The Charlotte News was captivated with Buffalo Bill's show. Bill must have done better there than in Salisbury, or else the News just wanted to help the old fellow along as he got near the outer gates of the State.

Sheriff Sims started out to-day (Tuesday) on his rounds of collecting taxes, as required by law. If he succeeds as former sheriffs have in these tax-gathering rounds, he will need a body guard. Enough is usually collected to feed the horse and the sheriff begs his dinner.

To remove the constipated habit the only safe treatment is a course of Ayer's Pills, followed by a laxative diet. Most other cathartics do more harm than good, therefore leading physicians recommend Ayer's Pills, especially as a family physic.

An alarm of fire at 11 o'clock this morning brought out the fire companies and caused people generally to move around lively. A pot of tar which was being cooked at the new residence of Mr. C L Welch, on Main street, boiled over and caught fire and the thick smoke caused the alarm to be given. No damage was done.—Salisbury Herald.

Only about a dozen editors went to Atlanta on the excursion given the editors.
