Daniel-Bost Wedding.

One of the happiest occasions of the season was the marriage at 3 o'clock p. m., October 13th, of Mr. Samuel Garland Daniel, a prominent young lawyer of Littleton, N. C., and Miss Lizzie Bost, the lovely and accomplished daughter of Mr. Martin L. Bost. at Bost's Mill, in this county.

The bride wore a handsome traveling gown of dark green cloth, and carried a handsome bouquet of bride's roses, and maiden ferns. Miss Annie Bost, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and Mr. Ivery Allen, of Thomasville, N. C., acted as best man.

After the ceremony which was beautifully performed by Dr. Junius Bost Fox, the guests repaired to the dining room where a beautiful luacheon was served and enjoyed by a number of invited friends.

The bridal party arrived at the residence of Mr. J. W. Cannon at 8 o'clock; and after spending a pleasant evening, accompanied to the station the bride and groom left on the Southbound train.

Best wishes and congratulations follow the happy couple to their future home.

Mr. Thies' Marriage.

Charlotte Observer: The marriage of Miss Nettie McNinch and Mr. Oscar Thies, son of Capt. Thies, of the Haile gold mine, will take place November 7th, the ceremony to take place at the residence of the bride's mother, on North Poplar street. The marriage is to be very private. There will be no attendants. Mrs. Fletcher, of Monroe, and Mrs. Fannie Goodson, of Concord, will be here to attend the marriage.

Signs That Her Husband Was Failing

"I am afraid you are not as strong as you used to be, John," said a fond wife to her husband. "I think it was time you were getting some insurance on your life."

"Insurance on my life! What are you talking about? I am as healthy as ever I was. Insurance, indeed!"

"Well, dear, I only mentioned it, you know, out of respect to yourself I thought you were failing."

"And what in the world put it into your head that I am failing? Me failing? Why, I am as strong as a horse, and can run up three flights of stairs without taking a breath."

"Well that may be so; but I am afraid you are deceiving yourself."

"Deceiving myself! Goodness gracious, woman, what do you mean?"

"Don't be so impatient. What makes me think you are failing is this. When you were courting me you could hold me on your knee for three hours, now you cannot hold the baby in your lap three minutes."

—Exchange.

[This didn't happen in Concord, but it comes uncomfortably close to—well, we must not use names.]

The Sick Improving.

Miss Nannie Cannon, after a long and severe spell of sickness, is able to sit up and walk about the house. This is glad news to her many friends.

Mr. W. G. Means is greatly improved to-day, although it may be some time before he will be able to be out.

Miss Mollie Swink, who has fever, is a great deal better to-day and her condition is not so alarming.

—Mrs. S. S. Bowden, of New York, is in the city for several days.

Opening Delayed.

Owing to the delay in the arrival of their goods, the Baltimore Bargain House will not be opened for business for several days, probably Tuesday, the 3rd.

An Opening.

Mayor Morrison is having opened an avenue between West Corbin street to the dummy line, lying east of the Cabarrus mill. It is a much needed convenience. It will not be long until there will be extensions needed. The old switch at the Cabarrus mills is being torn away.

No Race at Reidsville.

The race between Jno. R. Gentry and Joe Patchen did not come off at Reidsville on Thursday, on account of the weather. There was a big crowd of disappointed people; among them was a delegation from Concord. The race has been postponed to next Tuesday.

Under an Engine.

Charlotte News: A colored train hand, while coupling a box car to the switch engine, in the passenger yard of the Southern, this afternoon fell in front of the engine and was run over. He fell between the rails and lay flat. The engine passed over him, but he was not killed. He was only smashed and squeezed and bruised, but Dr. Gibbon found no broken bones. The darkey is at the hospital.

Honor Declined.

Rev. T. J. Ogburn is out in a card in the Methodist Protestant, not to use "D. D." in connection with his name, as he has declined the degree of Doctor of Divinity "out of respect for the title and for those who wear it worthily."

WAIT! WAIT! WAIT!

We wish to announce to the public of
CONCORD - AND - VICINITY
THAT THE
BALTIMORE BARGAIN HOUSE IS COMING!

We have taken up quarters in the vacant store room, opposite the National Bank building, of Concord, known as the

Litaker Building, Corner Main and Depot Streets, where we will open on or about NOVEMBER 1st, 1895, with an extensive line of

VERY FINE AND MEDIUM GRADE CLOTHING

The clothing we will have in stock is manufactured by HAMBURGER, STRAUS, SCHLOSS BROS., and other such fine clothing makers. This clothing we will offer the public of Concord and surrounding community at TWENTY-FIVE PER CENT. less than the manufacturers' prices. People, who value their money, will certainly wait for our opening. We will sell you an all wool suit from $4.50 to $15 that would cost you elsewhere from $8.50 to $25. Amongst our other lines we will handle the choicest line of

GENTS' FURNISHINGS HATS, AND SHOES
that was ever seen on the counters in Concord.

WAIT FOR OUR OPENING, NOVEMBER 1, 1895.

Respectfully yours,

J. SHAPPIRO,

BALTIMORE BARGAIN HOUSE,

CONCORD, N. C.

P. S. We will also handle a line of all kinds and makes of shot guns and rifles, repeating and single.
