A SERIOUS CHARGE.
A Prominent Citizen of Davidson is Accused of a Crime.
 Mr. Phillip Sowers, who is in town today, tells us of a grave offence laid at the door of a prominent citizen of Davidson county. The sixteen year old daughter of Matthews Brooks who lives on Addison Fitzgerald's plantation just across the river, claims that her father's landlord forced her to submit to him. This she states was last July. At the time of its occurrence she told her mother of it, but they agreed to say nothing to her father about it fearing that bloodshed might result. Last week Mr. Fitzgerald and Brooks had some disagreement which resulted in the former authorizing Brooks to leave his plantation. On Saturday the young girl told her father of the whole affair which had occurred in July and he immediately applied for a warrant for Fitzgerald's arrest. This is the version of the affair as told by Brooks, and it may be instigated by malice over his ejection. At the least, circumstances appear very damaging against Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. Fitzgerald claims that no violence was used and that nothing involuntary appeared on her side. He is 56 years of age and possesses considerable means and has heretofore borne a splendid reputation with his neighbors. He is the father of Dr. Fitzgerald, of Monroe, and is known in Salisbury. The warrant was served this morning, but we have not been able to hear anything further from it.—Salisbury World.

A Surprise Wedding.
 Probably nothing more surprising has happened in Concord in a long time than the happy occasion that took place Monday night just before train time at the Presbyterian manse, when a brief love affair was wedded for future happiness by making the two participants as one, Mr. W A Caldwell having been married to Miss Margaret Earnhardt. It was a quiet affair and only very few intimate friends of the groom knew of what was going on. In the presence of a few friends who had been apprised of the event, Rev. W O Alexander in a short, but impressive ceremony married the couple, immediately after which they left on the south bound train for Atlanta to take in the Exposition. Mr. Caldwell is a son of Mr. and Mrs. D A Caldwell, and the bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P C Earnhardt, all of this city. The best wishes of a large circle of friends go with the young couple not only to Georgia's metropolis, but all through life.

How They Are.
 The latest reports from the boiler explosion wounded indicate that Mr. Safrin is steadily improving but that Mr. Bost is weaker and feverish. The gravest fears are entertained for the result of his condition.

AT PATTERSON'S HALL.
In Honor of Normal Students—A German and a reception—The Night a "Lovely" One.
 The moon, pretty faces and brilliant lights of last night were in happy union, and the german at Patterson's Hall was an event of much pleasure, to say nothing of the lovely night for such an occasion. The chivalrous youth and fair maiden abundantly enjoyed dancing to music grand until 12 o'clock, when they repaired to the home of Mr. and Mrs. James O Gibson, where the guests were entertained at supper by Miss Elizabeth Gibson. All this was in honor of Miss Craig, of Washington, D. C., and the Misses who will leave Thursday morning for the Normal school at Greensboro. The fortunate participant were: A J Yorke, Miss Nannie Craig; C L Smith, Miss Lal Hill; Ed Moss, Miss Kate Means; Joe Goodman, Miss Fannie Rogers; Ed P Hill, Miss Belle Means; Mr. Lee Dore, of Florida, Miss Jennie Smith; Maury Richmond, Miss Elizabeth Gibson; C Richmond Montgomery, Miss Emily Gibson; John F Yorke, Miss Sallie Erwin; Chal White, Miss Mary White Fetzer. Stags: Frank Smith and Earl Brown. Chamberones: Mr. and Mrs. E C Beach, Mr. and Mrs. J F Hurley, Mesdames R E Gibson, Laura Moss, Mac Davis.

Ninety-Three Dollars and a Valise Lost.

Mr. H T Yow, a resident of this city and for five months past an operative in the Odell mills got on a pretty good "jag" Monday night and was being piloted over the city by a certain colored man. Mr. Yow had in his possession when leaving his home about 9 o'clock $93 in cash, principally bills, and a small valise, but when he returned in the wee sems hours he was minus both money and valise.

Policeman Fisher was on to Yow and the negro, and if the money is not returned, some one may have to answer for a robbery. Yow is altogether ignorant of what become of his money, valise or himself, so goes the story.

'Squire Wolfe Throws Out the Gauntlet to Cotton-Pickers.

The yellow negro cotton harvester, Joe Redfearn, on 'Squire C H Wolfe's place, near the city, is still mending his record. A few days ago he picked in nine and one-half hours 409 pounds, averaging 45 1/2 pounds per hour. The following day he picked 388 pounds. 'Squire Wolfe wants to know who has one that can beat him. He throws out the challenge.—Charlotte Observer.

[This simply ain't so. No man in this country can pick 409 pounds in a day. This writer was regarded a good farmer years ago and the most he could pick was ninety three pounds and then only at a backache cost.]

A Household Treasure.

D W Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best of results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable, C A Dykeman, druggist Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at Fetzer's Drug store. Regular size 50c. and $1.00.

Now Men, See How You Erred.

The Reidsville Review, a most excellent weekly, says editorially:

"Three of the most amiable, kind and appreciative members of the newspaper fraternity in this State are: Messrs. Henry Blount, of the Wilson Mirror, Thad R Manning, of the Henderson Gold Leaf, and A Rostower, of the Goldsboro Headlight. Their friendly and fraternal feeling is proverbial and their courtesy upon all occasions is knightly. The editor of the Review has been made their debtor overwhelmingly recently for gracious and gratuitous complimentary notices, entirely uncalled for and wholly undeserved."
