BUFFALO BILL'S PRESENCE.

Some Tall Profits Made Quickly in Charlotte—It Was a Good Day—Upon the Whole, the Show Costs the People Largely.

Buffalo Bill's show was in Charlotte Monday. The management pulled them on the inside and the thieves following it worked a good business afterwards. THE STANDARD uses its clippers on the Charlotte News of Tuesday for five minutes with the following result:

"Mr. Martin Best, of Cabarrus county, came to town yesterday for the show, and brought a good roll of money with him. He and his three sons were here to-day. The old man was robbed last night. He says he lost between $75 and $90, but how or when he does not know.

A citizen of Lincoln county, who also remained in town to-day, reports to the News that his pocket was picked of $16."

"Capt. Henderlight is roadmaster of the F. C. & P. road, and was formerly in the employ of the Richmond & Danville, at Charlotte. He was here yesterday. The previous day he was in Salisbury and drew from the bank there $300. Last night he was at the Southern station here to take the train for Florida, when he made the discovery that he had lost his roll of $300. He thinks his pocket was picked by some one in the crowd at the station, as there was a great mob in the train yard."

"Mr. H. G. Link left last night for Atlanta. Just before the hour for the train to leave, he found that some one had relieved him of three tickets and $15 in cash. He got a new "outfit" and went."

Got Their Eyes Open.
Since the exposure of the Insurance frauds at Beaufort in Eastern North Carolina, the Insurance companies are putting on extra scotches and breaks. They want insurance but they don't want to insure corpses, old men at 30 etc. When an application is sent accompanied by the examining physician's "pass," the company then writes a reliable party in the community, other than the agent and physician, to know what he thinks the applicants age is; whether he could be regarded a good risk, if he drinks or deals in drinks, and if he thinks he will keep up the policy etc.

During the last month a prominent gentleman of Concord has received letters inquiring of him these matters concerning a number of leading citizens and about a gentleman in Mt. Pleasant, who has no wife to leave his insurance, when he dies.

Old People.

Old people who require medicine to regulate the bowels and kidneys will find the true remedy in Electric Bitters. This medicine does not stimulate and contains no whiskey nor other intoxicant, but acts as a tonic and alterative. It acts mildly on the stomach and bowels, adding strength and giving tone to the organs, thereby aiding Nature in the performance of the functions. Electric Bitters is an excellent appetizer and aids digestion. Old people find it just exactly what they need. Price fifty cents and $1 per bottle at Fetzner's Drug store.

Buffalo Mill Spins Now.

Buffalo Mills, the new enterprise of the Messrs. Odell out on the Southern railway, are now in a manner complete in every detail.

Today the engine was steamed up, the wheels began to turn and 3100 spindles began to sing their sweet songs.

This mill has nothing but spindles, no looms will be placed in it. And thus we are moving along.

A Nail Puts Out His Eye.

Harve Sutton, an industrious colored man working at the Cannon Mfg. Co's. Mills, happened to a painful loss Tuesday evening.

He was driving nails and not hitting one "square on the head," the nail flew up striking Sutton in one eye. The force was so great that the sight was destroyed. It is a loss and a painful one.

Something that Calls Itself God's Minister.

This week's issues of the local Pop papers contain a five column installment article by G. Ed Keesler, county treasurer, of Cabarrus, on Clevelandism vs. Christianity, being a defense of Thompson's heresy. Introducing it, the editors say: "Our editorial page this week is taken up by Mr. Keesler in defense of himself and his position against the attack of something that calls itself God's minister."

Where are the Pop's drifting?—Charlotte News.

Doctors on the Move.

Dr. Jap Anderson, son of the old Doctor at Albemarle, having recently graduated and licensed by the State Board after several months' practice at his old home, has located in Lexington, N. C. He was recently elected county physician for Stanly county.

Dr. F. E. Hartsell, who obtained his license at the late meeting of the State Medical Board and who, since then has been at Georgeville, his old home, has decided to locate in Albemarle in the early future, probably within a month. Dr. Hartsell is a clever young man with a bright future and he goes among a good people who will treat him right.

Mr. Jno. A. Rankin Sells Out.

Mr. Jno. A. Rankin, who, since the death of Mr. Jacob Stirewalt, has been conducting a mercantile business at Mill Hill, this county, has sold out to Mr. A. W. Parks, of Statesville.

Mr. Rankin makes this business change on account of his health, which is such that he can not attend to the store and his farm both.

Mr. Parks, who succeeds Mr. Rankin as merchant of Mill Hill, is a native of Mecklenburg but for the last eight years he has been a traveling salesman for the tobacco factory of Rankin Bros. of Statesville. He is a young man of about 30 and has considerable business ability. He selects a good location among a clever and well-to-do people and THE STANDARD welcomes him to the county and wishes him a prosperous career at Mill Hill.

FIRE AT EXPOSITION.

The Editors at Alhambra—Rosecover is the Mascot—An Old Cabarrus Negro in Atlanta; He Longs to See His Cabarrus White Friends.

Special to THE STANDARD.

ATLANTA, Ga., October 15—Beginning with the early trains over the Southern, Atlantic Coast and Seaboard Air Line railways, North Carolina editors began arriving in the city from all parts of the Tar Heel State, and with Col. A. K. McClure, of the Philadelphia Times, who is one of the most prominent figures in attendance upon the great Cotton States Exposition, the American Bankers Association, the Farmers' National Congress, this great Southern city is chock full of interesting persons, meetings and sights.

The editors are putting up at the hotel Alhambra, on Peachtree street, just half way between the exposition ground and the city proper, and altogether a convenient and pleasant hotel.

Rosecover, the man who runs the newspaper at Goldsboro, known as the Headlight, poses as our mascot, while Ramsey, the red-headed editor of the Progressive Farmer is our Jonah.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon all the editors, who were not "rubbernecking" at the unusual sights of a city, gathered at the State capitol building and had their living pictures taken in group form, all of which found ready sale.

At exactly 2:15 o'clock this afternoon fire broke out on the Midway, opposite the great revolving Phenix wheel, in the new building being completed for the Hagenback trained animals, destroying the entire building. Fortunately the fire did not spread.

Every nation in the world is represented at the exposition.

The trip from North Carolina to Georgia over the Southern was a delightful one and the only objection that could be raised is that the traffic is too great for the accommodations. Our train was uncomfortably crowded, especially after striking Georgia.

It was decided at the meeting of the association held this morning that the excursion to Nashville, via Chattanooga, should start tomorrow night, to be gone two days or longer.

PERSONALS.
Those of Concord's representatives who arrived this morning were, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Houston, Dr. S. J. Montgomery and Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Caldwell.

Anthony Grissom, one of the best old colored men that ever lived in Cabarrus, is here. He is with his old "Missus," Mrs. Mills, on South Pryor street and is delighted with city life, but is awfully anxious about "de white fokes in Concord and Cabarrus." H. P. D.

Two Lives Saved.

Mrs. Phoebe Thomas, of Junction City, Ill., was told by her doctors she had Consumption and that there was no hope for her, but two bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery completely cured her and she says it saved her life. Mr. Thos. Eggers, 139 Florida St., San Francisco, suffered from a dreadful cold, approaching Consumption, tried without result everything else then bought one bottle of Dr. King's New Discovery and in two weeks was cured. He is naturally thankful. It is such results, of which these are examples that prove the wonderful efficacy of this medicine in Coughs and Colds. Free trial bottles at Fetzner's Drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.
