A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Trusting Pencil Pusher.

The Delaware editors stopped over in Charlotte on Saturday night.

H M Leazer has just completed a cotton gin in No. 2, near the river.

Mr. John A. Cline was so indisposed that he was housefast on Sunday.

Mr. Murr, uncle of our Murrs in Concord, is quite sick at his home in Wadesboro.

Will Deaton is making splendid progress in placing the shafting at the G W Patterson mills.

Mr. L. Ed. Heilig, of Salisbury, who suffered by the recent fire, got $639 insurance.

Miss Maude Brown, to the delight of her friends, was out again Sunday after several weeks sickn-ss.

Mr. H M Goodman while hauling cotton Saturday, sprained his ankle so badly that he could not walk on Sunday.

Stop at D M Walker's if you want anything in the grocery and notion line. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill. ff.

Mr. R E Ridenhour has a large hog that is down with pneumonia. At least that is what the hog doctors say ails this swine.

Mr. Robt. W Gadd, Jr., who is taking a course in Liddle Machine Shop at Charlotte, spent Sunday at his home near the Reed mine.

Rev. P H E Derrick, of Mt. Pleasant, was in the city. He is making preparations to go on a business trip to his old home in South Carolina.

The Baptist Association of Mecklenburg and Cabarrus meets in Concord this week, with Rev. J O Alderman's church, on Spring street.

It is said that the mule market out west has become brisk and that the prices have gone up. T L Ritch, of Charlotte, has just returned.

D M Walker pays the highest market prices for all kind of country produce, cash or barter. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill. ff.

The Populists should plant big crops of cotton next year, so as to bring down the price. Five cent cotton is the best of campaign material.

Mr. J A Lipe, an experienced mill man who placed the machinery at the Cabarrus Roller Mills, was in the city. He is interested in the Enochville mills.

Policeman Boger suspected that a crap game was going on in the Presbyterian old graveyard, on Sunday. At the sight of him there was a scatteration of colored boys.

The hour for holding the evening service at Central M. E. church has been changed to 7 o'clock instead of 7:30, and the Sunday school hour from 9:30 a. m. to 3:30 in the afternoon.

To remove the constipated habit the only safe treatment is a course of Ayer's Pills, followed by a laxative diet. Most other cathartics do more harm than good, therefore leading physicians recommend Ayer's Pills, especially as a family physic.

Henry Ritz and C L Graber leave tonight for Burlington to attend the Fair. Ritz goes to sell lemons and taffy and Charlie Graber goes to see his pa.

Henry Johnson and family, says the Salisbury World, who have been working at the Vance Mill, left this morning for Concord. They will work at the Buffalo mills at that place.

Up till two months ago the baby in the home of a No. 6 man was 14 years old. That's not the case now—the baby of that home is now just about two months old. We have no names but speak to our genial friend, Mr. Lum Goodman.

Confusion as to the choice of a blood purifier is unnecessary. There is but one best Sarsaparilla, and that is Ayer's. This important fact was recognized at the World's Fair, Chicago, 1893, being the only blood-purifier admitted to be placed on exhibition.

The World says that Buffalo Bill lost money in Salisbury. He got just as much as his exhibit was worth. It is delightful to know that he left more in Salisbury than he took out. That kind of a "balance of trade" with such an exhibition as Buffalo Bill's is the proper and just thing.

We have had our pencil sharpened for some time ready to write up a double wedding, but the event persists in not occurring. We'd give you a hint on the subject as to who the parties are, but we've been warned not to do so and will have to take a dare this time. Hurry up, gentleman, we're out o' copy.

In a Peace Bond.
William Gadd had his brother, Mr. Robt. W Gadd arrested on Sunday. The warrant charged that Mr. Gadd had threatened to whip William Gadd. Mr. Robt. Gadd submitted and was bound to keep the peace in a $200 bond, Dr. Lisle going on the bond.

It came about this way: Mr. R W Gadd on going home from town one day last week, after hearing the rumors circulating against him and believing that his brother, Mr. William Gadd, had started them simply remarked: "If I were to meet Bill today I believe I would get off my mule and thresh him."

This is said to be all of it; and rather than stir up things Mr. Gadd preferred giving bond which he very readily did with Dr. Lisle as security.

Chalmers Plot Terribly Frightened.
The fiend that committed the terrible crime in No. 9, Friday night, is in jail. At every noise he shakes like an aspen leaf—he's frightened "almost to death."

At the trial before Esq. Smith, Saturday, he refused to deny or acknowledge any statements made. He sat dumb as an oyster. He was brought to jail, Saturday night, by guard of half a dozen men.

Attorney W. G. Means Quite Sick.
Attorney W G Means was taken ill Friday night, and since then has suffered intensely. He passed a bad, restless time all of Sunday night, but we are glad to say that he has been resting quite easy all day.

While not seriously ill, his sickness is such that unless it yields readily to medical treatment may soon become quite serious. His friends wish him a speedy recovery.

The Department of State at Washington has received a cablegram from Mr. Robert S Chilton, of that Department, dated Trebizonde, Armenia, stating that all is quiet there now.
