Made the Cook Eat the Biscuit.

Says a former surgeon in the Confederate army: "I remember General Mahone as he appeared before Petersburg in 1864. He was already famous throughout the army for his fighting qualities and his temper. My duty took me frequently past his headquarters, and one morning I saw him pacing up and down in front of his tent while a negro sat in the doorway gorging himself with a fresh pan of biscuit. I turned to an officer and asked the meaning of this strange performance. Then came the explanation that the negro had baked a pan of sour biscuits for breakfast, and Mahone by way of an object lesson, had set the cook to eat all of his product. The negro ate as fast as possible, and Mahone kept up his patrol until the last biscuit disappeared. The performance was characteristic of the man."

The Earth Cracked in Pitt.

In the yard of Mr. John Flauigan, of Farmville township, on the old George Joyner homestead, is a mysterious opening in the ground. It is a large crack in the earth, running from northeast to southwest and is about 100 yards long—large enough to run a tobacco stick in the crevice. It has been there more than a year. It disappears when the rain fills it with wet earth and as soon as the earth dries again it appears, each time more distinctly than the last. It is supposed to be caused by the effect of the earthquake a few years ago which was so disastrous in many portions of the South. Some of the superstitious are very much greatly alarmed, fearing there is about to be a break and separation of the earth in that portion of the world, and they don't know whether they will be on the other side or not.—Greenville Reflector.

Apple Sauce.

Epicures say that apple sauce, eaten with roast pork or roast goose, aids digestion. Whatever may be the active principle contained in this delicious relish that stimulates the stomach to its duty is not clear. It is quite clear, however, that when the stomach refuses to properly perform the work required to it, Ayer's Sarsaparilla is the proper remedy. This medicine not only gives tone and strength to the stomach, but it invigorates all the digestive and bloodmaking organs and, through them, keeps the machinery of life from the obstacles which so often cause it to falter and become irregular in its action.

2201 Gallons Molasses!

Mr. James E. Rhinehardt, of No. 9, was in to see us to engage our news service for a year. He tells us that his brother, William, has just closed down his molasses manufactory. He made this year 2201 gallons of sweet stuff. The biggest crop was raised by Mr. Tom Bost, on Mr. K. O. S. Miller's place—a crop of 350 gallons.
