A BATCH OF LOCAL NEWS.

Picked Up and Put in Shape By Our Hustling Penell Pusher.

Trade was good with all the merchants to-day.

Mrs. H G Ritz, who was so seriously ill, is a great deal better.

Cotton is steady at 8.40 today. Not a great deal has been marketed.

Mrs. Esther Gibson has mince meat, on sale, at Doye & Bost. Call there. n28

Lawyer J L Rendleman, of Salisbury, has lost his pet—a cat with hydrophobia.

Clerk Jno. S Smithdeal is preparing to open a first class restaurant in Salisbury.

Jno. P Allison is selling the kind of guano he has made good wheat with for several years.

It is indeed gratifying to his many and anxious friends to know that Mr. W G Means is improving.

The engine and three large boilers have arrived for the new mill of the Cannon Manufacturing Company.

Seed wheat for sale. Fulcaster, Fultz and Red Chaff wheat at J P Allison.

Mr. John L Miller today completed ten houses for the Cannon Manufacturing Company. Several of them are occupied already.

Feed your cow and family horse on good clean hay. J P Allison has clover and hay by the bale or ton for sale.

Mr. D A Miller, a prominent citizen of Statesville and a native Cabarrus man, is in the county on a visit to friends and relatives.

The farmers are sowing wheat in spite of the dry weather. Mr. G W Dry tells THE STANDARD that the wheat in No. 7 is coming up.

The price of cotton is likely to go up again, now that Cleveland is on his return to Washington. His special passed here this morning.

Stop at D M Walker's if you want anything in the grocery and notion line. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill. tf.

Capt. E C B Hambly, of Rowan county, is mentioned for President of the State Fair in the event that Col. J. S. Carr declines reelection.

No. 36, the morning northbound passenger train was run in two sections this morning. Travel over the Southern was never known to be heavier.

Only fifteen bales of cotton were on the market today. Farmers are holding it now, but when the price advances to 9 cents, it will come a-rollin' in.

Three large brick smoke stacks in a group at the Cannon factories and bleachery will tend to impress the tourist that this is a hustling city—they indicate business.

About ten preachers and delegates returned to the city this morning from a meeting of Conference of the colored Methodist Episcopal church, which was held Tuesday and Wednesday at Pineville.

Human life is held too cheaply when the individual who needs a tonic for his system, seeks to cover his wants by purchasing every new mixture that is recommended to him. Remember that Ayer's Sarsaparilla has a well-earned reputation of fifty year's standing.

D M Walker pays the highest market prices for all kind of country produce, cash or barter. Don't forget the place opposite D C Furr's at Forest Hill. tf.

Odell mill No. 4 shut down Wednesday afternoon on account of something going wrong with the boilers. The defect has been repaired and the machinery is again in motion.

Treasurer Keistler goes down to Raleigh to attend a reform meeting, of which he is the originator. He wants the State Alliance to put in a bid for the Fair Grounds for the location of the shoe factory.

The Ogden Opera Company that produced "Only a Farmer's Daughter" in this city several weeks ago and with which Mr. Phileo accepted a position, has disbanded on account of "bad business." Phileo is at Bristol, Tenn.

Sells circus will pass through here tonight en route to Salisbury. It would be better for some people to go to the depot at this place to take peep at the elephant than to go to Salisbury tomorrow, if the elephant is all they want to see.

Mr. W W Green, of the firm of H E Bucklen & Co., the well known proprietary firm of Chicago, was here yesterday distributing free samples of Dr. King's New Discovery, New Life Pills and Bucklen's Arnica Salve. All this medicine is on sale by the druggists in Concord.

Ayer's Hair Vigor, which has out-lived and superseded hundreds of similar preparations, is undoubtedly the most fashionable as well as well economical hair-dressing in the market. By its use, the poorest head of hair soon becomes luxuriant and beautiful.

Parents should try to explain to their children how dangerous it is for one to chunk rocks at another. While two little white boys were on their way to school this afternoon, they engaged in chunking rocks, thick and fast, at a little colored boy without any provocation whatever. Several of the rocks came near hitting a lady. It occurred on Depot street.

It May do as Much for You.
Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so called kidney cures but without and good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure of all kidney and Liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price 50c. and $1.00, at Fetzler's drug store.

Carlisle Goes Home to Register.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 23.—Secretary Carlisle will leave here Sunday for Covington, Ky., to register, and will remain there only long enough to put his name on the list, returning to Washington Monday evening. He will again visit Covington on November 5th for the purpose of casting his vote for Hardin and the entire Democratic ticket.

The Ideal Panacea.
James L Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the satisfaction of physician's prescriptions and other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church for 50 years or more, and has never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery. Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at Fetzler's drug store.
