A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hustling Pencil Pusher.

Charlotte has paid $5,000 for a crematory.

Students are still arriving for Scotia Seminary.

Some local parties believe that cotton will yet reach 12 cents.

Dr. Fetzer, after several days of illness, is again at his place of business.

Miss Mollie Swink, who lives on East Depot street, is quite sick with fever.

There will be a marriage of a Concord young lady just about Thanksgiving time.

The M. E. (Northern) Conference is in session at Greensboro. Bishop Mallaheu is presiding.

Mr. A J Yorke leaves in a few days for Texas, via Atlanta. He goes on a pleasure trip.

Mayor L M Morrison has been appointed, by the clerk of the Superior court, public administrator.

Some of the hose and reel company have placed a pool table in the firemen's hall. They have this as a kind of club.

Cards are out announcing the marriage on the 30th of this month of Miss Lizzie Bost to Mr. Samuel Garland Daniel, of Littleton, N. C.

Messrs. Frank L Smith and Jas. F Hurley spent Wednesday in Mt. Pleasant—the former recuperating and the latter talking insurance.

Stop at D M Walker's if you want anything in the grocery and notion line. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill. ff.

Mrs. M M Miller, of St. John's, left Wednesday night for Selwood, S. C., where she will spend the winter with her daughter, Rev. Mrs. Deaton.

Mr. Sam Murr returned Wednesday evening where he had gone to attend the burial of his brother, Mr. W A Murr, whose death THE STANDARD has noted.

The 8-year-old son of Mr. Ed. Johnson at Forest Hill was swinging on to a wood wagon, Wednesday. He fell and a wheel cut off two toes for the boy.

D M Walker pays the highest market prices for all kind of country produce, cash or barter. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill. ff.

Rev. Geo. H Cox, of Organ Church, who was off for a month, visiting relatives in Maine, arrived in the city last night and left for his home this afternoon.—Salisbury Herald.

Rumor persists in claiming that Clerk John Bost at the St. Cloud Hotel is to be married soon. A STANDARD reporter wanted to interview him, but Mr. Bost wouldn't interview.

A gentleman from Candor was in the city Wednesday looking after a suitable store room in which to open out a general stock of merchandise. THE STANDARD could not learn whether he succeeded or not.

Confusion as to the choice of a blood-purifier is unnecessary. There is but one best Sarsaparilla, and that is Ayer's. This important fact was recognized at the World's Fair, Chicago, 1893, being the only blood-purifier admitted to be placed on exhibition.

Mr. H O McAllister is now busy putting up a 115-foot smoke stack at the new cotton mill, being built by the Cannon Mfg. Co. When this is completed, it will not be long before the machinery will be placed.

The same cotton sack has been used twice within two weeks. Mr. Goodman handed us a tag, which he took off a bale on Wednesday—the same tag was on a bale of cotton sold last week. You see how much service the same bagging can do.

Cotton receipts for today amounted to 90 bales, the highest price paid being 9 cents. With increasing high prices and continued favorable weather for picking the farmers will have the cleanest crop of cotton for years.

Mr. John Safrin and Miss Mary Jane Laughlin were married, Wednesday night, at Cannonville, Rev. J D Shealy, officiating. The young people of the neighborhood, realizing the importance of the occasion, put up such a serenade as was most popular in anti-bellum days.

To remove the constipated habit the only safe treatment is a course of Ayer's Pills, followed by a laxative diet. Most other cathartics do more harm than good, therefore leading physicians recommend Ayer's Pills, especially as a family physic.

In another column THE STANDARD prints a letter written to the Charlotte Observer by Mr. Robt. W Gadd, of our county. It explains itself. Mr. Gadd is determined to forever set at rest the falsity of the rumors that occasionally circulate against him.

Mr. John C Wadsworth wanted a piece of chewing gum last Sunday. Since the reviving of the ordinance preventing the sale of any article on Sunday, it is impossible to make a needed purchase. Mr. Wadsworth needed this, and, securing a prescription from a physician, he got his chewing gum.

Early this morning as Master Robert Young started for a horseback ride on his pony, the animal shied, and broke the girth belt, which threw the little fellow to the ground, knocking him breathless for a few moments. He's all right now, however.

Mrs. K L Craven and Mrs. Dr. Cartland left, Wednesday night, for Baltimore, where the National W. C. T. U. will be in session for one week. Mrs. Cartland is president and Mrs. Craven is corresponding secretary of the North Carolina W. C. T. U. They go as delegates from this State.
