A Water-tank Keeper Killed and Robbed By a Negro Boy.

TARBORO, N. C., Oct. 23.—Charles Neville, a respectable white man, keeper of the water-tank near Tarboro, was foully murdered this morning by an unknown person.

Neville had just been paid off, and as he was entering the engine house was shot, the bullet passing through his head. He was found at 12 o'clock.

The railway authorities at once sent for three bloodhounds from the State farm. They, with their keeper, arrived this afternoon and are in hot pursuit.

The keeper says he will catch the murderer before morning. It was a dastardly affair, and the whole community is very much excited.

Later—the murderer has been captured. He was a negro boy that lived in town. He had the dead man's money, watch and knife in his possession.
