AMELIE RIVES TALKS.

Doesn't Know Where Her Ex-Husband Is, But Thinks He is in North Carolina—She Hasn't Seen Much of Him He Owns the Place Adjoining Her Father's, But They Have Been Together Very Little.

CHARLOTTEVILLE, Va., Oct. 12.—Mrs. Amelia Rives Chanler was seen at the Rives home, Castle Hill, fifteen miles from Charlottesville, and questioned as to the cause which led her to secure a divorce from Jno. Armstrong Chanler. She said there was really nothing to say beyond what had already appeared in the papers.

"The public," Mrs. Chanler laughingly said, "will be grievously disappointed when the evidence in the case is given out. There is nothing of a sensational character about it. My lawyer will give out any information proper for publication."

"Where was the decree granted?" was asked.

"I must decline to answer," said Mrs. Chanler. "I will not say anything more than has been published."

In reply to another question, Mrs. Chanler said that it was some time ago that the divorce was granted and that Mr. Chanler has been represented at the trial.

"But," she added, "there was really no defense he could make."

Later on she said: "Mr. Chanler and I are the best of friends, but we have seen very little of each other for years. He owns the place adjoining Castle Hill and spends a great deal of time on it, but I have never lived there."

Mrs. Chanler said she had no plans for the future.

"Just now I am living at Castle Hill, riding and driving and enjoying the country," she concluded.

Mrs. Chanler said she did not know where Mr. Chanler was, but thought he was in North Carolina.

Will Close Down Next Monday for One Week.

Several days ago THE STANDARD stated that in all probability the white graded school would close down for a week, in order that the teachers could take a trip to the Atlanta Exposition during the educational week. It has been decided to shut down on Friday of this week until Monday, October 28. It is thought all the teachers but two will go.

Gone to Atlanta.

Mr. H P Deaton, one of THE STANDARD's reporters, has gone to Atlanta for a week to see the exposition and whatever else that attracts him. For one year and over he has been regularly at work without missing more than two days.

THE STANDARD wishes him a pleasant and profitable trip and that he may immortalize himself in finding the beauty in the Mystic Maze.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1 per bottle at Fetzer's Drug store.

OUTRAGE IN CABAREUS.

A Black Son of Ham Assaults a White Woman—He Enters a Window and Threatens to Brand Her if Alarm Was Given—Chalmer Plott is the Criminal's Name, While That of the Outraged is Mrs. John Faggart, A Widow Lady.

While the night was still and the five little helpless children of Mrs. John Faggart, widow of the late John Faggart, of No. 9 township, were sweetly slumbering Friday night last, Chalmer Plott, a mulatto, round-faced dare-devil negro, quietly entered the room of the defenseless mother by means of a window, went to her bed and awakened her. By threatening to brand her to death he made her humbly submit to his hellish wishes. The dastardly crime was committed about 1 o'clock at night. After the depraved negro had accomplished his awful deed, he left the woman and the premises, taking to the wood. When he was fairly gone Mrs. Faggart went to the home of her brother, Jim Johnston, who lives near her, and told him of the outrage. Jim, with his brother, Bob Johnston, and three other white men formed the band which captured the negro in a tree on which was a grape vine, perched upon a limb eating grapes. The negro was very quiet and came to town without any demonstration and was lodged in jail about 9 o'clock Saturday night to await his trial. He denied the charge until Sunday morning, when he confessed to having done the deed, to Jailer Hill, Chief of Police Boger and others.

People in that part of the county are indignant over the affair, but are calm and there is no fear of us having a lynching bee.

Mrs. Faggart, upon whom the outrage was committed is a widow of probably 35 years of age and is well thought of in her section of the county.

A Truant Husband.

From the Winston Republican we get this:

"The Bible says that a man who will not provide for his family is worse than an infidel. Twenty-seven years ago Alexander Williams left this section without apparent cause, and in so doing forsook his wife and four children. His industrious and worthy wife struggled bravely and raised the children and survives, while her truant husband has been roaming the earth. The past week he returned, but his absence was preferable to his company, and after food and shelter for the night continued his journey upon advice as the best policy for him to pursue by those whom he had willfully and sadly forsaken over a quarter of a century ago."

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are samples that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Fetzer's Drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.

Over Three Score and Ten.

Mr. James M Howell, of No. 10, died Saturday and his remains were buried at Howell's Baptist church, on Sunday. He was 83 years old.

Mr. Howell is a relative of the editor of the Atlanta Constitution whose ancestors moved to Georgia, from No. 10, Cabarrus county, before the war.

Interests Many People.

This order recently promulgated by the Southern Railway concerns a number of people, with still others to hear from, if we are to judge by the number of marriages going on 'round about us.

Hereafter no baby carriages will be transported as baggage if anything is placed inside of it. The custom has been to place a cover over the carriage and then fill it up with little packages. These get lost and then there is trouble.

Goose Grease.

For hundreds of years Goose Grease has been used for rheumatism. If you want the best liniment in the world for all aches and pains, cuts and bruises go to Johnson's Drug Store and buy a bottle of Goose Grease Liniment, made from pure goose grease. Mfg. by Riverside Medicine Co., Ore Hill, N. C.

In a Sad State.

The young girl whom Ed, Goodman, of this county, married is in a sad condition. Mr. J J Newsom's daughter, of whom frequent mention has been made in the Salisbury World, is growing worse, Mr. Newsom tells us to-day. Mr. Newsom says that her condition has grown so bad that she will have to be sent to the asylum. Dr. John Whitehead has been attending her.

TRUSTEE'S SALE.

By virtue of authority vested in me by a Mortgage or Deed in Trust executed on the 30th day of November, 1892, by Jacob L. McCarns and wife, Laura McCarns, which Mortgage is duly recorded in Register's Office for Cabarrus county in Book 6, Page 555, I will sell at public auction in front of the Court House door on Monday, November 4th, to the highest bidder for cash, one tract of land adjoining L. M. Sossomon and others, and described as follows: Beginning at a willow or west bank of Rocky River, corner of L. M. Sossomon, opposite the mouth of a small branch, which is on the East side of the River, and runs with three of L. M. Sossomon's lines as follows: N 40° W. 18.80 chs. to an elm on west bank of ditch; then N. 24° W. 18 chains to a stone in the field; then N. 74° W. 34 1/2 chains to a stone in Monroe Howell's line; then N. 24° E 15 1/2 chains to a small sweet gum on the South bank of the branch, H. McLarty's corner; then with his line N. 32° E. 14 1/2 chains to a stone in the old line; then the old line S. 41° E. 61 chains to a branch on the west bank of the River, thence down the River as it meanders to the beginning containing ninety-two (92) and one half acres more or less—being part of the D M Carriker lands.
