BLACK DEFEATS WATSON.

Populist Again Showed Under in the Tenth Congressional District.

ATLANTA, Ga., Oct. 3.—The official returns show that Maj. J. C. Black, Democrat, defeats Thomas E. Watson, Populist, for Congress in the tenth district by a majority of 1,341.

The election yesterday was one of the quietest ever held in Georgia, a striking contrast to the one held just seven months ago. At that time three prominent men were killed in the streets of Augusta and petty rows occurred throughout the several counties.

Watson claimed that the election was unfair, and Black in defence to Watson's views, resigned. The special election yesterday was honest in every sense. New registration laws were respected in most counties, and the majority for Black shows that the district is Democratic on a clean ballot.

Watson lost in most of the counties from his vote of 1894, and over a hundred votes in McDuffie, his own county.

Vasco Goodnight Dead.

Vasco Goodnight, of No. 3, died Friday night at the home of his brother.

He had been sick of consumption for a year. His age was about 35 years.

Mr. Bost, the Explosion Victim Dead.

Mr. John Bost, the aged man who was one of the unfortunate victims in the boiler explosion at Saffrits planing mill on September 11, 1895, whose skull was so terribly crushed, died Friday night. No hope was entertained for his recovery from the time of the accident and it is almost wonderful that he survived so long as he did.

Only A Farmers Daughter

Was played to a small house, Friday night. Some parts were good and touching and many of the players rank with the very best on the road.

If Concord would more liberally patronize such entertainments, we would soon have some first class entertainments.

Fixing the Ticket.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Charlotte Observer writes this:

"Last night in Senator Pritchard's room at the Park there was quite a gathering of fusionists. They decided among themselves that there would be no Reed or McKinley electors in the State; that the electoral ticket would be an independent Populist-Republican free silver ticket pledged to support only a nominee for President who favored the free coinage of silver 16 to 1."

Ought to Be Bumped.

Those boys who are so victimized to the use of cigarettes that they can't do without them for only a few minutes, between acts for instance, should not be allowed to enter a sideshow, to say nothing of a first class or well managed theater, where are usually found ladies and gentlemen of refinement and culture. Friday night at the opera house several boys who were in the rear end of the house puffed and fumed at their cigarettes, which was very annoying to all naive to the audience. It's a good thing when such is allowed.
The boys ought to have been taken out and bumped.

Dwelling House Burned—Total Loss.

Mr. M. A. Barner, familiarly known as "Doc," who lives within a mile of Misenheimer & Lentz's Springs, lost his dwelling house, last Thursday, by fire.

No one was at home but two little girls—the parents being off on a visit. About 9 o'clock the little girl went in to make a fire in the cook stove; she then discovered that the whole overhead ceiling was on fire. She attempted to extinguish the flames. She sent her little sister to a neighbors for help. Before any help came the house was too much enveloped in flames to save but little household effects. It is a heavy loss to Mr. Barner, besides a newly picked bale of cotton was burned.
The neighbors are going to his rescue to aid him in building another house.

Company G, Attention!

Your monthly inspection will be held at your Armory on Monday evening, October 7, at 8 o'clock.
You are requested to report.

W. S. BINGHAM, Captain.

Receipts and Prices.

Although for several days there has been a slight decline in the price of cotton, it continues to come in rapidly. The price has advanced, however, about ten points, it now bringing 8.75 with prospects for a rise. There were about 125 bales on the market to-day. Cotton-weigher Biggers is kept pretty busy.

Out of Jail

Mr. J. W. Meacham, former editor of the Wilmington Dispatch, was in the city yesterday. He was put in jail some weeks ago upon the charge of having written a libelous article about Major Fishplate. He gave bond at first, but his bondsmen withdrew and he had to stay in jail until court. The case came up for a hearing this week. Mr. Fishplate did not prosecute and the case was dismissed.

"We had the dead wood on Fish-plate," said Mr. Meacham yesterday and the case was not prosecuted.
Mr. Meacham hopes to get work in Raleigh. He has two children in Warrenton, and hopes to be able to remain near them and stay in the in the State.—Raleigh Observer.

Coon Hunters Killed.

MONTPELIER, Ind., Oct. 4.—Andrew Cain and William Grose, coon hunters, lost their lives in a peculiar manner near here early this morning. The men had built a fire over some nitro-glycerine that had been buried in the ground. An explosion followed, which blew both men to atoms. Large trees near by were torn out by the roots, and pieces of flesh and clothing were hanging from the limbs. It is not known how the cans came to be buried. There is a nitro-glycerine magazine near the scene of the accident.

Shot His Faithless Wife.

CHICAGO, Oct. 4.—Edward Moe, a prosperous tradesman, shot and fatally injured his wife today at a North Market street hotel, to which she had gone with Peter Nelson, a friend of her husband. Moe had been informed of the intended meeting of the couple and followed them to the hotel. Breaking down the door of their room, he immediately began firing, emptying his revolver at his wife, Nelson meanwhile making his escape.

THEY USE DYNAMITE.

Neighbors Emphasize Their Demand in a Very Forceful Manner.

Mr. H. A. Lynch, mail carrier on the stare route to Rowan Postoffice, this county, tells us the particulars of an episode which happened along his route Tuesday.

Beck Henry, a dissolute woman, living with her two children two and a half miles from Rowan, had been asked to vacate and she refused.

Tuesday she was waited upon by several neighbors who demanded that she leave the community. She would not leave, but went over to her father's house several miles away to tell of the visitors and their demands. While she was gone her two children were coaxed out into the woods and several dynamites placed under the house.

The explosion that followed was heard half mile.

The woman's bed was torn to pieces and several logs knocked out of the side of the house. She returned to find it in this condition and it is not likely that she will remain in the neighborhood. The people in the neighborhood of Rowan are quite and peaceable disposed as a general thing, but they have determined to rid the community of this disreputable character.—Salisbury World.

Baptist churches of Mecklenburg and Cabarrus counties will meet

Oh, My.

Mr. R. D. Hunter, of Clear Creek, picked on Thursday, 368 pounds of seed cotton. Col. Mungo says he'd like to know who can beat that.— Charlotte Observer.

[That's nothing; Col. Bill Snobs of No. 10, picked 736 pounds, just twice as much.]
