MURDERED BY A MOB.

The Terrible Torture of a Young Negro Rapist in Tennessee—Was Literally Shot to Pieces.

CHATTANOOGA, Tenn., Oct. 5.—The details of the lynching of Neal Smith, the negro rapist at Coal City, which fact was reported last night are as follows:

Smith was taken from the stockade used for confining prisoners by a mob of not less than two hundred men. The sheriff and jailer, Ed. Cox, with several men, were on guard, but the crowd refused to listen to reason, and threatened to tear down the stockade and burn it unless Smith was delivered. Smith was then turned over to the crowd, who led him to a point near where the assault was committed.

He confessed his guilt and was then treated to a torture unparalleled in history.

After being mutilated in a frightful manner by the father, Wm. Henderson, who subsequently cut off the negro's ears, he was seized and held while one of the crowd pounded his fingers, joint by joint, one finger at a time, until the hand was one shapeless mass of bloody jelly.

This was because in the struggle to subdue Mias Henderson he had bitten off one of her fingers. Each man in the crowd then took a turn at shooting at him, until, when he died, he must have had four or five pounds of lead in him.

He was literally shot to pieces, and the bloody pulp which only an hour before had been Neal Smith, was thrown into a hastily prepared pile of brush wood and burned until not a scrap of bone remained.

Hiss Henderson, his victim, is in a dying condition.

Company G, Attention!

Your monthly inspection will be held at your Armory on Monday evening, October 7, at 8 o'clock. You are requested to report.

W. S. BINGHAM, Captain.

Stacking the Boilers.

The two big boilers have been fixed in their proper places at the Buffalo thread mill and within less than a week, unless something unforeseen causes a delay, the machinery will be put into motion. Workmen to-day (Monday) are busily engaged in raising the 90 foot smoke stack to its proper adjustments. Many of the idlers from town spent the day out at the mill watching the unusual sight.

For Over Fifty Years.

Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over fifty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething, with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic, and is the best remedy for Diarrhoea. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Sold by Druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for "Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup," and take no other kind. mw&w

Died Saturday Last.

Mrs. William Daniels, of Charlotte, formerly of Mt. Pleasant, died last Saturday of Cancer.

Mrs. Daniels was a native of Stanly county, an excellent lady and a devoted mother. She leaves a husband and three children. Her funeral was conducted by Rev. W. A. Lutz, of Winston.

LIBERTY BELL IN VIRGINIA.

An Unseemly Incident While the Belle Was in Petersburg.

PETERSBURG, Va., Oct. 5.—An incident which occurred here this evening at a reception given to the Liberty Bell is the talk of the town to-night. A member of the Philadelphia Escort Committee leaned from the platform of the car on which the bell was rigged, and, lifting a small negro baby from the arms of its mother, strapped it in the American flag and seated it upon the beam from which the bell was hung. The incident sent a chill through the residents and although there was no hisses or other demonstration of dissatisfaction, many of them turned on their heels and walked away.

The Meeting at Forest Hill.

The protracted meeting now in progress at Forest Hill Methodist church grows more in interest at every service. Three services were held Sunday and at each one the church was crowded to its utmost capacity. Sunday night the church was packed and quite a number were not admitted for lack of room. There have been about twenty-five professions of faith of Christ, and prospects for a more profitable meeting are, indeed, encouraging. Rev. M. A. Smith, the pastor, has been unassisted during last week, but Rev. J. R. Scroggs will assist him tonight, and probably several other nights during the meeting, which will be continued through the week.

Notes From the Reed Mine.

Mr. R. W. Gadd, of the Reed mine, No. 9, was in the city. He says that cotton is short. He expected five bales, but will get only two bales.

Mr. Gadd says there is some talk of rebuilding the missionary school building that was burned down at Locust Level.

Mr. Gadd says you can see the effects of distilleries about Reed.

Shafts are being sunk at the Reed mine. Up to this time only washing has been going on.

Joe's Horse Stolen.

Sunday night old man Joe Grier saddled Bud, his faithful old bay horse and rode him to preaching at Zion Methodist church. The horse was tied on the outside, while Joe went in to worship. Whether the All Seeing took compassion on the beast and angels bore it away may never be known, but the animal can't be found in any part of the city. It is thought that some devilish boys stole and hid Joe's Bud away.

The Water Supply.

Many towns are becoming alarmed about the scarcity of water. Charlotte hasn't enough to sprinkle its streets, and other towns are more or less alarmed about the water question.

Here in Concord there is no alarm. Our water comes from good wells and the water system is backed up by an inexhaustible spring that does its do in dry as well as wet weather.

Col. James M. Means Left Today.

As heretofore stated in THE STANDARD, Col. James Means, who has been a resident of Texas for 22 years next month, arrived in Concord on Thursday morning, September 26th, on a visit to his relatives here, after an absence from Cabarrus of 18 years. He left Concord this morning on the vestibule train, No. 37, which was flagged down here for him. During his stay here he met with many friends who were much pleased to see his handsome and genial face again and the sight of whom delighted him. While his visit was to all his brothers and their wives and his only sister here, he was the guest of Col. and Mrs. Paul B. Means, and we know that everything was done there for his comfort and happiness that could be done anywhere; we are near neighbors to Paul Means and his wife and their kind, generous hospitality will make glad whomever may be their guest; we also happen to know that there exists a peculiarly close and devoted affection between Paul and James Means and we feel sure that this love for his brother, in which Mrs. Paul Means fully enters, brought all the happiness to the long absent brother that even he could expect and that the parting between them this morning was painful.

Mr. and Mrs. William G. Means gave all the family a splendid dinner and entertainment on the night of the 27th, where "brother James" was the "honored guest," and a similar feast was fully prepared at the home of Col. Paul Means and wife on the night of the 28th ult., but Col. James Means sprained his ankle seriously about 4 o'clock on that afternoon and the enjoyment of this feast was marred to all by the painful injury to the visiting brother; and, much to their regret, the injury prevented Mr. and Mrs. George W. Means and Mrs. Bettie Johnson from extending hospitalities they intended.

From the night of the 28th, ult., except for a short while yesterday afternoon, Col. James Means was confined to his bed—but the continuous visits of his relatives and his friends of other families to his bedroom showed that "Jim Means" was long ago and is now a general favorite here. And he left regretting that he failed to see many friends who he was anxious to meet.

Under the skillful and faithful treatment of Dr. Archey, assisted by Dr. John Reed, he was enabled to leave this morning, much sooner and in a better condition than could otherwise have been expected, considering the severity of the sprain. And whenever he can return and bring his wife with him they will find a warm welcome here at the home of his childhood and young manhood.

Free Pills.

Send your address to H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, and get a free sample box of Dr. King's New Life Pills. A trial will convince you of their merits. These pills are easy in action and are particularly effective in the cure of constipation and sick headache. For malaria and liver troubles they have been proved invaluable. They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to the stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c per box. Sold at Fetzer's Drug store.

FIRE INSURANCE.

Having transferred my Fire Insurance business to Messrs. H. I. Woodhouse and B. E. Harris, I commend them to any who may be in need of fire insurance, and bespeak for them a liberal patronage.

Respectfully,
J. W. BURKHEAD.

We have assumed the Fire Insurance business of Mr. J. W. Burkhead, comprising the agencies for several first-class and well established companies, and respectfully solicit a liberal share of business in that line.
