesday, telling of his experience. His hand is a horrible looking piece of flesh and no doubt the snake bite may be a serious thing. Mr. Sides says it was the largest copperhead he had ever seen.

One advantage of taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla to purify the blood is that you need not infringe upon your hours of labor nor deny yourself any food that agrees with you. In a word, you are not compelled to starve or loaf while taking it. These recommendations are worth considering.

For Sale.

Jump seat surry. Suitable for either one or two horses.

For sale by a25 tf. LOWE & SON.

FIRE INSURANCE.

Having transferred my Fire Insurance business to Messrs. H I Woodhouse and B E Harris, I commend them to any who may be in need of fire insurance, and bespeak for them a liberal patronage.
Respectfully,
J. W. BURKHEAD.

We have assumed the Fire Insurance business of Mr. J. W. Burkhead, comprising the agencies for several first-class and well established companies, and respectfully solicit a liberal share of business in that line.
WOODHOUSE & HARRIS.
August 26. tf

FURNITURE!

COFFINS & C.

I have now in stock at my rooms opposite the court house, a splendid line of well-made Furniture such as

Bed Steads, Tables,
Wash Stands Safes,
Chairs, &c.

I defy competition in regard to quality and price. You will be surprised when you hear my prices. Come and see. If not in stock can supply you in a few days. I have a nice line of

COFFINS

at prices that will surprise you. I keep a full line on hand for immediate supply. I buy and run my planing machine, and all persons who wish any thing in this line, will do well to call and see me.

LUMBER

Very Respectfully,

J. T. Pounds.

Concord, N. C. July 13, 1895.

Mount Amoena SEMINARY

A Flourishing School for Young Ladies.
TEN TEACHERS.
Ornamental Branches Receive Careful Attention.
REV. C. L. T. FISHER, A. M.
PRINCIPAL.
MOUNT PLEASANT, N. C.

GROVES

TASTELESS CHILL TONIC

IS JUST AS GOOD FOR ADULTS. WARRANTED. PRICE 50 cts.

GALATIA, ILLS., Nov. 16, 1893.
Paris Medicne Co., St. Louis, Mo.
Gentlemen—We sold last year, 600 bottles of GROVES' TASTELESS CHILL TONIC and have bought three gross already this year. In all our experience of 14 years, in the drug business, have never sold an article that gave such universal satisfaction as your Tonic. Yours truly,
ABNEY, CARR & CO.

For sale by all druggists.