Ayer's Hair Vigor, which has outlived and superseded hundreds of similar preparations, is undoubtedly the most fashionable as well as well economical hair-dressing in the market. By its use, the poorest head of hair soon becomes luxuriant and beautiful.

The roof is being put on the new Cannon factory. Mr. Russell has charge of that work. The walls of this mill were built by Mr. H O McAllister, of Mt. Pleasant, and have round corners (a new thing in Concord), and are the prettiest brick work in this whole section.

Mr. Dwight Morrison, brother to Mayor L M Morrison of this city, died at his home near Mooresville, Thursday afternoon. He had been unwell for several months, but his death at that time was unexpected. Mayor Morrison and daughter, Miss Pearl, are in attendance upon the funeral.

REMAINS UNCONSCIOUS.

Mr. J. H. White Seriously Hurt by Falling Shafting at the Odell Mills Today.

While the machinery was standing still at noon today (Friday) Messrs J H White, Crawford Lyerly and John Ballard were engaged in hanging shafting in the spinning room of Mill No. 4 at the Odell factories, when the scaffold fell with the three men, Mr. J H White being seriously hurt and has since been unconscious. It is not thought that any bones were broken, but he received a terrible blow upon the head. The other men escaped with slight bruises. Mr. White is about 40 years of age and has a family. He lives in rear of the Presbyterian Chapel at Forest Hill.

Likes That Kind of Tricks.

Cleveland has been foolishly charged with, in addition to our aches and pains, the fault of having reduced the price of cotton. One Populist leader was saying to another Populist: "Cotton bringing 9 cents is only a trick of Cleveland's to fool us and stop the free coinage growth etc." "Well," said the Populist, "if that's the way Cleveland plays tricks—put up the price of cotton—then he's my man and his party is my party." The man came right in, subscribed to THE STANDARD, stating that he had stopped all his Populist literature and connections.

Just received a new lot of silverware at A J & J F Yorke's.

Jno. P Allison is selling the kind of guanoa he has made good wheat with for several years.
