REST.

What does it mean? Can any of our readers give us the definition of the word "rest?" They may have a slight idea of its meaning, but if they are like us they have never experienced it. From early morn till dewy eve we have to keep pegging away. No rest for us. If we are not doing one thing we are doing another. When a little boy we had to bring in wood and water and run errands; our little limbs would become tired; we then thought if we were only "grown up" we would sit back and enjoy ourselves, but now we have reached that point and have less rest than ever. Cares and responsibilities crowd upon us from every side, and our weary hands and fingers almost cease to perform their office, but still we must not stop. We must keep going, rain or shine. No rest for us.—Greensboro Times.

Rest is applicable only to those who are weary from exertion. Only those who "labor and are heavy laden" can have a just appreciation of this term. The drone who toils not is deprived of one of the sweetest enjoyments of life, that of refreshing rest. Life is so constituted as to require from every one exertion that intervals of repose may be properly enjoyed and justly appreciated.

Labor must be performed or life is a failure. Rest follows as a sequence. The hereafter is with the Director of Destinies.

"Look not mournfully into the past—it comes not back again. Wisely improve the present, it is thine. Go forth to meet the shadowy future with a manly heart."

JOURNALISTIC.

Just what has become of the Durham Daily Sun, this office knows not. We have not received a copy since Editor Robinson went to Atlanta. Did he take his outfit with him?

Mr. J J Stuart, of the Salisbury Truth, is in John Hopkins hospital for treatment. THE STANDARD wishes him a speedy recovery.

The North Carolina Presbyterian Synod, which meets at Fayetteville tomorrow, represents 29,000 members. Rev. W B Arrowood preaches the opening sermon.

A farmer of Oregon is proudly displaying a bunch of wheat, the growth from one grain, containing fifty-two stalks, with about 3,500 grains, while a Nebraska farmer is crowing over a five-foot cucumber, which was at last accounts still growing. There are about two tons of colic in this cucumber. This is a great country.

Wake county's real estate, as returned for taxation this year, is valued at $9,228,366. Last year it was $10,166,432.

As a married Mrs. Wood, of Weedsport, N. Y., is a hustler. She began marrying when she was 14 years old and liked it so well that she kept it up forty years, capturing in that time six husbands. Those that didn't die, or from whom she wasn't divorced, ran away. Her sixth capture she made a short time ago when she took in a 35-year-old chap with lots of money.

People would soon get rich if they got paid for all the useless things they say and do.

It is a good thing to stop when you've nothing more to say; but it is an art few comprehend.

If you should have just what you really deserved—no more, no less—would you be as happy as you are now?

They have found out in California that peach stones burn as well as coal, and give out more heat. They sell at the rate of $3 a ton.

Every man, however humble his station, or feeble his powers, exercises some influence on those who are about him for good or evil.

The New York Herald says the Democrats in New York city "are fighting for harmony" now. When they fight for harmony it generally has to come, or some one will get hurt.

The Chicago Board of Health is giving anti-toxine for diphtheria a test, and reports that out of 47 cases treated in the past sixteen days there has been but one death, and some of them were very bad cases, too.

A little girl recently arrived in a Pennsylvania town from Poland. Her waybill was a tag hung on her neck, bearing the name of the town and the person to whom she was going.

The people of St. Louis spent $2,000,000 on a crack City Hall, and are now informed that it isn't safe, not a safe investment, as it were.

The city of Philadelphia is doing a brisk business in issuing tax receipts. It is said that 46,000 were sold in one lot to one of the Republican combines.

A young woman in bloomers riding a bicycle scared a horse in New York the other day. It wasn't the bicycle but the combination that got away with the horse.

Among the articles on exhibition at a pure food show in Chicago was a 1,000 pound bar of soap. The Chicago people eat soap to aid digestion and whet the appetite.

Tannic acid extracted from the root of the palmetto is being successfully used for tanning leather in Florida.

A SPECIFIC

—FOR—
La Grippe, for Colds, Coughs,
AND LUNG TROUBLES,
AYER'S CHERRY
PECTORAL

"Two years ago, I had the grippe, and it left me with a cough which gave me no rest night or day. My family physician prescribed for me, changing the medicine as often as he found the things I had taken were not helping me, but, in spite of his attendance, I got no better. Finally, my husband,—reading one day of a gentleman who had had the grippe and was cured by taking Ayer's Cherry Pectoral,—procured, for me, a bottle of this medicine, and before I had taken half of it, I was cured. I have used the Pectoral for my children and in my family, whenever we have needed it, and have found it a specific for colds, coughs, and lung troubles."—EMILY WOOD, North St., Elkton, Md.
