STUDENTS AT WAR.

Fight at Butler University—A student is bound with a clothes line and dragged over the President's lawn.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 12.—The seniors of Butler University on Thursday night held a meeting at the residence of President Butler, whose son is a senior, and members of the under classes attempted to break it up.

Arthur Carpenter, a senior, was caught on the lawn and bound with the president's clothes line, and was being dragged away when his friends came to his rescue. A pitched battle followed. The seniors finally succeeded in dragging Carpenter into the house, where the doors were barred and the attacking party kept out.

Yesterday the seniors appeared in class with pieces of rope tied in the buttonholes of their coats as trophies of their victory, and an attempt was made by members of the under classes to divest them of the offensive badges. A scuffle followed during the first hour, but the men were finally separated.

As the seniors came downstairs at 10 o'clock they were met by a determined force, and the fight was renewed in an effort by the under class men to get the pieces of rope.

Members of the faculty rushed to the scene to separate the combatants. Several students on both sides were badly bruised in the row.

Duke Has the Most Money.

A Raleigh correspondent writes: "At noon here, at public auction, the building at Cary, formerly used as a cotton mill, was sold. It was expected it would be purchased by the Farmers' Alliance, for use as headquarters and as a shoe factory, but Ben. Duke, of Durham, overbid the Alliance bidder and recovered the building for the Cary Lumber Company at $4,275. The Alliance bidder was not authorized to bid over $4,250. It is not yet known what the Alliance will do, as it had arranged to get this particular building."

DR. G. C. OSGOOD,

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

DR. J. F. KINCHLOW,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
