THE STRENGTH OF SPOT COTTON.

The Demand Likely to Increase and Prices Go Higher.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—A special to the Charlotte Observer says: As an evidence of the strength of spot cotton in the South, October contracts at New Orleans were selling today at 3 16 higher than the official quotation—something unprecedented in that market since the inauguration of the future business. It means that all the interior markets in that section are above parity with New Orleans or any of the Gulf ports on account of the prices that are being paid. These conditions seem to us likely to prevail, because the further we get in the season the more active will be the demand by domestic and foreign spinners, as in a few weeks it will become apparent to the cotton world how very small the out-turn of the crop promises to be. Without wishing to be sensational, it looks as though, in the words of New Orleans correspondent, "the cotton mills of the world will in a measure be cornered and that higher prices in consequence must prevail." ATWOOD VIOLET & CO.

Taggart's Sunday Times says: "The Arch was crowded all last week with people anxious to see "Only a Farmer's Daughter." The company presenting it was an excellent one and the stage mountings were all that could be wished." Tonight at Opera House; tickets on sale at Gibson's drug store.

DR. G. C. USGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHELOR,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
