TRUE BILLS BY GRAND JURY

Against Brown and Satterfield—The Principal and Engrossing Clerks of the Fred Douglass House Must Stand Trial for Fraud in Connection With the Assignment Act.

RALEIGH, Sept. 28.—This afternoon the grand jury of Wake Superior Court returned a true bill against S P Satterfield, principal clerk of the lower house in the last legislature, and J W Brown, engrossing clerk, for fraud in connection with the much talked of assignment act. Three witnesses were before the grand jury, these being Chief Clerk Batchelor, of the Department of State; State Librarian Ellington and R L Smith, member of the lower house from Stanly. Miss Daisy Branson, of Atlanta, was marked as a witness but did not appear, being at Atlanta. There are seven counts in the indictment against Satterfield. One charges that he wilfully, knowingly, corruptly and fraudulently delivered to Brown the assignment act, the same never having been passed by either house, but which had been tabled prior to the date when thus delivered. Another count charges that Satterfield violated the true intent and meaning of his oath by delivering for enrollment an act which had never been passed, and that that fact was well known to Brown. The other counts set forth the offense in different forms. The bill against Brown has several counts, and finds that he corruptly, fraudulently and knowingly enrolled the bill, which had never passed. Capias will be issued for both Brown and Satterfield, and they will be regularly taken under it and brought here and required to give bond to the sheriff for their appearance at the January term of court. Failing to do this, they will go to jail.

Window Fell on His Hand.

Master Emerson Davis, the little 3-year-old son of Rev. and Mrs. B F Davis, accidentally knocked the prop from underneath a window sash, which fell on the little fellow's hand and right seriously hurt it. He was at home and alone, his parents having been at the church, only a few yards away.

Masonic Meeting.

There will be a regular communication of Stokes Lodge No. 32, A. F. & A. M., Monday night, Sept. 30, 1895. By order of W. M.

S. J. LOWE, Secy.

Mr. Goodman and His "Oregon."

On Saturday last Mr. Jim Goodman, of No. 4 township, purchased an Oregon horse. He managed the animal very successfully until reaching the cemetery, when the horse began bucking and pawing, and finally worked its halter off. The horse ran loose in the McDonald wood until this (Monday) morning, when it was caught, brought back to town and took a new start.

A Household Treasure.

D W Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best of results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable, O A Dykeman, druggist Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles Free at Fetzer's Drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

A SAD STORY.

The Father of the Girl Whom Ed Goodman Married Writes a Card.

THE STANDARD has already published the fact of the runaway marriage and separation of Ed Goodman, of this county, and the daughter of Mr. A H Newsom, who makes a statement in Saturday's Salisbury Herald:

"On the 7th day of September Ed Goodman, of Cabarrus county, stole my daughter who is under age, took her to his county and obtained license under false pretence. It was the persuasion of Thomas Foil and wife that induced my daughter to marry Goodman, who is a scoundrel, rogue and tramp. He made false representations to my daughter. She soon found out that she was fooled and declined to have him but he forced her to marry him against her will. He carried a pistol with him and kept it under his head and threatened my daughter's life. He abused her after marriage and left her in a strange country by her lone self. She would not live with him and said she would take her clothing and come home. He cursed her and told her to take the clothes but only gave her a part of them. He is inhuman and brutish. Such wretch is not worthy of anybody.

"My daughter is now a fit subject for an asylum. Trouble and sorrow are in store for us all. She is ruined and disappointed for life and I entertain but little hopes for recovery. Her mind is wrecked, perhaps forever."

These are substantially the facts. Mr. Newsom warns other young girls not to make the same mistake as his unfortunate daughter. He compliments Register of Deeds Woodson for his care in issuing licenses and condemns the action of Register of Deeds Weddinton of Cabarrus county.

In conversation with the Herald Mr. Newsom said he was going to indict Goodman for larceny and abduction and the Cabarrus Register of Deeds for issuing the license. Had his daughter desired to live with the man who so basely betrayed her he would have said nothing. Since she came home her condition is only slightly improved. Her mind comes and goes, she being at times rational and then raving. His story is indeed a pitiful one.—Salisbury Herald.

Rev. McCullough Has Accepted.

It will be remembered [that some time ago a call was extended to Rev. H A McCullough, of Leesville. S. C., to the pastorate of the St. Andrews Lutheran charge at this place, to succeed Rev. J D Shealy, who returns to his former pastorate of the Union charge in Lexington county, S. C., immediately after the fourth Sunday in October, when his time will then have expired. We regret much to lose Rev. Shealy, who has endeared himself to the community and to his own people, but there is a hearty welcome for Rev. McCullough, who is to come among us, having accepted the call, and will enter upon the duties of this, his new charge, about November 1.

Mr. John Taylor Done With 'Em.

Mr. John Taylor, of No. 2, came in to-day and subscribed. He said he had been reading Populistic and inflaming stuff until he's disgusted with the whole shebang. He said he voted the Populist ticket last fall, but can't do so any more. "I am back in the Democratic party," said he, "and I feel better. My eyes are open. I can't stand this putting negroes into office. It is nothing but a game of politicians into whose hands they want us to play blindfolded."

Mr. Taylor has done a big thing. It is hard for a man to voluntarily acknowledge himself as having been wrong—but it takes a man to make such a confession.

Beats His Wife.

The Charlotte Observer of Sunday says: "William Daniels, white was locked up last night for being drunk and abusing his wife. She was beat black and blue. Daniels, it will be remembered, kept a boarding house opposite the city hall."

THE STANDARD fears this is the one that lived in Mt. Pleasant. My Lord! has he come to this?

Settling Up the Barrier Estate.

Mr. Chas. Duls, executor of the late Captain Barrier, has about settled up the estate. His trip to Virginia last week was to dispose of the property there, which he did. Saturday he sold half an interest in the Barrier plantation near the city to Mr. T J Davis for $500, crops reserved; also two lots on Tenth street. The money from the sale of all property belonging to the estate, goes to the Theological Seminary of the United Synod of the Lutheran church.—Charlotte Observer.

[Capt. Barrier, it will be remembered, was a native of Eastern Cabarrus, being the eldest child of the late Daniel Barrier.]
