BETTER HOLD UP.

County fairs doubtless are of great benefit to the counties in which they are held. They stimulate the farmers to improved methods in agriculture, stock raising and fruit growing, arousing a healthy rivalry which will be felt in a few years in an improvement in the number, quality and quantity of the county's products. We would like to see a movement on foot for a county fair for this county.—Monroe Journal.

Cabarrus county has had lots of fairs. Whether they did good sufficient to cover the losses of individuals and the worry and trouble, is a mighty mixed question. Our fair has been abandoned because a few individuals have grown tired of carrying its burdens. It has been so with all fairs—the post mortem has revealed that every time.

We have discovered the kiss microbe and the microbe of old age; it only remains now to discover the bicycle microbe.

"The negro is here and is here to stay forever. The negro babies born every day could not be carried off in all the ships you could bring to our shores," said a negro in the South Carolina Constitutional Convention.

A reporter for the New York World disguised himself as a negro recently, and applied at all the leading hotels in the city for accommodations. All of them were full. It seems that social equality is as far from being a fact North as South.

The fact that microbes lurk in paper money is not the only reason that some men have so little of it.

A man who sits around boasts of his ancestors makes a mighty poor ancestor himself.

A policeman may be always on the beat while on duty and yet be perfectly honest.

The old maid who goes to Heaven gets a man-shun in the sky.

A good place for militia to drill would be in a stone quarry.

November 6th has been set apart at the Atlanta Fair for a demonstration for Cuban independence. Gov. Matthews, of Indians, has been invited to speak on this subject and will doubtless be present.

The Baltimore Sun gives $500 to the newspaper fund to rebuild the rotunda of the University of Virginia which Mr. J H Lindsey, editor of the Charlottesville Progress, has opened in his paper.

Evangelist Dwight L Moody will soon begin a noteworthy series of revival services at Atlanta, Ga., in a tabernacle, seating 7,000 people, which has just been built for them.

The four mules that the Duke of Marlborough bought in Kentucky were white mules, which he will drive four-in-hand. The quartet cost him $1,200.

A Good Indication.

Charlotte Observer: If the patronage of excursions and circuses afford any test of the financial condition of a people, surely ours are not as poor as some would have us believe. There were never as many excursions run in North Carolina in any previous season as were last summer and nearly all were largely patronized. The circuses in the State this fall have drawn great crowds and the schools never opened with as many pupils on their rolls. People will give up money for pleasure which they will not surrender for more important things, and the school attendance is, we believe, accounted the best gauge of the prosperity of a people. Judged by this standard and leaving the others out of consideration, North Carolina was never so prosperous before.

An Organized Gang of Thieves.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 1.—A day or two ago a quantity of corn was stolen from a mill in Orange county and pursuit of the thieves was made. This has resulted in the startling discovery that Jarvis Williamson, a white man of that county, who posed as an earnest church member, was the head of an organized gang of thieves, the operations of which he had conducted for fifteen years. All the other members of the gang are negroes, and Williamson and seven of them are in jail at Hillsboro.

A State Convention Next April.

WINSLOW, N. C., Nov. 1.—One of the best informed men in the State who is out of politics, said to the Associated Press correspondent today that the silver men in North Carolina are now planning to hold township and county conventions all over the State, either the latter part of November or the first of December. Delegates will then be appointed to a State convention which will not be held earlier than next April. The purpose of the silver men is to organize a new party with no plank in it but free silver at a ratio of 16 to 1.

What to Read.

Cincinnati Commercial Gazette: Read history. It is the story of the progress of human life. It teaches by example and stimulates to endeavor.

Read poetry. It enriches the mind with ideals that may become real.

Read romance. The example of its heroes are an exaltation, and tend to the formation of a noble character.

Read the Bible. It gives promise of the future and strengthens the soul.

Like a Historical Society.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Nov. 1.—The session of the Constitutional Convention today was like a meeting of an historical society. Nearly all the old records of negro government were threshed over. One interesting feature was brought out in the discussing of political affairs in 1876 when the Democrats got possession of the State. It was that prominent State officials had entered into an agreement with President Hayes not to prosecute the dishonest Republican State officials, white and black, on condition that South Carolina citizens, imprisoned at Albany and elsewhere for violation of the Federal election laws, should be pardoned. G. D. Tillman was a party to the agreement and he stated that it was faithfully carried out by both parties.

NOT A SICK DAY For Over Thirty Years!

RESULT OF USING

AYER'S PILLS

"Ayer's Cathartic Pills for over thirty years have kept me in good health, never having had a sick day in all that time. Before I was twenty I suffered almost continually—as a result of constipation—from dyspepsia, headaches, neuralgia, or boils and other eruptive diseases. When I became convinced that nine-tenths of my troubles were caused by constipation, I began the use of Ayer's Pills, with the most satisfactory results, never having a single attack that did not readily yield to this remedy. My wife, who had been an invalid for years, also began to use Ayer's Pills, and her health was quickly restored. With my children I had noticed that nearly all their ailments were preceded by constipation, and I soon had the pleasure of knowing that with children as with parents, Ayer's Pills, if taken in season, avert all danger of sickness."—H. WEITSTEIN, Byron, Ill.
