A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up, and Put in Shape By Our Assistant Pencil Pusher.

Mr. D P Dayvault has a brand-new delivery wagon.

Feed your cow and family horse on good clean hay. J P Allison has clover and hay by the bale or ton for sale.

Mrs. John W Fink has accepted a position with the establishment of Lowe & Son and began her duties as saleslady this morning.

Her friends will regret to learn that Mrs. J F Willeford is quite sick at her home on East Depot street.

Parties wishing to buy wedding presents can find a big selection at the furniture store. Dry & Wadsworth.

It is said that Mr. Richard Milton and Miss Nannie Riley, both of China Grove, ran away and were married Sunday afternoon.

For handsome pictures suitable for wedding presents don't fail to go to the furniturers. Dry & Wadsworth.

Dr. and Mrs. J S Lafferty and Misses Lunette Winecoff and Belle Furr comprised a party that will leave Monday next for the Exposition.

Rumor has it that the Southern will in a few days quit selling the seven-day rate tickets to the Atlanta Exposition, the truth of which will be learned later.

Stop at D M Walker's if you want anything in the grocery and notion line. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill, ff.

It has been said by a certain person who is well posted on such matters that the greatest freak since the Siamese twins, was when Mary had a little lamb.

Fall communion services were conducted at Centre Grove (Lutheran) church in No. 4 township Sunday by the pastor, Rev. C A Marks. Two sermons were delivered during the day.

Lost—Between Jonas Cook's, at Mt. Pleasant, and Concord, a small grip. It was lost on Friday. Bears the name of W H H Mason. A reward will be paid to the one leaving same at this office.

Dr. Victor C B Means arrived in the city this morning from New York to attend the bedside of Mr. Wm. G Means, his brother, whose illness is critical, but who is resting easier this afternoon.

Soon the wedding bells will ring, so says Madame Rumor, and parties wishing to buy wedding presents will do well to see us; our handsome Rockers, Tables, Desks Pictures Mirrors, and China Cases are up to date. Dry & Wadsworth.

Engineer Will Kezziah, of the Southern, a former Concord boy but now a resident of Danville, Va., was accidentally, but not fatally, shot while out hunting Saturday evening last. He is a son of Mrs. Polly Kezziah, of this city.

The Salisbury Herald was told Saturday that the barn of Mr. Cap Stewart, who lives just across the river in Davie county, was burned last night. All of Mr. Stewart's stock, including nine horses and a number of cows, were burned. Mr. Stewart is one of the best farmers in Davie county and is well known here. The lost is a heavy one.

Four passenger coaches are now attached to the southbound passenger train instead of two, which affords the traveller more room and comfort.

D M Walker pays the highest market prices for all kind of country produce, cash or barter. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill.

Rev. J R Moose, pastor of Bay's chapel, began a protracted meeting at his church Sunday. The beginning of the meeting is very encouraging. The public is cordially invited to attend all services.

Merchant John K Patterson spent Sunday in Rowan county with his aged uncle, Mr. George Ketner, who has been quite sick with pneumonia. Mr. Ketner is about 75 years of age. He is improving.

Mrs. B S Jerman took with her to Raleigh a handkerchief made by her grandmother's mother. It was away back yonder in 1770. The cotton was ginned by hand, spun and woven by hand. This old article will be put on exhibition at the State Fair.

Rev. M A Smith, of Forest Hill M E church, preached at Central Methodist church Sunday, his pulpit being filled by a visiting Baptist minister. Rev. Parker is afflicted with a boil upon upper lip and was unable to preach Sunday night, therefore there was no service.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, which has out-lived and superseded hundreds of similar preparations, is undoubtedly the most fashionable as well as well economical hair-dressing in the market. By its use, the poorest head of hair soon becomes luxuriant and beautiful.

We learn that while Mrs. J M Russell and children were visiting in Concord last week some person or persons broke in Mrs. Russell's house and ransacked everything in the building. It certainly would be a relief to see all such offenders behind the bars.—Stanly News.

THE CONCORD STANDARD says that rumor persists in claiming that Clerk John Bost, of the St. Cloud, is to be married soon. Rumor up here says that a young widow living near Salisbury is to become Mrs. John Bost, of Concord, in the near future. Madame Rumor must be right this time.—Salisbury World.

Haman life is held too cheaply when the individual who needs a tonic for his system, seeks to cover his wants by purchasing every new mixture that is recommended to him. Remember that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has a well-earned reputation of fifty year's standing.

Rev. J D Shealey received a telegram Saturday evening announcing the death of his father-in-law at Lexington court house, South Carolina. Mr. Shealey's announcements for Sunday were not fulfilled on this account, having been called so suddenly away on a very sad mission.

There came near being a disastrous fire at the home of Mr. R L Young Saturday night. Master Joe, the little two year old boy, pushed a lamp off the centre table in the parlor. The lamp broke and oil ran over the carpet and ignited. After a little excitement the flames were extinguished before any great damage was done.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
