That Big Sign.
The Baltimore Bargain House edits one-half of our first page. They hang out their sign even before their stock is opened out. This is evidence that they have bargains in good goods that they wish the public to know and they adopt this method of reaching the public.

Their location will be a splendid and convenient one and to know more about it turn over to their ad before you lay down the paper.

Many Surprised
The announcement of the marriage of Mr. Fred Smith, son of Lawyer W M Smith of this city, in Richmond, Va., on Wednesday evening last to Miss Ida Osoby of that city, was a surprise to many of our citizens and his friends in this place. Mr. and Mrs. Smith are now in the Northern cities and after a few weeks journeying, Mr. Smith will engage in business in Philadelphia, where he will make his home.

Four Thousand Feet of Lumber from One Tree.
Every one on the streets recently have been amazed at the large size of the gum saw stocks being hauled through town by Mr. J M Burrage. One tree was cut into six stocks, then sawed into plank, and the total number of feet of lumber will reach 4,000 if not more. One stock was sawed up Friday last which made 775 feet of heart lumber. This was not a little tree by any means.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

In the Highways and Hedges.

The dark-whiskered evangelist, Proctor, preached in "new town" at Forest Hill Friday night. His welcome in that part of the city is not very cordial, and if the nights were as cold as our citizens are to this class of moralizers and soul saving instruments, they would soon be froze out. Mr. Proctor is to hold a service on the "square" at Forest Hill tonight, and if his discourse is not considerably tamed, he will not have many hearers.
